Electric Cooking Triumphs

Endorsed by Country's Greatest Cooking Experts

Electric cooking has won the approval of the nation's cooking authorities. Women have long known that electric cooking is cleaner, that it makes the kitchen cooler, the air purer, that it is more convenient. Now they have the word of the greatest cooking experts that it produces better results than any other means. Read what these women say:

For success in baking, one needs an even and dependable temperature, and this is secured more easily by electricity than by any other medium.

Janet McKenna Hill, Editor, American Cookery.

I have no doubt that electricity for cooking will finally supersede the other methods by virtue of its greater economy, efficiency, economy, simplicity, safety, comfort and reliability.

Marion Harris Bell, Former Cooking Editor, Ladies' Home Journal.

Good Housekeeping Institute Also Approves Electric Cooking

Good Housekeeping Institute has fully endorsed electric cooking. Electricity is a clean fuel; it is convenient to use in a perfect servant, responding instantly to regulation; and, finally, the cooking results to be obtained from it are excellent in a uniformity of texture and the development of flavor.

Good Housekeeping Institute, Mildred M. Dicks, Director.

Woman's Great Kitchen Convenience

is a Hughes Electric Range. The uniformity of the heat enables a woman to cook with wonderful exactness. Every part of the burner has the same amount of heat; every corner of the oven the same temperature. Food cooked in the oven is better tasting; the rich flavors are not carried off by air currents, nor the food tainted by fumes. Bread and cake rise evenly, brown uniformly. The heavily insulated, heat retaining oven walls conserve not only food—the saving in meat shrinkage is fully 20%—but also heat. Constant watch-ing is unnecessary. More time can be spent out of the kitchen.

Find out more about this range, the pioneer in electric cooking, approved by Good Housekeeping Institute, endorsed by domestic science schools, and given the world's highest official award, the Panama-Pacific Gold Medal.

Germany still keeps up its submarine warfare and the U. S. Navy officials are getting ready for a long campaign. Several American ships are among those recently sunk, with consequent loss of American lives.

Otto Voegle, of Blooming, was down to the county seat Monday.

John Friday, the road supervisor, was down from Banks, Tuesday.

Miss DeLaurence Crabtree, of Laurel, was a guest of Mrs. L. A. Long the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Goodin, of North Plains, were visitors in the county seat Tuesday afternoon.

Herb Matteson, of Gaston, was down Tuesday. He says that many autos visited his section on fishing expeditions last Sunday.

The city has improved several of the dirt streets the past week, and the work was well worth while.

Edw. Baylee, of West Union, and Fred Lehman, of Cedar Mill, were visitors at the county seat Monday afternoon.

Vice President Richter, of the German Speaking Societies of Oregon, was out from Portland the first of the week.

Alfred Morgan, who is running as a Pullman conductor on the Great Northern into Portland, came out the first of the week for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Morgan.

Circuit court: J. R. Linn vs. Luella Linn, referred to C. E. Runyon, who will take testimony. Carlson vs. Hoffman et al—decree that plaintiffs own one-half of auto, same to be sold by sheriff and equity paid over. Alma Fessler granted a divorce from Harry Fessler. Akin vs. Rehberg, dismissed.

POLK'S GAZETTEER

R. L. Polk & Co. have just issued the 1917-18 edition of the Oregon and Washington Gazetteer and Business Directory, which is the only work of the kind published. It contains an accurate Business Directory of every city, town and village in Oregon and Washington, and the names and addresses of country merchants, professional men, lumbermen, etc., who are located adjacent to villages; also lists of government and county officers, state boards, statutory provisions, names of courts, terms of court, names of post offices, express, telephone and telegraph offices, justices of the peace, hotels, daily and weekly newspapers, besides much other information useful to all classes of business and professional men.

A descriptive sketch of each place is given, embracing various items of interest, such as location, population, distance to different points, the most convenient shipping stations, the products that are marketed, stage communications, trade statistics and churches.

An important feature is the Classified Directory, giving every business arranged under its special heading, thus enabling subscribers to obtain at a glance a list of all houses manufacturing or dealing in any particular line of goods. Beginning with this edition, the street address in all the large towns is shown in this list.

The work is compiled to meet the wants of the business community, and merits its support. Price $10. Offices, Seattle, Portland, Spokane and Tacoma.

Mrs. R. A. Cram went to Vernonia Tuesday, to join her son, who is farming the place she recently bought from her brother, Jos., who will move out to Hillsboro. Mrs. Cram traded some property here and paid a cash difference for the Columbia County farm, and she expects to make her home over there for all time.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who tendered aid and sympathy during our recent bereavement, the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, the late Edwin Hughes, and also thank the Freeman and Jericho Lodges, I. O. O. F., who assisted at the funeral.

Mrs. Nellie A. Hughes,
R. H. Hughes.
