HILLSBORO, OREGON, APRIL 26, 1917

NO. 6

LATE SPRING MAY NOT MEAN SHORTAGE

Spring Work Several Weeks Late in the Valley

WORK TO START ON LOGGING ROAD

Labor Problem Starting Producers in Face, Account War

Spring work in the county is three weeks to a month late this year, and when seeding gets under way a shortage of help is the lookout. Late seeding does not necessarily imply a short crop, all owing to weather conditions during the year. Onion sowing will be a month late, at least.

The construction of the Gales Creek railway is promised in the near future. They will start from Wilkesboro or Banks, and later on will connect the line with Forest Grove.

The big call for men in logging camps and mills, with the hundreds of enlistments, is expected to create a big demand for labor, and farmers will be as hard hit as any. Already wages have risen on the dairies. Other Oregon Industrial notes:

Baker—Work starts on construction of 150,000-foot capacity saw mill near Austin.

Pendleton—360 acres near Athena sells for $54,000.

Forest Grove—Work on Gales Creek and Wilson River railroad to Tillamook to start soon; 15 miles to build at start from Banks or Wilkesboro.

Albany is slated to have cannery.

Astoria plans much improvement work, $250,000 will be expended in paving and improving streets and $50,000 on sewers.

Eugene—Cheese factory to be started here May 1.

Astoria—Wilson shipyard enlarges and expects to build 12 ships.

Cos Bay prepared to build 24 vessels a year for government.

Monmouth grange goes on record in favor of good roads and scores Grange Master Spence for his position that grangers of state oppose land measure.

Portland—A manufacturer of high-grade irrigation pumps here seeking location for factory.

St. Helens—$6000 business block to be built here.

JESSE KNIGHT

Jesse Knight, a veteran of the Civil War and a Western pioneer of the ox-team day, died at Forest Grove last week, after an illness of a few weeks.

He was born in Randolph Co., Indiana, September 6, 1838, and when 12 years of age removed with his parents to Iowa, where he resided until 1860. In that year he drove by ox team to Denver, Col. At the call of his country in 1862 he enlisted as a member of the Second Colorado Cavalry and served to the close of the war.

He came to Oregon from Oklahoma in 1903. The remains were taken to Portland for cremation. Deceased lived in Hillsboro before moving to Forest Grove.

A widow and two daughters survive Mrs. Lula A. Bayne, living at home, and Mrs. Zelpha K. Austin, of Riverside, Cal.

Bulk garden seeds—the freshest and best to buy.—Greer's

Sheriff Applegate picked up a fellow by the name of J. L. French, Thursday, and held him a day or so in the county jail. French stayed all night at Orenco and failed to pay for his lodging and some meals. After he came to Hillsboro, French made himself rather fresh in remarks derogatory to the country, and proclaimed that the only real virtuous chaps were the I. W. W. Mr. Shiedel, of Orenco, was prone not to push the charge of defrauding a hotel-keeper, and he was allowed to go with the admonition that he had better keep away from hotels unless he paid, and with the further caution that French must be careful of his remarks about your Uncle Samuel. French was born at Nome, and is an American.

About one hundred people visited Portland last Thursday afternoon to witness the parade in the name of patriotism. They saw the largest demonstration ever staged in the Rose City, and about 50 from the county seat went into line. The rain poured all afternoon, but J. C. Lamkin, in a Confederate suit, and M. C. Lincoln, a Union veteran, led the contingent, a neat depiction of how the country is joined together in its hour of crisis. The veteran postmaster dressed in the Confederate suit drew much attention, and when they marched to Dixie and Hail Columbia airs there was much enthusiasm.

Court Reporter Runyon said the other day—"For 30 years I have been coming to Hillsboro, and on April 1 of each year I have made it a practice of shedding my overcoat. This year I made the exception, and I've been wearing it every trip since the first of the month. This is the very worst year from a disagreeable standpoint that I've ever seen during the April calendar."

Jos. Hickenbottom, of Vernonia, came over to the old stamping grounds, Friday, blowing in while a good storm was on. Jos. says that Vernonia is all right, but that he sort o' hankers for a land where he can hear a locomotive toot once in a while, and he may come over here to live in the not distant future.

COUNTY WOODMEN TO HEAR NEW RITUAL

Forest Grove Camp to Entertain on Evening of May 12

PORTLAND TEAM TO EXEMPLIFY WORK

Dr. Wood, Percy Long and Dr. Robb, Local Committee on Arrangements

Hillsboro Camp has received an invitation from Forest Grove Camp to be present Saturday evening, May 12th, when the Official Degree Staff, of Portland, together with Deputy Head Consul E. P. Martin, will exemplify the new ritual for the benefit of all Woodmen from Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Cornelius, Cedar Mill, Beaverton, Glencoe and other Washington County towns. Large classes of new candidates will be introduced from all parts of Washington County, and the affair will be one of the greatest ever witnessed. Forest Grove is making elaborate preparations for the big event, which will be held in their K. P. Hall. Members will go in special cars and by automobiles, and all visiting Woodmen are cordially invited to be present. At the close of the drama, a banquet will be served. The Hillsboro Neighbors will go in autos, and have appointed Dr. W. D. Wood, Dr. J. O. Robb, Percy Long and others to make arrangements so that the entire membership, with a large class of new members, might be present. A communication from Head Consul I. L. Boak, of Denver, in which the extra rate for members enlisting in the U. S. Army, Navy, or Marines, as provided in Constitution, was waived, was received amid great cheers. An American silk flag will be awarded by the Head Consul to all camps increasing their membership 10 per cent. during the months of April and May. Hillsboro, Forest Grove and other camps have earned this reward, and will be presented with silk flags at the Grove.

MILLER—STAUSS

Our sincere and heartfelt thanks are hereby tendered to all who assisted with aid or sympathy during our recent bereavement, the death and obsequies of the wife and sister, Mrs. Brandaw, and child, and return special thanks for the beautiful floral offerings.

Jan. H. Brandaw, Miss Ray Hildebrand.

Findley McLeod, an oldtimer of the Gaston section, having lived there man and boy, was down to Hillsboro Monday. He reports that Peter Gibson, aged 74 years, died the last of the week. Gibson had lived above Gaston for over 40 years, and owned a ranch above the McLeod place. He was a bachelor, and had no relatives here. The funeral took place Sunday, and interment was in Multnomah County, Gibson having died at one of the Rose City hospitals.

Chas. Norris, of Cornelius, passed through the city the last of the week, enroute home from a visit to Athena and Pendleton. He says that the freeze this Winter uncovered lots of Fall grain, and much re-seeding will be the result. He does not look for over a fifty per cent. crop in the inland empire this year, unless it is an exceptional season. He says the farmers up there held their wheat and received good prices, and a little thing like a short crop doesn't appear to bother them.

SHERIFF'S REQUEST MEETS WITH RESULTS

One Man Sends in Four Rifles, Others to Send in Arms This Week

WHAT TO DO WITH GIANT POWDER

Is Now the Question up to Sheriff Applegate and Deputies

Sheriff Applegate's order for aliens to turn in arms and explosives met with results within 24 hours after the proclamation went to the public. Telephone calls came from various parts of the county from men who had not taken out final papers, and one alien from the Grove expressed in a rifle, prepaid. A Hillsboro man, who is intensely loyal to your Uncle Samuel, but who has had trouble with his first papers, sent in four rifles and some cartridges.

Several aliens have giant powder for stump blasting, and if this is turned in the Sheriff will have to store it somewhere.

Before he gets through he is likely to have a young arsenal. All of them telephoning in assured the office of their loyalty, and explained that they were anxious to obey the request.

Sheriff Applegate is labelling every donation, taking the numbers on the guns, and when the trouble is over, will return them to the various owners. A receipt is issued for each firearm or explosive, or package of ammunition.
