HILLSBORO, OREGON, NOVEMBER 30, 1916

WILSON SUPPORTERS HAVE "LOVE FEAST"

Dine at Hotel Washington Thursday Evening, and Exchange Ideas

PATRIOTISM ABOVE PARTISANSHIP

Many Felicitations Over Result of the November Election

The election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency was discussed at table at the Hotel Washington, last Thursday night, by the supporters of the democratic candidate, and many were the felicitations on the outcome.

Nearly every speaker dwelt upon the fact that the victory was essentially a peoples' victory, and that it was far from a partisan score. More than one talker dwelt upon the fact that for the time being the tariff and other kindred issues in days of the past were thrown in the discard, and that Wilson won because of the citizen who voted to not rock the boat in trying and troublous times.

Those at table were Dr. F. A. Bailey, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Erwin, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Marshall, Messrs. and Mesdames William Schulmerich, L. A. Long, Chas. E. Wells, John M. Wall, Fred J. Sewell, August Tews, Dan B. Burkhalter, J. C. Lamkin, Elmer Johnson, Edw. Schulmerich; Mesdames J. E. Reeves, C. W. Rollins, E. C. McKinney; Messrs. David Corwin, Fred Rood, Herman Schulmerich, Verne McKinney, Hillsboro; Hon. Ira E. Purdin, W. J. McCready, O. M. Sanford and Robert P. Wirtz, Forest Grove; H. V. Meade and John A. McGee, Orengo; J. W. Raynard, Scholls.

After a delightful course opened the program for the evening was opened by Dr. F. A. Bailey, who presided as Toastmaster. After a short review of the campaign and the issues on which the battle was fought, responses were made by the following:

Dr. Erwin, Wm. Schulmerich, L. A. Long, Chas. E. Wells, Ed. Schulmerich, Mrs. Rollins, Mrs. Wells, Hon. Ira E. Purdin, John A. McGee, O. M. Sanford and R. P. Wirtz.

The assembly adjourned shortly after ten o'clock.

E. H. ROTERMUND

E. H. Rotermund died at his home at Newton, Nov. 25, 1916, after an illness covering a period of years. He was born in DuPage Co., Ill., June 2, 1861, the son of Lewis and Louise Rotermund. He is survived by his widow, of Newton, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Matilda Geiske, Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Sophia Menk, St. Paul, Minn., and a sister, Mrs. J. Jaeger, of Portland.

The funeral took place Monday from the Donelson Undertaking chapel.

He was married to Miss Anna L. Clancy, of St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 8, 1884, and two years later they came to Oregon. Since coming to the state they have lived at Portland and Grants Pass, later moving to Newton, where they purchased a tract and have made their home for many years.

Mrs. W. R. Frenzel, of Portland, visited with friends here Saturday afternoon.

J. W. Hughes, of Dilley, was in town Saturday. Speaking of his Holstein sale, cried in Tillamook, last week, he said: "It was a little the best sale of Holsteins I have ever cried. There were but four in the lot in the junior two-year class, the others being in the yearling and better. The highest—they were all registered stock—sold for $700 and the lowest for $130. The sale averaged $333 per head—a monument to the breeding of Holsteins in Oregon. The stock was from Wisconsin breeding."

We buy hogs, beef cattle, sheep, chickens, hides, etc. Highest prices paid for all good stuff. Write or phone.—Rogers & Carter, Beaverton, R. 4, Box 20, Phone, Beaverton 53 Line 3. tf

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Baumann, of Honolulu, and Miss Sophia Baumann, of Portland, were guests at the L. A. Long home, Saturday. The Baumanns return to California next week, and later sail for their island home. Mr. Baumann is interested in pineapple growing and exporting, and does a big business with the coast states. He spent a part of his life near Cedar Mill, where his mother still resides.

Found—On my place above Mountindale, a rifle, in good repair. Owner will please call, prove property, pay for this advertisement, and take same away.—H. G. Luck, Mountindale, Oregon. 36-8

Clifford Long, who visited here last week, arriving in after spending the Summer in Montana, departed for California, to remain until Spring. He may possibly go over to the Sandwich Islands before returning.

For Sale—Two young, good cows, Jerseys. Team of mares, average weight, 1100; free from blemish. All for $160; also three incubators and brooders. Ever-bearing strawberries. Progressive strain.—Address S. J. Cloake, Beaverton, Ore., or call one and one-half mile north of Reedville. 37-8

Mrs. S. E. Kester, whose husband formerly owned the cannery site in North Hillsboro, writes from Ottawa, Kas., for another year of the family journal.

For Sale—Several fresh cows, all good milkers. Also have a few fine gobblers, splendid for breeding purposes.—Austin Sims, Telephone Scholls line. Residence below Farmington. 36-8

Wm. Wolf, of North Hillsboro, celebrated his 77th birthday last week. William is as spry as the average man of 55, and more so than many of that age.

NEW CARS FOR S. P. ARE NOW ARRIVING

Mills and Timber Development Building All the Time

WHY NOT BUILD FREIGHT CARS?

Oregon Electric Will Build a Two Million Dollar Line

The Industrial Review of the Manufacturers' Association sends out the following for the week's news:

Eugene—Plans approved for Blair roundhouse Coos Bay line by S. P. Co. Willamette Pacific to expend $50,000 here on terminals.

Hood River has a candy and glace apple factory. Stanfield—Alfalfa ranch sells for $250 per acre.

Bend is shipping potatoes East. Roseburg—Pacific Tel. & Tel. Co. to spend $5320 on new cable between here and Edenbower.

Fifteen hundred ship carpenters on Willamette & Columbia receive increase in pay. Shipbuilding is a natural industry for Pacific Coast ports and freight car building a good interior industry.

In the offshore lumber trade, Washington and Oregon tide water mills shipped 34,212,787 feet of lumber during the month of October.

The Dalles valuations are down $350,000 and city levy goes up a mill.

Portland—Pan Pan Chewing Gum Co. capitalized at $25,000 to be new local industry with factory here.

J. H. Dyer, Ass't. Gen. Mgr. of the Southern Pacific, returning from a month's absence, brings cheering reports of the car shortage situation and says that the first lot of new cars recently ordered by the S. P. Co. now is beginning to arrive. The cars will be distributed among shippers throughout the Southern Pacific territory, and Oregon will get its share. Business throughout the Pacific Coast is improving says Mr. Dyer.

Tillamook—Several carloads of Tillamook cheese are being shipped to the East this week. First time in history of Oregon industry that cheese has been sent from here to the Eastern states.

Salem—Each ward of the state costs $22.47 or about twice as much as each member of a workman's family gets to live on. Country Club to erect building—brick block going in on Liberty.

Oregon Electric planning a two million dollar extension to Cascadia timber holdings for Monarch mills at Portland.

Medford—Work started on $25,000 Applegate Lumber Co. sawmill.

Multnomah county to erect $150,000 hospital.

Portland—With $15,000,000 less valuations tax rate for 1917 not increased.

G. B. Best, of California, visited here the first of the week.

John Lippert, of Banks, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday.

Herb Matteson, of Gaston, was down to Hillsboro, Monday, greeting friends.

John Fuegy, of Phillips, was transacting business in town the first of the week.

Gus Kleier, of Laurel, was in town the last of the week, greeting friends.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Rossie W. Jack, of Farmington, Nov. 20, 1916, a son.

Clay Fisher, who graduated from Hillsboro High last spring, is down from O. A. C., visiting with friends.

Chas. R. Powelson, of Seattle, and Ethyl Lethbridge were granted marriage license the first of the week.

C. M. Scofield, of Strassel, supervisor, was in town Monday. Again his district will expend a special tax on the roads.

W. C. Eady, of near Sherwood, was in town Monday. His road district, in which he is supervisor, voted a road tax Saturday.

A. C. Carstens, of Banks, was down to the city Monday, on probate business, connected with the Lestiko estate, final settlement being made.

Thos. Murphy Jr., of above Mountindale, was in town Monday, making out the returns of the special levy voted in his district, Saturday.

Hon. S. B. Huston, of Portland, was out Monday, on legal business in circuit court. Mr. Huston was elected state senator at the recent election.

Nick Kemmer, of Cooper Mountain, was up to the county seat the first of the week. Nick says his district again voted a special tax and seems to be glad of it.

J. D. Ellis, of South Tualatin, was in town Monday. He reports that the wind Monday morning came pretty close to shaking his new home off the foundation.

The postmaster at Garden Home has resigned and the Civil Service Commission will soon hold an examination of applicants for appointment to the position. The post there is growing right along, and will in the not distant future become a paying office.

Otto Brose, of Timber, was in town Monday, reporting his road district vote, which was for ten mills. Brose has been doing more work than any supervisor in the county, and he is making the roads up there some highways.

The sin of gluttony is common and therefore much condoned, but like every other violation of Nature's laws has a penalty.

Fat inefficiency, sluggish mentality, the reddened nose, the pimpled face, certain of the chronic skin eruptions, and much fatigue and nervousness are due to the abuse of the digestive apparatus. Rich, indigestible foods in large quantities, highly seasoned to stimulate the jaded palate, are forced into a body already rebellious from repletion. Exercise is largely limited to walking to and from the table and bodily deterioration proceeds rapidly. Many an overfed dyspeptic, suddenly dragged by the stern hand of circumstances from a life of physical ease and plenty, and forced to work out of doors suddenly discovers that his semi-invalidism has gone, that a chronic skin derangement of many years standing has disappeared and that a new vigor and zest of life has been given him. - U. S. Health Service.

Dr. Turner, formerly of Lowe & Turner, the well known eye specialist of Portland, will be in Hillsboro again Tuesday, Dec. 12th, at Hotel Washington. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened, satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. Lowe's patients attended during his absence. You could not make a more appropriate present for Christmas than to have your father, mother, sister or brother's eyes examined by a specialist of experience and standing, and, if needed, present them with an up-to-date pair of glasses, which will be durable and lasting, and at the same time preserve their eye-sight, which is the most precious sense they have. Dr. Turner makes no charge for consultation or examination and he most positively will not recommend glasses where they are not needed. You can order them, and have them delivered at Christmas time if desired. Consult him. Don't forget the date. 37-8

TWENTY-SIX ROAD DISTRICTS SAY TAX

One More Than Last Year Declared for Permanent Roads

FOUR OUT OF THE THIRTY FAIL

Old Cedar Mill, Premier District on Rock Roads, Affirmative

Twenty-six out of thirty road districts voted special road tax, at their meetings last Saturday, and the vote is certainly indicative that the good roads movement is under swing all over Washington County. The vote was:

Dist. No.	Supt.	Mills
1	C. Geiberger	2 1/2
2	Z. T. Cole	7
3	W. N. Hathorn	8
7	Jonas Mohline	5
8	H. T. Hesse	4
9	Alf Zwiener	4
11	J. J. Wismer	6
20	Thos. Murphy	5
21	Geo. Fisher	5
22	H. L. Robinson	5.8
23	H. W. Scott	5
24	J. H. Hoffman	10
25	John Trachsel	10
29	J. S. West	5
31	Roy Moore	6
34	Ambrose Schmidlin	8
36	C. C. Nelson	9
41	R. Fehlman	5
43	Albert Kruger	5
44	W. C. Eady	5
45	Alfred Pieren	6
46	D. L. Smith	6
47	Nick Kemmer	6
48	Thos. Bradley	3
42	Otto Brose	10
53	C. M. Scofield	10

Four districts which had called meetings in which the tax was defeated are No. 6, Neis Larsen, supervisor; No. 12, W. J. Greig, supervisor; No. 19, Fred Hamel, supervisor; and No. 25, J. A. Zimmerman, supervisor.

Last year twenty-five districts voted special taxes—and this year's vote is an open declaration for permanent roads.

The tax levy, special, last year, was $54,970, and it is thought this year fully as much, or a little more will be raised.

GEORGE W. BARNES

Clatskanie, Or., Nov. 25—(Special.)—George W. Barnes, long a resident of this state, died here Nov. 23 after several months' illness.

Mr. Barnes was born in Miami County, Indiana, November 28, 1844. Most of his boyhood days were spent in Warren County, Illinois, and Prairie City, Ia.

In 1873 he went to California. Coming to Oregon in 1879, he resided at The Dalles until 1884, then removed to Columbia County. In 1905 he went to Hillsboro and removed to Clatskanie in 1911.

At the time of his death he was Justice of the Peace.

Besides his widow, he leaves four children Guy and Fred Barnes, of this city; Frank Barnes, of Skamania, Wash., and Mrs. Maud Pullman, of Portland. Funeral services were conducted today.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to tender our sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted us with aid or sympathy during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late Mr. Kirby.

Mrs. J. W. Kirby and Family, Scholls, Nov. 24, 1916.

For Sale
