Blossom Time in the Golden State

A friend just back from Southern California says: "The weather was fine, in fact too warm for heavy clothes. Many were bathing at the beaches. Oranges were ripe in the valleys, while the mountains nearby were covered with snow."

With warm sunny weather it will not be long before the blossoms on the trees will be everywhere announcing that spring time is here.

Take a vacation trip now where life is different; where climate surroundings and amusements are out of the ordinary. Spend a different February.

This is a remarkable showing for the county.

Card of Thanks

We desire to tender our sincere thanks to the Masonic fraternity and to all who extended aid and sympathy at the obsequies of the late James B. Keates.

Mrs. Mary A. Keates and Son.

Card of Thanks

We tender our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly assisted during the obsequies of our late brother, Geo. Pooley.

His Brothers and Sisters,
Hillsboro, Ore., Feb. 6, 1917.

George Darcy, of above North Plains, was in town Monday.

Elmer Miller, of North Plains, was a city caller yesterday.

Damon Greer is now traveling for the Heinz Pickle Co.

Jake Milne, of North Plains, was in town today.

C. B. Buchanan was a McMinnville visitor yesterday.

Dr. Mumford, of Banks, has sold his drug store to J. J. and Claude Hutchens.

Born, to Frank Pugh and wife, North Cornelius, Feb. 6, 1917, a daughter.

Mrs. M. M. Hughes, of Forest Grove, visited with Mrs. Chas. Bigelow this week, returning home today.

J. B. Campbell and Carl Berggren, of North Plains, were in town yesterday, on business with the county court.

Chas. O. Seely, aged 34, of Portland, and Miss Matilda Anderson, of Hillsboro, were united in marriage at Vancouver, Wn., Feb. 6, 1917.

Weils Department Store is very proud of their Spring window displays, and they think it about the finest ever witnessed in Hillsboro. Take a look at them.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Throop, of above Buxton, Feb. 3, 1917, twin sons. The happy parents had two girls prior to the advent of the boys and their quartet is now complete and balanced.

Ray Emmott was up to the Wilson the first of the week, and he reports that thieves stole $175 worth of furs, besides a lot of camp supplies, from Chich Shannon and Atha Russell, last week. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

Sheriff Applegate arrested two boys, John Edgar and Frank Stevens, in the hills back of Aloha, yesterday. The boys stole a machine from C. W. Merritt, of Portland, and stored it at a farm near Aloha. After taking the boys to Portland they confessed to having stolen four other machines. The boys were at the home of John Edgar, a charcoal burner, when the officer arrested them.

Alfred Cummings, of above Buxton, was down yesterday. He says that the snow is now about all gone out of the mountains, and the various camps have been talking of starting up again the first of next week. He says that hundreds of men will be employed up that way this Summer—probably two hundred more than last season. He reports his father, Jas. Cummings, as recovering from a severe attack of illness.

GEO. GALBREATH

Geo. Galbreath, of near Tualatin, died Jan. 31, after an extended illness. He was born in Iowa, May 8, 1849. He came to Oregon with his parents in 1852, settling at Tualatin. He was married to Miss Emma Walker in 1877. His children were Bertha, who wedded Ben Carpenter; Nettie, Lottie, Martha, Olive and Edna.

Geo. Galbreath was noted for his integrity, his broad view of public affairs, and for his sturdy citizenship. He was always a man among men, and his death was a loss to the community as well as to the county at large.
