The Bean bill is not to go on the ballot, and Mr. Bean will now have another chance to move. Just where he will get his reward remains to be seen.

Senator Harry Lane died last night. He was of the unique in character, yet his heart was ever with those in the common walks of life, and he followed his convictions regardless of criticism. Those who knew him best will tell you that he was every inch man.

Government bonds are the best of security, and while the rate of interest is not high, they are mighty fine investments. A bond purchase at this time expresses more than a mere purchase—it means investment and you can buy as few or as many as you wish.

Failure to register in war census as provided by law will mean trouble. June 5 is the date set. If you are over 21, and not yet 31, married, single, in ill health, or crippled—it makes no difference. You must register, and remember, you are dealing with the United States now. There is trouble in store for all who do not register.

Babe Westfall, of Tualatin, was taken into custody this week, charged with violation of his parole on a circuit court sentence. Westfall is an old offender, and he paid no attention to the order of the court.

The ladies of the Catholic Church of Beaverton will give their annual May chicken dinner, in the church hall, next Sunday, 11 to 2 o'clock. Prices, 35c and 25c.

Mrs. Harry C. Pratt, of Tacoma, Wash., was brought to the Dr. Smith hospital, Friday, by Dr. Dinsmore, and operated upon for appendicitis. The patient was in a dangerous condition and it was thought at first she would not recover. She is doing nicely, however.

Amelia Dietz, of Sherwood, is asking circuit court to give her title to a $12,000 place this week. Her son, Chas., the defendant, has a trust deed of the place, given him by Mrs. Dietz and husband before they were divorced. Chas. has worked on the place, and wants something over six thousand for improvements. The mother says she is willing to pay something for the claim, but not that much. W. G. Hare is attorney for Mrs. Dietz, and T. H. Tongue Jr. is for the defense. It is one of those family cases that are always bitterly contested.

BIDS REJECTED

The county commissioners last week rejected the two bids on the grading of the Beaverton-Multnomah County road, and the work will be done by the county. The Board estimates that they can save at least a thousand dollars, if not more, and the work will therefore not be done by contract.

John Loring & Co. bid $5200, while the bid of Shannon & McGee was $4290.50.

There are 14,000 yards in the estimate on which the bids were based.

Rock hauling from the Hazeldale quarry was let to Wolf Bros., the price ranging from 11 cents the first quarter to $1.05 the 20th quarter. This firm also received the hauling from the cars where there were car shipments, 10 cents to 84 cents the 19th quarter.

Henry Scott will haul from the District 23 quarry at $1.75 per yard.

IRRITABLE NERVOUS

Was Condition of Indiana Lady Before Beginning to Take Card-u-i, the Woman's Tonic.

Kokomo, Ind.—Mrs. H. Hankemeler, of this town, says: "I look so well, and am so well, that it does not seem as if I ever needed Cardui. But I was not always this way... I think I have taken a dozen bottles... before my little girl came."

I was feeling dreadfully bad, had headache, backache, sick at my stomach, no energy... I was very irritable, too, and nervous.

I began taking Cardui about 6 months before my baby came. As a result all those bad feelings left me, and I just felt grand, just as if nothing at all was the matter, and when the end came I was hardly sick at all.

Since that I have never taken Cardui at all... It has done me good, and I know it will help others, if they will only try it."

Many women have written grateful letters like the above, telling of the good that Cardui has done them. Why should it not help you, too? If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, and feel the need of a safe, reliable, strengthening tonic, we urge you to begin today and give Cardui a fair trial. Your dealer sells Cardui. EB-10

May We Never Forget Memorial Day!

WE do well to pause one summer day in a year to exalt the martyrs who fell in our civil war, to bewail their fate, to cover their humble hillocks with flowers. They died not to protect our land from the profane foot of the foreign invader, nor yet to win the Holy Sepulchre from the Infidel, nor yet to conquer a savage wilderness for the great incoming flood of our race. They died because their country could devise in its wisdom no better means of settling a family quarrel than by slaying her sons with the sword.

May we never forget to observe our Memorial day! Even now there is scarcely a hamlet in the United States that does not display a tiny flag or bit of bunting on Decoration day. Some years ago I drove through a wild mountain country in West Virginia. Deep down in a narrow gorge—one of those strange fissures where a small stream has cut a mountain in twain—I discovered a wretched hut. Fastened to a pole at the door was a fluttering bit of redannel. The half-naked savages who lived in this hut scrambled up the precipice to beg. I asked the meaning of the red rag and received the surprised answer, "Decoration day?" These untamed, untaught people respected the day.—Mrs. Roger A. Pryor.
