STEINKE—GREENER

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday, Dec. 6, 1916, at High Noon, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emelia Greener, when Hattie Anna was united in marriage to Samuel A. Steinke, Rev. E. W. Luecke officiating, using the beautiful double ring ceremony. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Verna Kehse, of Hillsboro.

The bride was beautiful in a lavender silk gown, wearing a veil with a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white carnations and fern. Miss Lydia Greener, sister of the bride, acting as bridesmaid, wore blue silk, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and fern. Edward Freudenthal acted as best man. BENTLEY—WALCH

A pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Walch, First Street, Hillsboro, Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Viola, was united in marriage to Samuel Bentley, connected with the Hotel Washington. Rev. Clay, of the Christian Church, performed the ceremony, using the beautiful ring ceremony.

The bride was attended by Miss Veima Tipton, and Elmer Batcher officiated as groomsmen. Miss Hazel Johnson, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march from Mendelssohn.

The bride was charming in a gown of white silk poplin, with veil, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid wore white voile, and carried pink carnations.

The house was uniquely decorated with long festoons of yellow and white crepe tissue intertwined with fern and white and yellow chrysanthemums, radiating from the center to all parts of the apartments. One corner of the parlor was heavily banked with fern and chrysanthemums, and it was here that Dan Cupid bound the two hearts with a plain band of gold.

MILK WENT TO $2 ON FIRST OF DECEMBER

This is the Premier Price Paid for Butter Fat in History

FARMERS GIVEN ANOTHER BENEFIT

Carnation Company Notified Dairymen of Raise Last Friday

Washington County dairymen were notified last Friday morning that the Carnation Company had raised the price of milk to two dollars per hundred weight. The price for the month preceding was $1.95, and this was the highest price ever paid for bulk milk—but the last raise was unlooked for. The company is wanting all the milk it can get, and as prices of butter fat and condensed milk had raised, the farmer is also given a benefit.

This raise will mean hundreds of dollars increase to the monthly payroll, and while it is hardly possible that the price will go higher, conditions are such that it is not improbable. The new raise will very likely increase the supply, and will be a considerable stimulus in the dairy industry.

W. E. Fellows, who lost a residence by fire up at Sandy, Dec. 5, 1915, has sued the Bankers' & Merchants' Mutual Fire Ins. Ass'n., which held a policy of the building, in the sum of $500. Fellows claims there are about $600 in the treasury, and he has been given an injunction denying the company the right to dispose of any of this money. He also wants L. E. Thompson appointed receiver. There are other claims against the defendant company, and he is willing that other claimants may come in and enjoy pro rata what is left. As the liabilities are about $7,547.90, it appears that in case Fellows' case goes through he will get less than $50 for his fire loss and claim of $500.

Greenbury H. Busby died at his home near Hillsboro, Dec. 5, 1916. He was born in Illinois in 1848. He leaves to mourn his loss three sisters—Mrs. Emma E. Bradley, of Bucoda, Wn.; Mrs. M. I. The bride was tastefully and beautifully gowned in white net over white silk, and was attended by her cousin, Miss Edna Green of Portland, and her sister, Miss Hilda VanLom, who were dressed in cream silk. The groom was attended by Ed. VanLom, brother of the bride. Little Gladys VanLom, daughter of Leonard VanLom, was flower girl. Miss Bertha Akm, of Hillsboro, played the wedding march. The bride was given away by her father, John VanLom.

After the ceremony Mrs. VanLom, the bride's mother, served a beautiful wedding dinner and over 60 guests besides the immediate family were at table. After dinner dancing was indulged until a late hour. The bride and groom left for California amid showers of rice and the hearty wishes of their friends.

The presents were many and beautiful. There were several guests from Portland and Hillsboro.

The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Centerville, where the young couple will make their home.
