PATRIOTIC MEETING WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Crescent Theatre Filled to Capacity Saturday Afternoon

SUPREME JUDGES AND HARE SPEAK
Two Hours of Patriotic Speeches and National Song—Big Parade

The Crescent Theatre was Saturday afternoon filled to overflowing with an audience which listened to patriotic speeches from Chief Justice Thos. A. McBride, associate Judge Wallace McCamant, and Attorney Wm. G. Hare, of this city. The big parade before the meeting was indicative of the repleteness of public spirit. The parade was led by J. C. Lamkin, postmaster an ex-Confederate, and M. C. Lincoln, Union veteran, carrying flags. The life and drum corps from the G. A. R. was next in line, and following were the G. A. R., W. R. C., Spanish War Veterans, U. R. Knights of Pythias, the Red Cross of Hillsboro, and the children of the public schools. After marching around the block the theatre was entered and Mayor Wall took charge. The school children sang "America," the audience sang the "Star Spangled Banner," and Rev. Walton Skipworth opened with prayer. Mayor Wall thereupon introduced Judge T. A. McBride, who for 27 years officiated here as district attorney and circuit judge before going on the Supreme bench. For over an hour Judge McBride, although ill, held his audience with his fervor and enthusiasm. He recounted those things which led up to war, and held we could do no less. He was warmly applauded at the close. Judge McCamant was next introduced, and his speech was a splendid one in every respect.

Mayor Wall then introduced Wm. G. Hare, who talked for a few minutes. Mr. Hare paid the Washington County German element a tribute, and held we need have no fears of their patriotism. A song, "My Soldier Boy," composed by 12-year-old Ruth Allen, of this city, set to music by Prof. Ingram, was sung, and when the little authoress was taken forward on the stage she received an ovation.

Music by the life and drum corps completed the exercises. The guardsmen from this city, who were expected to be here to participate in the exercises, were detained in Portland, and did not arrive until 6:30 in the evening.

EASTER WEDDING

Judge D. B. Reasoner went to Aloha, Easter Sunday, April 8, 1917, and officiated at the wedding of Helena Koehler and Gustav Oren Cook. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Koehler. After the marriage was solemnized, the wedding party, consisting of the bride and groom, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stimson and the officiating judge, were seated at a delightful luncheon.

And Bendler, the North Tualatin Plains Holstein breeder, was a city caller Monday.

FORMER ORENCO GIRLS IN DOUBLE WEDDING

Miss Daphne Cuddy Miss Gladiolus Cuddy

The Misses Gladiolus and Daphne Cuddy, charming and attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cuddy, Portland, will be the brides in a double wedding on Thursday, April 19, at the Seventh-Day Adventist Church at 8 o'clock. Miss Gladiolus will become the bride of Dr. Carl P. Getzlaff, of Toledo, Wash., and Miss Daphne the bride of Arthur J. Abegg, of this city.

The sisters have chosen the 38th wedding anniversary of their parents for their wedding day, and the event will be of more than passing interest to their numerous friends in and around Portland. The Misses Cuddy are well known in Orenco and Hillsboro, having resided between these two cities for several years. Their father is an old newspaper man and is now editor of the Weekly Oregonian.

Residence, Fifth and Jackson, Hillsboro, Ore. 51-11

Sheriff J. F. Berry, of Chehalis, Wash., arrived here Friday, to convey to his county seat a prisoner by the name of A. W. Bury, wanted for forging a $75 check. The officer says there is a clear case against the young man, who was captured by Sheriff Applegate near Roy. The prisoner had secured employment on the Wade Armentrout place, and was a good worker. He has served 100 days in jail at Port Angeles for a like offense as that charged. Sheriff Berry manacled his prisoner to a suit case, for safety, and one would have never known he was in the custody of the officer as the twain started for the depot.

C. F. Jesse, of Roy, was in town Monday. Jesse has been a resident of this section for over 30 years.

M. J. R. coffee at Greer's.
W. A. Goodin, of James, was in the city Saturday.

Elmer Mays, of the North Plains bank, was in the city Monday morning.

Tennis Pyl, of South Tualatin, was a city caller the last of the week.

Nick Kemmer was down from Cooper Mountain Friday afternoon.

Mrs. G. W. Baker, of Beaver-ton, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday.

J. A. Moore, the Roy merchant, was in the city Monday, enroute to Portland.

J. C. Lamkin and Geo. McGee went to Portland, Monday, to look over the "war college."

Oglesby Young, a prominent Portland attorney, was out Monday on business in circuit court.

Mrs. M. A. Swearingen, of Portland, was a Sunday guest of her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Stevenson.

For sale: Good top buggy or will trade same for good cow. Call or write Wm. Zurcher, Beaverton, R. 2.

Hugh Smith, of Forest Grove, was down to the city Saturday, and attended the meeting at the Crescent.

Miss Allie Miller, Miss Blanche Harris and H. E. McKinney, of Portland, were Sunday guests of Mrs. E. C. McKinney.

Ray F. Reasoner was in from Oak Park, Monday. He says he took some oil to Portland the other day, and his mint, unrefined, was better than much of the product that had been through the process.

Wanted: Bachelor wants one or two rooms, close in, for light housekeeping—would take young man partner if agreeable.—Kuratli, Hillsboro Natl Bank bldg.

T. R. Davis, of Jolly Plains, was in Monday. He says that the Winter wheat is looking fine, and that the freeze did not injure clover. This will mean a good crop this season so far as these two products are concerned.

For sale: Team horses, about 1000 lbs. each, broke single or double, $65; also covered delivery wagon for one or two animals, $35.—L. L. Doane, Cornelius, Phone, Stub 52.

The first of the week Oregon's rainfall was 12.52 inches short from the normal precipitation. As your Uncle Wm. Cuddy would say, "Pluvius, we will remit that shortage if you'll just give us a receipt in full."

Bernstorff, the Man of Peace, written by an English-American friend, and "Standing Behind the President," timely and truthful, in Pearson's Magazine for April, at Handy's 15-c store. 4

Mrs. Anne Squires Burton died March 28, 1917, in a Portland sanitarium. She was a resident of Tillamook. She was born in DuPage Co., Ill., Nov. 23, 1851, and was married at Hillsboro, in 1871, to Chas. W. Burton. She was the daughter of Wm. Squires and wife. She leaves four children. Mrs. Burton was a teacher, and was well known here in the early seventies.

For sale: Dairy and stock ranch of 300 acres with 75 cows and young stock, horses, and fully equipped. Will take smaller ranch up to $10,000, as part payment. If interested address P. O. Box 112, Hillsboro, Oregon. 40tf

Circuit Judge Bagley Friday signed the order for the destruction of all of the wine on the Fred Stetler place, excepting the 350 gallons of the liquid reserved for the defendant. The order reads that the Sheriff shall publicly destroy the wine. Sheriff Applegate will proceed as soon as a copy of the order is placed in his hands by the Clerk of the Court.

We have appointed Thomas Carmichael, of Gaston, Ore., as our agent for Washington and Yamhill counties. Anyone interested may call and see our mechanical milker at his barn at Gaston.—Hinman Milking Machine Co., Oneida, N. Y. 2-4

John Peters, of Verboort, has been at Portland the last two weeks, assisting his brother in making an auto truck for a Sea-side logging outfit. The truck has a two-wheeled trailer, and will carry a load 48 feet in length. It has an eight-foot bed, and can therefore take on a good sized load. The rear truck is so manipulated that it tracks with the front wheels, thus eliminating the problem of short turning.

PIONEER MUSIC MASTER SUICIDES AT TUALATIN

Vaclav Sedlak, Bohemian, Severs Arteries in Wrist

LAST SEEN ALIVE AT 1:30 O'CLOCK
Settled at Oak Park, a Mile and Half Southwest of Hillsboro in 1867

Vaclav Sedlak, sometimes known as Vincent Sedlak, severed an artery in his left wrist, at his home in Tualatin, last Thursday afternoon, and death ensued in a short time. Sedlak attempted to cut the other wrist, but failed. He was well known here at Hillsboro, and many people on the Tualatin Plains, Forest Grove and Cornelius, knew him in the latter part of the sixties and seventies, when he taught music. He instructed one of the first bands organized in Washington County and had a perfect knowledge of music as then taught and written Adolph Honzaik, an Oak Park pioneer, who came from the same place in Bohemia, played with him in the early days.

Sedlak came to the United States about 1864. In 1867 he came to Oak Park and settled on the river, in between the Tualatin and Dairy Creek, taking over 300 acres. The John Koehnke place, the Wohlers place and several other tracts were cut out of the place. He sold out over 30 years ago and moved to Tualatin.

He was born at Restok, Bohemia, 82 years ago last September. He was fairly well educated in his own language, and was persistent in the study of English after settling here. He became a proficient reader.

He was a bachelor, and was an uncle of the late Mrs. Adolph Honzaik; of Mrs. Thos. Gheen, Mrs. Sam Stephens and Mrs. Ludemia Anderson, all of Hillsboro. A brother in Europe survives. A brother, Joseph, was one of the first instructors of music in Portland.

Justice Schamoni, of Tualatin, held an inquest over the body, Friday, and the coroner's verdict was that death ensued from suicide.

Sedlak had paid for his cremation during his lifetime, being a subscriber to the Portland Crematorium when it was first organized. The body was taken to Portland Saturday and the remains cremated.

He was in every respect a likable old gentleman.

A CARD

Editor The Argus:
The U. S. Civil Service Commission has requested me, as local secretary of the commission, to advertise as far as possible, the need of the government at this particular time, of Mechanics of all kinds in the Navy Yards and Arsenals of the U. S. A list of places and kind of employment can be seen at any time in the lobby of the postoffice, and application cards may be obtained there.
Good wages are offered, and any one wishing work in any of the branches mentioned, would do well to look into this.
A. U. Davis,
Local Secretary.

Judge Bagley Friday sentenced Peter Miller, of Buxton, to from 1 to 3 years in the penitentiary, upon the defendant pleading guilty of non-support. Miller was paroled on the proviso that he report and support his family and return to the Sheriff every 30 days. Chas. Lachele pleaded guilty to burglary of the John Freudenthal home some weeks ago and he was given an indeterminate sentence of 1 to 7 years. On account of his youth Judge Bagley paroled the offender during good behavior. Young Lachele went out in the country to take a job of milking, and he says he will be a good lad and report to the court every 30 days. He is lame or he says he would go into service in the war.
