Immediate orders will have prompt attention.

Delay in buying at this time may cause you to wait several months.

Enter your order today for immediate delivery with our authorized Ford agent listed below and don't be disappointed later on.

Wonderful Siberian Railway.

The great railway of 5000 miles in length that runs across Siberia is one of the most marvelous in the world.
First because of the difficulties that had to be faced in building it and secondly, because of its enormous length.

For nearly 1000 miles along this steel track the line crosses an almost treeless plain. All the stations along these weary miles are at least thirty miles apart, and most of the villages are a long way from the stations.

In winter this Siberian line is one continuous view of snow, stretching for miles along the seemingly endless desert. Sometimes the villages and stations are almost buried in snow, and not infrequently the train gets snowed out. Water for the stoves and the engines has to be brought steaming hot, lest it should freeze on the way, and often men at the stations in the depth of winter have to chop off long icicles from the engine and cars. But even the intense cold has its advantages, for dairy products, such as cheese and butter, can be carried by rail without having to be put into refrigerating trucks.

Baths For the Canary.

Under normal conditions most birds probably bathe daily, and canaries in captivity should be allowed the same opportunity. When individual birds distinctly refuse to enter the water, gentle spraying usually will induce them to bathe.

Small china dishes that are not too deep make good bathing pans. When a bird becomes accustomed to one dish it usually will refuse to bathe in another one of different shape and color. In winter the water should be warmed until tepid. Even in warm weather too cold water is not advisable. If the room, ordinarily warm, becomes cold

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINTS.

Sore Throat.

The most frequent cause of distress or discomfort in the throat is exposure to cold and wet. Other conditions cause sore throat, such as exposure to infection. It may be of a chronic or rheumatic origin. It may be excited by to-cal irritants, such as hot drinks or the inhalation of noxious gases.

A Leap Into Fame.

How many actors have begun their stage career as leading men? Probably Sir Johnstone Forbes-Robertson is the only instance. One night when Sir Johnstone was a young man of twenty-one his father, who was an art critic and journalist, went to see W. G. Wills "Mary Stuart," and after the performance Wills accompanied him to supper.
In the course of conversation the dramatist asked his son how he thought Castelard, the leading part, was played.
"Why, my son, there, who has never acted, would do it fifty times better."

The very thing," cried Wills. "Will you try, Johnstone?"

The young artist modestly assented, and a week later made a sensational debut. Since then he has always been a leading man.—London Standard.

A Small Boy's Invention.

Sir Hiram Maxim began to invent almost as soon as he could limp. When but a small boy he invented a sort of sextant made of wood, with sights, a piece of thread with a bullet at the end and an indicator for the thread to swing along.

On a dark night he took his instrument outside, and while he sighted it to the north star his little sister read the indicator. "Forty-five, Hiram!" she called out. This meant they were lying in 45 degrees north latitude.
The observation proved to be perfectly accurate.

A Turkish Riddle.

Here is an old Turkish riddle which has been handed down for many centuries. There was once a beggar who always dreamed he was a pasha, and there was a pasha who always dreamed he was a beggar. Which was the happier?

Bell Never Stops Ringing.

In the Charendou laboratory at the Oxford (England) university museum is a little bell which has rung day and night for seventy-six years. It is a somewhat near approach to perpetual motion, yet its mechanism is very simple.

Seemed All Right.

"Bobbie, your face wasn't washing.
Did you look at it in the glass this morning?"

"No, mother, but it seemed all right when I felt it."—New York Sun.

the rendering of an accounting for a lost or depleted trust. No reason or excuse can weigh for an instant against the actual result which he faces. A single slip in the handling of funds like this may doom all future generations of that family to lives of poverty.
This is the greatest responsibility ever laid upon a trustee, an executor, a banker or an adviser, and no honest man should assume it unless he is prepared to endure for the sake of the future all the criticism that may center upon him on account of extreme conservatism in the present.

Altered War Words.

An examination of modern military terms reveals the fact that very few of them possess the meaning originally assigned to them. Ammunition, for example, in ancient times signified not only the materials of warfare, but also the fixed defenses of an army. Thus the translators of the authorized version of the Bible use the phrase "munitions of war" to translate "imprenable rock fortresses," and the defending army is charged to "keep the munitions" when the meaning is "guard the fortresses." Carriage is another word with a changed meaning. In Acts appears the phrase "We took up our carriages." It is one Greek word meaning "having packed up," and the Geneva version (1557) has "We trussed up our fardels." In those days the word's meaning was "something carried," not as now, "something that carries."—London Chronicle.

Pay Bills Promptly.

If you pay bills promptly the man you owe will be inclined to pay his debts at once. There's an old saying that "those who go borrowing go according." You'll never contract the habit of running into debt if you meet your obligations when they are due.
Paying up makes for business efficiency. There are some men rated wealthy who find it hard to get credit. Other men with nothing often can borrow vast sums. Their credit is good. They always meet their obligations. You have heard it said, "I'd sooner take that man's word than another man's bond." Be one of these men with the word. Try paying your bills promptly and see how it works.

Two Classes of Debtors.

"Avoid useless and unnecessary debt as you owe will be inclined to pay his
your obligations when they are due.
