The outlook for a good harvest is fine for Washington County notwithstanding we are late in seeding. Oregon has never failed, and never will. There is a greater acreage in than usual and we should average up well when the harvest is over.

Every man enjoying the protection of our government should feel his responsibility in our present war. Thousands of homes will pay toll of death if the war runs into a year or two years—and the man who is not for success of American arms is not for America.

The West has furnished its quota of recruits in the National Guard, as well as in the regular army, away beyond the proportion of enlistments in the Eastern states. Oregon has also subscribed its share of Liberty bonds beyond its call—and yet the East says we don't appreciate the fact that we are at war. Poor Old East!

He was convicted and imprisoned twelve years and six months.

Word From Br'er Williams.

Once 'pon a time Man lost so much sleep worryin' over trouble what wuz to come dat when Trouble come sho' nuff de Man wuz dead ter de world, an' Trouble walked all over him an' said: "He's too triflin' fer me ter fool with. I wouldn't waste time on no sich!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Millicent's "Trust Me"

A lady and gentleman were standing before a picture by Millicent called "Trust Me," in which an elderly squire confronts his daughter, who holds a letter behind her back.

The picture admits of more explanations than one, for Mr. Millicent had that rare faculty of putting blended expressions into his faces which puzzle us, as the expressions of real faces do.

But the one this gentleman was overheard giving his companion as a new, we are bound to say, to the putter as to our readers. "You see," he said, "she has got a letter in her hand which she is keeping back from the man in the red coat. Well, he is the postman and has just given her the letter. I suppose it's from abroad. She hasn't the money to pay the postage, so she says, 'Trust me.'"

The explanation was given with perfect gravity and in apparent good faith.—London Mail.

Grand Opera in 1680.

The following excerpt from Burney's "History of Music," published in 1776, describing the first performance of the opera "Bernice" in 1680, indicates that "there is nothing new under the sun," even in sumptuous staging of music dramas.

"There were choruses of 100 virgins, 100 soldiers, 100 horsemen in iron armor, forty cornets on horses, six trumpeters on horseback, six drummers, six ensigns, six great flutes, six minstrels playing on Turkish flutes and six others on octave flutes, six pages, three sergents, six cymbalists, twelve huntsmen, twelve grooms, six coachmen for trumpeters, six others for the procession, two lions led by two Turks, two elephants led by two others, Bernice's triumphal car drawn by four horses, six other cars, with prisoners and spoils drawn by twelve horses, and six coaches for the procession.

Advice In Securing Riches.

Frederick Weyerhaeuser, America's one-time lumber king, who died a multimillionaire, once gave the following rules on how to get rich: "Make up your mind to work at something really worthy of work and work hard. The surest way to make money is to save money and to use what you have. Don't be afraid of long hours or constant attention to your work. Work can be made a joy, an economy, a pleasure, if you combine an object worth while with the determined ambition to win. Any young man can get rich, can succeed, if he saves, if he has a definite and honest purpose and is so filled with the purpose that work ceases to be a hardship and becomes a privilege."

Philadelphia's Big Clock.

The center of the dial of the clock on Philadelphia's city hall tower is 361 feet 1 1/2 inches from the ground level. The length of the minute hand is 10 feet 8 inches. The weight of the hand frame with glass is five and one-half tons. The clock is equipped with a pneumatically operated thermostat for controlling an electric Governor provided to protect it from extremes of temperature. The steel pendulums are inclosed in cast iron cases to protect them from magnetic influences.—Philadelphia Press.

A Simple Antidote to Poison.

It is a valuable thing to understand thoroughly what simple antidote to take if one is so unlucky as to swallow poison of any kind. Sweet oil is to be found in nearly every house, however humble, and half a pint of it taken immediately is an effectual antidote to almost all poisons. Any one with a strong constitution should take a larger quantity of this simple remedy.—London Telegraph.

Anatomy and Friendship.

"My dear," said the host to his wife as he started to carve the leg of lamb, "can't you give Mrs. Brown anything better than this cold meat?" "Oh," said Mrs. Brown, "that's all right, so long as it is cold leg and not cold shoulder!"—Christian Herald.

Decidedly.

"Washington was a truthful man." "I've got the habit myself now. I think it is the best plan if you marry a widow."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Flat Foot.

Declaring that proper foot wear will cure most cases of flat foot, a well known New York physician says: "Boots or shoes must be the shape of the foot, but it is not necessary to wear boots of an ugly shape to secure this primary essential. To insure that the big toe is not pushed out against the other toes the inner side of the boot where it lies is kept straight. The soles should be a sixth to a fourth of an inch thick and the heel broad, an inch or less in height. If the degree of flat foot be anything more than the inmost trace mechanical means are utilized to throw the weight of the body, distributed down the leg, slightly outside the center of the ankle joint. To effect this the sole and heel of each boot must be thickened along its inner side by a quarter, one-third or half an inch, the amount depending upon the severity of the case. The worse the case the greater the thickening."

Te-kyo.

It is remarkable how many persons, some of whom may lay claim to education and familiarity with Japan, persist in mispronouncing the name of Japan's capital. Of course if government officials and western diplomats in Japan insist on spelling it To-kyo, western people, ignorant of the Japanese language, cannot be blamed for pronouncing it in three syllables (To-kee-yo), much to the amusement of the Japanese. The Japanese ideographs are only two and are best represented by the two roman syllables Te-kyo, pronounced with a very slight emphasis on the first syllable.—Japan Magazine.

Her Dear Husband.

"Why," exclaimed a newly married woman to a bunch of friends, "for three months after our marriage my dear husband made me take hot biscuits for him every meal."

"And yet your husband is a strong, healthy looking fellow?" answered her friend in astonishment. "Doctors say that such a diet is terrible, and—"

"Oh, yes, this husband is healthy! I was referring to my first husband."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His Loyalty to Alma Mater.

"You say Dilling's allegiance to his alma mater has never wavered?" "Never. Dilling has been out of college more than twenty years, and he still borrows money from his college claims exclusively."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Useless Advice.

Mrs. Bartz—You ought to brace up and show your wife who is running things at your house. Crale (sally)—It isn't necessary. She knows.—Puck.

Linen Breeches.

Linen breeches were worn by men in 1491 B. C. They also at that period wore embroidered coats, besides bonnets "for glory and for beauty."

A Diplomat.

Little Willie—Say, pa, what is a diplomat? Pa—A diplomat, my son, is a person who can prove a man a liar without calling him one.

The difficult part of good temper consists in forbearance and accommodation to the ill humor of others.

A Skirt Hanger.

A good improved skirt hanger is a strong hanger. Fold the skirt twice at the band, stick the hanger through the back in two places, leaving enough of the pin exposed to hang over a nail or hook. The skirt will never be pulled out of shape.

His Advantage.

"I know more about that woman than she knows about herself." "How can that be possible?" "Easily. I know she isn't pretty, but she doesn't."

Largest Organ.

The largest organ in the world is the one built by the famous German builder, Waleher, and is situated in St. Michael's church, Hamburg, Germany.

Salmon.

Salmon are swift swimmers. They can travel through the water at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour.
