

HIGH SCHOOL STAGES A SPLENDID CONCERT

Corvallis High Orchestra at High School Building

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 29

Auspices Hillsboro High. Home-made Candy Will be Sold by the H. S. Girls

The High School students of Hillsboro are giving a concert at the High School Auditorium, on the evening of Wednesday, Nov. 29, starring the Corvallis High School Orchestra, in twelve numbers, each a gem within itself. The public is cordially invited to attend, and at the same time benefit the students to the extent of their admissions.

The orchestra in question has a reputation second to no student body in the Northwest, and it will be well worth hearing. The program:

- United Liberty March.
- Selection, "Babe in Toyland," Violin solo, "Traumeri," by John Bedyneck.
- A dainty Nocturne, "Sweet Jasmine."
- Selections by The Quartet. Rag Time Regiment Band.
- Intermission.
- Descriptive March, "The Burning of Rome."
- Vocal solo, "A Banjo Song," by Stewart Tulley.
- Barcarolle from "Tales of Hoffman."
- Hawaiian songs by the King of the Ukulele—John Beatie.
- Anvil Chorus from "Il Trovatore."
- Finale, "Old Glory."

Delicious home-made candy will be sold by High School girls. This is a fine chance to get your Thanksgiving candy.

Admission, 25 cents.

MRS. JOSIAH WEST

Mrs. Josiah West died at Clatsop, Ore., Nov. 18, 1916, aged 76 years. Her maiden name was Lamira Harrison, and as a girl she resided near Mountandale, being a sister of John Harrison. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. Chris Peterson, Hillsboro; Lloyd G. West, Willis J. West; Mrs. A. W. Prescott, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. D. E. Fulkerson, Mrs. R. W. Home-made mince-meat for Thanksgiving, at Greer's.

Plans are being completed for the best and most artistic bazaar ever held in St. Matthew's Parish. This year's articles far surpass those of previous years, although St. Matthew's bazaar is noted for its wonderful array of useful, fancy and necessary things, all of which are suitable for Christmas gifts. The prices of the various articles of handicraft merely cover the cost of material. An innovation will be introduced this year in the serving of dinner each day. The Christmas sale will be held the 8th, 9th and 10th of December, in the St. Matthew's Hall.

Wanted—Number of turkeys, ducks and geese for Thanksgiving. Also want number of chickens. Call 25F15 via North Plains, any day excepting Saturday.

TALENTED WOMAN DIES AT SAND POINT, IDAHO

Mrs. Burt E. Robinson, Formerly Wilhelmina Heidel, Passes Away

BROUGHT HERE FOR INTERMENT

Was General Favorite—Possessed Exceptionally Eloquent Ability

Mrs. Burt E. Robinson, formerly Miss Wilhelmina Heidel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Heidel, of Hillsboro, died at Sand Point, Idaho, November 20, 1916, and the remains of herself and little child, born the day of her death, were brought to this city for interment. The funeral took place at the Cong. Church yesterday afternoon, and burial was in the local cemetery.

Mrs. Robinson was born in Elk Co., Kas., Sept. 12, 1883. When a child her family moved to Hillsboro. She graduated from the Hillsboro Grammar School in 1899; from Tualatin Academy, in 1903; from Pacific University in 1908, and from the Curry School of Expression, Boston, Mass., in 1910. Mrs. Robinson was possessed of exceptional elocutionary ability, and her capabilities in this regard covered a wide range. Her personal character and disposition was such that it endeared her to all who knew her and her death means a sorrow to all Hillsboro as well as to the bereaved family.

She was married to Burt E. Robinson, connected with the Sand Point College, August 18, 1915.

Of her immediate family she is survived by her parents, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Bertha Calhoun, of Hanford, Cal.; Lewis, at home; Fred and Carl, of Summit; Herbert, of Glenwood, Wn.; and Misses Mary and Wilma, at home.

All Hillsboro extends to the grief-stricken family and husband its sincerest sympathy.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Verne McKinney

The boys' literary societies met Monday and had a very interesting program. The American question was discussed, and also Parliamentary Law. The program for the next meeting will consist of a sketch from "Midsummer Night's Dream," discussion of Parliamentary Law and current events. The first section of the boys' literary society has been named the Arguets, and the second division is called Tzum-til-a-kum, meaning scribe.

The Freshmen class are expecting their caps soon, so you will be able to distinguish these bright young Freshies by their headgear.

The Freshmen football team will play the McMinnville Freshmen, on the High School gridiron, Friday, Nov. 24, at 3:30. All should turn out and help support the Freshmen, as they deserve it.

The Freshmen also have a Thanksgiving Day game with the second team of Forest Grove High School. "Remember the rivalry!"

The girls' first basketball team defeated the second team Tuesday afternoon, by a score of 32 to 2. The second team played a plucky game, but were playing against last year's winning team, which is almost intact. Rumor has it that a first team star is going to be lost to them by the marriage route, but it is hoped with all the good material to have a team superior to that of last year.

The Jolly Comrades have elected Gladys Ruef, secretary, and the Arguets have selected Odell Brandaw to fill vacancies caused by the resignation of William Helms.

The German Club held its regular meeting last evening, at the High School building, and after a short business session, a delightful entertainment was given. It consisted of German songs, games and dialogues. All their business is carried on in German, and is very interesting.

The musical program of today consisted of a mandolin and guitar selection by Charles Wells and Ray Bealer, a reading by Herbert Scheidt, and a piano solo Clifford Payton.

Don't forget the concert and candy sale at the High School building, Wednesday evening, November 29.

Just received—A fine lot of fruit trees, ornamental shrubbery, berry bushes; also strawberries, a good family assortment. All that any one could want to start a yard with.—Morton Greenhouse, corner Second and Lincoln Streets, Hillsboro, Oregon. 36-7

Fred G. Heidel, of Summit, is here, called to Hillsboro to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Robinson.

A birthday party was tendered Herman Pfahl, of Blooming, Nov. 16, 1916. The evening was spent in playing games and conversation. At midnight a delightful luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. Fred Kraher, Misses Helen and Freda Pfahl, Edna Kraher, Louise Dober, Lydia Thurner, Minnie Huhman, Helen Goetze, Anna Kamna, Saloma Gnos, Myrtle Holtz, Emma Sinay, Meta Wolf, Mary Doran and Lois Ward; the Messrs. Fred Kraher, Dick Huhman, Herman, Chas., Oscar and Teddy Pfahl, John and Henry Kamna, Fred Dober, Henry Haase John Goetze, Henry and Will Holtz, Louis Fisher, Alfred Reehse, Rudolph Meyer, Will Thurner, Will Goetze, Ed. Epler, Arnold Gnos, Ray Ward and Henry Schulenburg.

Dr. Turner, formerly of Lowe & Turner, eye specialist, of Portland, will be in Hillsboro, Saturday, Nov. 25, at Hotel Washington. Headaches relieved, cross-eyes straightened. Satisfaction guaranteed. Consult him. Dr. Turner will attend to any of Dr. Lowe's patients who may call during his absence. Also at Forest Grove, Nov. 24.

John, Matthew and George Engledinger left yesterday for St. Helens, where they will work in a shipyard. The boys have contracted to do cabin carpentering, the classiest work on vessels, and as the company has work ahead for five years, they may have steady work if they want it. Five a day is the wages paid this class of work, and an extra good man can get more after trial. As the boys are all good workmen they expect to participate in a raise as soon as their merits are established.

For sale: Bay mare, blooded, sound and true, fine driver, good for physician or family horse; woman can drive; city broke; trotter. On trial for a week to responsible party. Also harness and buggy. Phone F. 364, Hillsboro Central. 34-7

Sheriff Reeves Sunday brought from Portland and lodged in jail one L. E. Roberts, who is charged with stealing a suit of clothes, last Thursday, from one of the officials of the Eagle Lumber Co., of West Timber. Roberts and a companion left Timber Thursday, and the suit was sold to a Portland second-hand dealer. The clothing was found by the Portland police, and will be returned to the owner.

Grant Downing, well known here, is again in the merchandise business, after a lapse from that for several years, since he was selling merchandise over at Vernonia. Grant has his business at Summit, between Corvallis and Yaquina, and Frank Paul, who built his store structure, says he is doing nicely.

Ida Grul, who gives Hillsboro as her residence, sues Wm. M. Grul for divorce. They were married in Portland in 1907, and have a son, Carl, aged 8 years. The complaint alleges the husband called her vile names. She wants the custody of the child and such other relief as the court deems proper.

R. B. Goodin and wife, of Salem; T. R. Imbrie, of Portland; Mrs. Fred Zilly, Hillsdale; Mrs. Clifford Woodland, formerly Miss Luella Imbrie, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goodin, of Cornelius, were in the city Saturday, attending the funeral of the late John Goodin.

Chas. D. Farnham will thresh 25 tons of white beans this year, and this gives him the championship of Washington County, beyond doubt. As beans are hovering around the 8 and 9 cent quotation this means a fine return for the 1916 crop. Mr. Farnham expects to increase his acreage next year.

J. A. Zimmerman, of Roseland Farm, was in town Tuesday. J. A. has resigned as supervisor, asking that it take effect at the next term of county court. He says he has enough to do on the ranch, anyway, and wants to get out of the road business.

Prof. Chas. Hostetler, Chair of Economics, at Huron, S. D., accompanied by his wife, visited at the C. Blaser home the first of the week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Louisa Hostetler, of Portland, a sister of Mr. Blaser.

Bertha G. Howard, of Yamhill county, sues her husband, J. L. Howard, for divorce, alleging infidelity and desertion. The husband is a bartender in California, at present. She wants $40 per month permanent alimony, and the custody of their three small children.

Circuit court—Oney Belle Gossman was given a decree of divorce from R. C. Gossman, neither party to marry until the case shall be settled on appeal to the Supreme Court, and if not appealed, neither party to marry until six months shall have elapsed.

Steve Vranson and Verna Gaylord, of Gresham, were granted marriage license yesterday.
