

CITY NEEDS A LARGER HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

Discussed at the Parent-Teacher Meeting Tuesday Night

MATTER MAY BE DECIDED SOON

If Hillsboro is to be School Center, Something Must be Done

The matter of more school room at Hillsboro High was discussed informally Tuesday evening, at the Parent-Teacher meeting, at the public school. Messrs. Garrett and Gates, of the school board, and Prof. Amsden, city superintendent, made short talks, citing the fact that the school is crowded at present, and will have to be enlarged to accommodate the additional students to enter next year. Dr. Robb also spoke on the benefit to the district of an enlarged High School building.

Reports on beautifying the school grounds, the need of a gymnasium, the rest rooms at the schools, and the state meeting at The Dalles were submitted, but the matter of more building at the Third St. property was the big feature of discussion. The members of the board present wanted it understood that it was up to the voters of the school district, and a special school election may be called in the not distant future to decide whether or not the district shall build an addition in the Spring. Architects may soon be called on to submit plans and have them in readiness for future developments.

The meeting was held in the music room, recently fitted up, and with its neat scrim curtains, some pictures and potted plants, presents an artistic appearance. The musical numbers were a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Harbison and a piano solo by Miss Eva Carstensen.

The following were appointed as a committee for the next meeting: Misses Brogren, Young and Weathered, of the Grade School, and Messdames C. E. Wells and J. O. Robb.

COUNTY TEACHERS AT HILLSBORO MEETING

Interesting Session Held Here Saturday, at High School

H. D. SHELDON, OF U. OF O., HERE

Many Valuable Addresses Heard on School Questions

The Washington County Teachers' Association met in the High School building, at Hillsboro, Saturday, November 11.

The meeting was called to order by President Anna Taylor, and opened with a song, led by Prof. Ingram.

County Superintendent Barnes the first speaker on the program, spoke of "Teachers' Troubles." Geo. D. Ingram, Supervisor of Music in the Hillsboro Schools, gave a talk upon "Music" in the schools, touching briefly upon the influence of music upon the pupil, in the home, school, community and nation. Several of his methods were exemplified by pupils present.

After a short recess, teachers repaired to rooms where the Department Round Table discussions were held under the following leaderships:

Primary, Mrs. Minerva Brown. Intermediate, Elsie K. Lathrop. Grammar, J. P. McGlasson. High School, Ralph E. Winger. The afternoon session opened with songs, Prof. Ingram, conductor. Mrs. Martha Dillon, of Progress, gave a most interesting and practical talk upon scroll work, illustrating with an exhibit of her pupils' work that was excellent.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, H. H. Cochran; First Vice Pres., Alva P. Patton; Second Vice Pres., Mrs. C. E. Barker; Third Vice Pres., Martha Dillon; Reporter, Hettie A. Thomas.

Prof. H. D. Sheldon, of the University of Oregon, gave the principal address of the day.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Verne McKinney

The farewell party tendered Prof. Bradford last Friday evening, in the High School auditorium, was a splendid affair, and all did their share in showing their appreciation of the popular faculty member. A gold watch-fob, with H. H. S. engraved upon it, was presented to him by the student body, and the Junior class, for which he was sponsor, gave him a copy of Adam Bede. The evening was started with games in which all joined. Miss Georgia Baldwin delighted the audience with a splendid solo, with Vincent Englinger as piano accompanist. A track meet, in which the faculty members joined, was the unique feature of the evening. A box of candy was awarded to the champions. A mock literary society followed, being a burlesque prophesying Mr. Bradford's debating society at the Spokane High School in 1923.

A farewell talk was given by the students by Mr. Bradford. Mr. Bradford's mother was present from Portland, and also his wife. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Miss Cushman, a Stanford graduate, has taken Prof. Bradford's place. Miss Kincaid has taken two of his geometry classes.

Jolly comrades held a party at the High School last evening. Dinner was served in the domestic science room, after which games were participated in. The plans of this out of town club have changed, and they will have only one party a month and these will be under the auspices of both boys and girls.

About sixteen students go to Pacific University every Tuesday evening to use the gymnasium and swimming tank. Plans are under way for a gym class.

The Corvallis High School orchestra will be here Wednesday evening, Nov. 29, in the High School auditorium. It is for the benefit of the High School and everyone who wants to hear a good musical treat should go, as the admission is but 25c.

Mr. Ingram has instituted a musical program for every Thursday afternoon in the future. The program of last Thursday consisted of a piano solo by Helen Gunton, vocal solo by Florence Garrett, and a reading by Marjory Wells.

The Freshmen football team defeated Dilley by a score of 33 to 0, on the High School gridiron Tuesday afternoon. It was a thriller from start to finish. Otto Olson, Freshman halfback, was the star of the game, making three touchdowns, one from the kick-off. His touchdowns were all made from runs on the Conn type. Lepchat also played a stellar game at half for the Freshies, making two touchdowns and successfully kicking three goals. Stoffer, at full, did some excellent live plunging. Their next game will be Friday, Nov. 24 with Toledo High.

The girls' volleyball team started practice Monday night. They hope to have inter class games later.

Velma Tipton was elected captain of the girls' basket ball team, and there is material for several good teams.

Freshman class has purchased caps; colors, maroon and gold.

LaVerne Levis, who has been attending High School, has returned to her home in McMinnville.

Misses Thomas, Edna Dooley and Florence Garrett, of High School, attended the Schumann-Heinek concert in Portland, Saturday night. Mrs. Wm Bowman accompanied Miss Garrett.

BUMP--SOUTHER

A quiet wedding was celebrated in Portland, Wednesday, Nov. 15, 1916, when Mark B. Bump was united in marriage to Miss Berna Olive Souther. The license was issued out of Washington County. The bride is well known in this city, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Souther, of First St. The groom has resided at Forest Grove for many years, and has maintained law offices in Hillsboro. Both are highly esteemed, and have a large circle of friends. They will reside on West Baseline, and will be at home to their friends after their honeymoon.

FRANK M. ENOCHS

Frank M. Enoch, aged 25 years, son of J. W. Enoch, of Hillsboro, fell from the deck of the Steamer Oregon, at the foot of Oregon Street, Portland, at 6.30 Monday evening, and was drowned. He was trucking, and stepped to one side to allow a fellow laborer to pass. He lost his balance and plunged into twenty feet of water. The body was recovered an hour later. His brother-in-law, J. McFarland, saw the fatality. The dead man was born in Nebraska, and death came on his birthday. He was industrious and sober, and had many friends. His last visit here was a week ago Sunday, when he spent the day with his father. He leaves to mourn his loss, his father and the following sisters: Mrs. Lorena Craig, of Portland; May Enoch, Hillsboro; Mrs. Gertrude Robertson and Mrs. Blanche McFarland, of Portland.

The services were held in Portland last evening, and interment was in the Odd Fellows Cemetery, Hillsboro at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The following are those taking part: Floyd Ennes, Frances Cockrell, Eva Sorenson, Gladys Everett Reid Connell, Ethel Sample, Danah and Raymond Larsen, Affie Reagan, Helen Connell, Ethel Connell, Cynthia Powers, Emma Latham, Norma Kerr, Cecil Emmott, John Simpson, Ruth Jones Estella Nelson, Frank Roy, Gladys Horton, Clifford Payton, Kathryn Kood.

Hard Time Social—The Ladies Aid, of Schools, will give a hard time social at the Artisan Hall, on Thanksgiving eve, Wednesday, Nov. 29, at 8 o'clock. A good literary program will be prepared. Refreshments will be served by the ladies. Hard time prices will be charged. Come and have a good time. Remember the date. 35.6

The Hillsboro All-Stars, stellar players of past and present football fame, are to get a game with some outside team, Thanksgiving Day, presumably with P. U. The local eleven believe they can win some games this year and atone for former Hillsboro defeats. In the stars are McGee, Lytle, Heater, Shannon, Rollins, Vaught, Bruce and Frank Schulmerich, Fisher, Porter, Robinson, Long and Ingebristen. These should prove a drawing card for the Thanksgiving game.

The two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Adkins, of North Plains, was badly burned a few days ago, by getting its clothing into contact with a camp stove. The child's left side was charred badly and while it is still alive its condition is critical. Dr. E. H. Smith was called to attend the sufferer.

C. R. Besse, formerly superintendent of the Hillsboro water and light system, was in the city yesterday, accompanied by his brother-in-law, R. B. Sprague. Mr. Besse is now located in Portland. He says that Virgil Cooper, formerly with the water and light company, is doing well as proprietor of a garage on the Sandy Road.

Garnet, the 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Guilds, of near Laurel, fell into scalding water one day last week, and was severely scalded on the back and hip. Dr. E. H. Smith is treating the little one.

Joe Vermilyea, Dilley, repaired a ballot box for the county, and in billing, wrote, "If Benson is elected, 0; Wilson elected, 50 cts; Hughes elected, $1.50. The job is worth 50 cts." The bill was sworn to by W. R. Stephens, and approved by J. W. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Emrick visited with relatives in Clackamas county, over Sunday. While there their little infant was christened. Mr. Emrick returned Monday, and his wife remained until today.

Mrs. Susan Essner, of Mountandale, returned yesterday from a year's visit with her son, in California, and is now the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John W. Connell.

D. C. Stokesbury, of Forest Grove, was in town Tuesday. He has had a siege of 135 days running one of the county's big road rollers. Last year he ran the big machine 157 days before closing for the season.

F. I. Webber, well drilling a specialty, 1888-1916, Box 61, Garden Home, or Box 31, Orenco, Oregon. 33.36

Geo. W. Stitt, of Beaverton, was up yesterday, on business connected with the citizenship court.

Robt. Robinson, of Farmington, was a county seat caller, Tuesday, greeting friends.

Mrs. A. Hinricks, of near Beaverton, was a Hillsboro visitor yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taylor, Hillsboro, Nov. 5, 1916, a daughter.

Chas. Miller, of the Arcade section, was down to the city the last of the week.

H. A. Shadden, of West Union, was in town Monday.

John Marty, of near Cedar Mill, was in town Monday.

John Oppenlander, of Varley, was a city visitor Monday.

Wm. Ross, of Meek Plains, was in the city yesterday.
