ANNUAL INSPECTION; MUSTER FOR VETERANS

Spanish War Camp Has Interesting Meeting at Court House

VISITORS HERE FROM OVER STATE

State Encampment Will be Held in This City Next June

The regular monthly meeting of Camp Scout Harrington, Spanish American War Veterans was held at the court house last Saturday evening, it being the annual inspection and muster by the Veterans of the War that brought us the Philippines.

After the business of the evening the meeting was resolved to an open session and many G. A. R. and W. R. C. joined with the Camp. Several visitors were present from over the state, among whom were:

Maj. Carl Abrams, Salem; Department Commander Robt. E. Greene, Albany; State Inspector Geo. H. Carr, Adj. A. Woltem, Dept. Q. M. Geo. F. A. Walker, W. E. Eddy, L. V. Keller, Harry W. Smith and Jas. McCarren, of Portland; Asst. Dept. Adj. F. A. Mead, Dept. Chaplain Henry O. Miller, F. H. Buchanan, F. M. Garrison, D. Brookes, R. L. Kauterski, of McMinnville.

The State Encampment will be held here next June and the local veterans are beginning to make preparations for the success of the session.

The Home Guards expect to procure a loan of tents from the state so there will be plenty of shelter for the visitors during the encampment. Sixteen names are at present on the muster roll at Hillsboro and it required hard work to get the annual meeting brought to the city—but the Herculean task was none too great for Hillsboro rustlers.

The ladies served a light luncheon after the business and social session closed.

MRS. ARTHUR T. TERRELL.

Mrs. Arthur T. Terrell, formerly Miss Georgia Smith, died at Eagle Pass, Texas, Feb. 9, 1917. She was born in Hillsboro, Aug. 21, 1889, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith, her mother being well known here as the niece of Mrs. J. C. Lamkin. Mrs. Terrell leaves to mourn her loss the husband and an infant daughter, at Eagle Pass; her mother, Mrs. J. A. Smith, of 106 River Ave., San Antonio, Texas, and numerous friends in Hillsboro, and a large circle of friends at Monterey, Mexico, where she spent her girlhood. Mrs. Terrell's father died in Havana, Cuba, June 23, 1913, while enroute to the States to attend her wedding.

Deceased was well known here as a child, and had made several visits here after reaching womanhood.

The debating team of Pacific University defeated the team from Willamette University Saturday night. The literacy test for immigrants was argued, Pacific having the affirmative and Willamette the negative. The debaters were Taylor and Jones for Pacific and Conley and Randall for Willamette.

A Buxton man tells the following story of two Swede loggers who received their last package just before the bone dry lay went into effect. They rapidly became mellow, and were not able to navigate. First one would fall, and then the other. Finally Ole said, "Say, faller, if we stand still maybe we won't fall down." They tried it, but each would sway awhile, and then fall. Finally the other Swede said, "Ole 'spose you tak hold of me—united we stand and divided we scoll fall togedda."

Helen Chase, who married Arthur B. Chase at Vancouver in 1913, asks for legal separation. She alleges that in September, 1916, Mr. Chase became abusive and called her a falsifier, that he hated the place and hated her. She says he has been idle since August. She avers that he sold all their effects, except the household goods, and brought no food home, and she was obliged to go to her parents in Portland. The plaintiff wants the household furniture, valued at $225. They reside in this county.

FATHER CHARGES SON WITH BEING INSANE

Two Physicians say Young Man is Not Insane

YOUNG MAN IS 25 YEARS OF AGE

Strange Case Comes Into Court From Sylvan, Near Portland

Robert C. Funston Sr. last week signed an insanity charge against his son, Robert C. Funston Jr. The two had been having some trouble, and the affair culminated in the insanity charge. Dr. F. A. Bailey, who has practiced here for 45 years, and Dr. Ira E. Barrett examined the young man, and their finding was that he was not insane. They reported to Judge Smith however, that they thought it wise that the young man be turned over to some one who would look after him. Mrs. Minnie Brakebush, whose sons run a dairy near Sylvan, was made the custodian of the young fellow and he is to report monthly to the county judge.

Young Funston is possessed of a violent temper only where his pater familias is concerned. The elder physician warned the patient to remain away from his father. Fred Brakebush, a son of the woman who will have charge of the excitable young fellow, says that Funston Jr. is a good worker, and that he makes no trouble for anyone excepting the father, and that he would not do that if the elder Funston would keep away from him.

The patient shows evidence of arrested development, and in all likelihood, with care and restraint, he will come out all right.

The Funstons are very devout church people, but this has not saved them from severe criticism from their neighbors.

Card of Thanks

I desire to extend my sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted me during the obsequies of my late son, George Meacham, and return especial thanks to the many who tendered expressions of sympathy.

Thos. G. Meacham, Mountindale, Ore., Feb. 10.

Four Oak Park onion growers, Otto and E. F. Wohler, Frank C. Francis and A. Honzaik, shipped a car of onions last week, receiving $7 per hundred for the product. This is the greatest price ever realized by a county onion grower up to that time.

Glen Stapleton, of the Gaston Bank, was down to Hillsboro Friday evening, on business. He says that the great majority of the Gaston farmers have sold their potatoes and it is money "in the bank."

Dr. Ira E. Barrett started for Ft. Benton, Montana, Tuesday. He will locate there for the practice of medicine. Homer Parrish, well known here, resides at that point, which is rapidly becoming a big center.

Wm. Breidenstein, aged 62 years, died in Portland, Friday last. He was well known here, having married Anna Woolley, a daughter of one of our pioneers, who settled at Leisville in the early days. He was a traveling man and was well known all over the coast.

Adolph Zweifel, of Mohler, was here Saturday, on business with Hillsboro merchants. Mr. Zweifel is the owner of a creamery and three dairy farms over near Mohler, and he manufactures the Tillamook cheese that is sold at the Mercantile. He and one man handle the herds and the cheese factory—and it keeps them more than busy.

BIRTHDAY

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bloom, Saturday, Feb. 3, when neighbors gathered in to celebrate Mrs. Bloom's birthday. Music and games were the main features of the evening. Lunch was served at midnight. The guests departed at a late hour wishing Mrs. Bloom many more happy birthdays. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames C. W. Bloom, G. A. Kemper, C. Skow, T. Holmes, F. Loftis; Mrs. Solgard, Mrs. Helvogt, Misses Mary Yoder, Gladys Rommesmo, Marie Provost, Irene Ludeman, Katie Helvogt, Lydia Greener, Helen Scott, Augusta Bloom and Margaret Skow; Messrs. METHODISTS ENTERTAIN LAST FRIDAY EVENING

Over Two Hundred at Banquet and Hear Varied Program

INSPIRING ADDRESSES ARE DELIVERED

Song and Solo Numbers Were Received With Much Applause

The Hillsboro M. E. Church, with Rev. Skipworth in charge of the evening, entertained over 200 at a banquet at the church dining hall, last Friday evening. The event was perhaps one of the most noteworthy public affairs in the history of the church, and the big line of banquetters enjoyed the program of song and oratory.

Rev. Airheart, of Portland, said the grace that was preliminary to table, and Dr. L. M. Hyde then opened the program with a solo. Mayor John M. Wall then bespoke good clean living and civic neatness as well as civic righteousness. His remarks were roundly applauded.

The "Church and the Social Order" was the subject of Rev. Walter Lee Airheart and his remarks showed a profound study of conditions that mean a better social organization. The quartet of the Portland First M. E. Church rendered several splendid numbers. The singers were Miss Goldie Peterson, Miss Anne Mathison, Chas. N. McNeil and Hartridge Whipp, with Mrs. Whipp as pianist.

"The Church in the Life of Today" was the subject of Rev. Joshua Stanfield, Pastor of Portland's First Church, and for an hour he held his audience splendidly.

Mr. Whipp sang a solo, and Instructor of Music Geo. Ingram, of the Hillsboro High School, rendered an organ voluntary.

The event was one long to be remembered in M. E. church circles, and Rev. Skipworth is to be congratulated upon the success of the evening.

The banquet was all that could be wished, and was expressive of the culinary accomplishments of the ladies of the church.

OBITUARY

George Julius Meacham, son of T. G. Meacham, was born above Mountindale, Jan. 23, 1899, and was drowned in the South Fork of the Nehalem, near Batterson, Dec. 14, 1916, aged 18 years, 10 months and 22 days. The funeral took place at Banks, Feb. 3, Rev. Coleman conducting the services. Interment was in the Banks cemetery. Besides his father, he leaves to mourn his loss two brothers, Frank and Clarence Meacham, and a sister, Mrs. H. J. Keenan. Deceased was a grandson of J. J. Meacham, of Banks.
