

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Verne McKinney

Boys' basketball practice started in last Monday, at the gymnasium, and there was a fine turnout. A practice game has been scheduled with Tualatin on Friday evening, Dec. 22. The regular schedule will begin after the holiday vacation.

The girls' basketball players had a tryout last Tuesday afternoon, and a lively contest was waged for places. The temporary lineup as it now stands is very formidable and is as follows: Center, Janet Hoeffel; side center, Martha Berger; forwards, Eva Carstens and Velma Tipton (manager); guards, Laura Payton and Ruth Linklater; subs., Olive Gates and Elsie Tews.

Miss Somner, a Reed College alumna, of Portland, taught in Miss Rickert's place Tuesday. Miss Rickert has been forced to take a vacation on account of her health, and her classes will be taught by Miss Eva Roche, Miss Roche is a University of Oregon graduate and lives in Portland.

Rev. H. E. Marshall, of Salem, who is conducting Evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church, gave an interesting talk, on the "Five Races of America," to the students last Friday.

The literary societies are having interesting meetings and are developing material for debating teams, and debates will be held in the future.

The Jolly Comrades gave their monthly party last evening, at the High School building. A luncheon was followed by games.

The German class has arranged a very interesting Christmas program for Wednesday evening, Dec. 20. It will consist of German dialogues, songs, etc. These meetings are very interesting, and they extend a special invitation to all who are interested.

SHOWER

A shower was tendered Miss Ruth Harris, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Tongue, Wednesday afternoon. Miss Harris will soon wed Mr. Wm. Enschede of Forest Grove. The guest list at the compliment consisted of forty-six members of the Social Circle of the Congregational Church.

The will of the late Greenberry Busby, who died last week, was filed in probate last Saturday. It disposes of about $8,500 worth of property, of which $6,000 is realty at Leisville, and $2,500 in personal property. E. J. McAlear was named in the instrument as executor, and the legacies are: To Margaret Plowman, sister, one-third of entire estate; to Matilda Galloway, sister, $200; to Stella Galbrath, sister, one-seventh; to J. M. Bartrim, half-brother, $500; to half-sister, Mrs. Benton, $500; to nephews, Geo., Michael and Wm. Ira Galloway, $100 each; to nieces and nephews, Rarada Williams, Jos. Endsley, Dora DeFord, Nettie Billmore, Benj. Endsley and Effie Endsley, each $100. The residue of the estate goes to Margaret Plowman, Stella Galbrath, Matilda Galloway, Sarah Benton and J. W. Bartrim, share and share alike. Mr. McAlear has filed his bond of $6,000 and entered upon the administration of the estate. The will was dated August 16, 1916, and J. W. and Minnie Gates are the witnesses to the signature.

Senator W. D. Wood has withdrawn from his race for the presidency of the Senate. Dr. Wood's many friends here hoped that he would be given the honor, as he has been a figure in the senate for a number of years. The trouble appears to be that Wood votes for economy, and will not "stand hitched." This means, of course, that he can get no support from Multnomah County.

The Baptist church, under the leadership of H. E. Marshall, is having a splendid revival service. Mr. Marshall is a virile man, wholly unselfish and strong spiritual force. He relies wholly on scripture and sense, and not on sensation and stories. His Bible readings are both instructive and inspirational. Prof. Ingram will sing Friday night. Every one cordially invited to hear him. Come early and get a seat.

Germany has opened the way for peace negotiations and has asked the United States, Switzerland and Spain to carry the proposals to the allied powers. Germany asks that her colonies be returned as they were prior to the war; that Antwerp be given her as a naval base; Belgium to be given her nationality; Poland to be a free country, and the Balkan states situation to be settled by the peace arbitrators. England apparently does not like the terms, and that the war will continue appears to be the consensus of opinion in the diplomatic world.

Theodore Roosevelt is going to the South Sea Islands. If upon his return he does as well as he did after visiting Africa and South America, he will at least create a diversion in this dull old republic.

St. Matthew's Church Bazaar and sale was a decided success in every way and our heartfelt gratitude is extended those who helped us achieve such splendid results.

Alex Chalmers, of near Shefflin, sold $6,000 worth of Shorthorn stock at the Portland livestock show, last week. Mr. Chalmers is one of the largest breeders of Shorthorns in this section of the state.

Arch Rogers is carrying his hand in a sling these days, the result of getting some of the bones crushed while holding a drill at the condenser. The hammerman made a miscalculation and caught Roger's hand instead of the top of the steel. Dr. E. H. Smith attended the injury.

Chas. Marlin, who is ill with tuberculosis, and in bed for 10 months, is slowly improving and expects to be able to return to Hillsboro in a few months. He went to the open air sanitarium last March, but is now being cared for at 354 East 43rd, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marlin.

W. B. Johnson, who conducted the Main Street Livery here in 1878, was in town today, greeting oldtime friends. He and W. V. Wiley worked together in the early eighties on the O. R. & N., and Johnson is now a conductor on the S. P. on the run from Roseburg, South. He hardly knew the old town, so many and varied are the improvements.

Portland business men met last evening and talked over the matter of a tunnel through the Portland mountain, tapping Washington County. It was estimated that a million and a half dollars would do the work. If this shall come to pass, and the road through via Hillsdale, from Beaverton, is put through with macadam, we shall have all kinds of good highways into the Rose City.

At the Parent-Teacher meeting, Tuesday evening, Dr. Robb, medical examiner for the Grade School, gave a very interesting talk on the work. Other numbers on the program were a piano solo by Eva Pitman, recitation by Mary Shirley, and a song by the Eighth Grade Girls' Glee Club. Program committee for January meeting is composed of Mrs. C. B. Buchanan, Miss Cushman, Mrs. Rollins and Prof. Patton. The proposed addition to High School building was discussed, and a mass meeting will be called in the near future when the proposition will be thoroughly explained to the voters of the district.

New York Evening Mail says: "A picture in which there are no flaws—it is wonderful!"

Billboard declares "That volumes would inadequately describe her wonderful portrayal of the Woman."

Edward Milton Royle, author of "The Unwritten Law," "The Square Man," etc., etc., says: "Beatriz Michelena's work on the witness stand in 'The Unwritten Law' is the most real and convincing emotion I have seen in picture art. Miss Michelena is so restrained, so free from exaggeration, that it approaches artistic perfection."

The Moving Picture World, The Motion Picture News, The Motography, The New York Clipper, The Dramatic Mirror and The New York Telegraph have all been equally enthusiastic in their words of commendation.
