ARGUS PUBLISHING CO.

The publication of the Third Regiment roster shows a great percentage of Teutonic names which goes to show where the German-American stands in the big world conflict. The National Guard is purely a volunteer affair and this tells the story.

The war will more than likely make the country "bone-dry." The day has passed, anyway, when it is necessary to give a soldier or sailor a dram of grog before he goes into an engagement—and we need the capital which goes into liquor for other sinews.

Thos. Pearson, of Sherwood, was taken to Portland today by Sheriff Applegate, in custody as a snacker.

North Plains is to have a patriotic Sunday, July 1, at 8 p. m. W. G. Hare will deliver an address, and a Red Cross section will be formed at the meeting.

John Hay, of Seattle, and Ben Hay, of Astoria, were in town Wednesday, in attendance at the funeral of their uncle, the late Benj. Scholfield.

Mrs. Helen Anderson Eberman, whose home is in Alliance, Ohio, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Anderson, at Reedville.

Ted Baldr, well known here when he was a boy, was out from Clackamas, yesterday. He is a member of the Third Oregon Regimental band.

James Gibson, pioneer, was up from Reedville, yesterday, erecting his county seat friends. The circle of his early pathfinder friends draws a little smaller each year.

Henry Parsons, of above Dille, was in the city yesterday, Henry and the Argus reporter worked together away back in 1896, on the Northern Pacific, up in the Cascades.

Members of the families of J. W. Gates, J. B. Hanley, C. F. Hornecker, C. Peterson, and Miss Freda Nelson formed a picnic party and motored to Clackamas, Sunday, to visit the soldiers.

The S. P. board of inquiry on the recent Main Street derailment of a passenger car reports there was no individual responsibility. The Hillsboro members of the board were Fred Ross and C. A. Hande.

The Honor Guard wishes to thank all who contributed to the success of the dance given for the soldier boys on Wednesday evening, and especially to express their appreciation for the addition to their funds.

Pearl Harris, who married Sanford Harris, at Kalama, Wn., in 1915, has sued for divorce, alleging failure to provide. She says he called her vile names and then threatened to kill her if she left him.

Union Patriotic Service at the Congregational Church, Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock. Addresses by Rev. Skipworth, Rev. Clay, Rev. Smith, Rev. Miller and Rev. Shaw. Patriotic prayer for this day: "God Bless and Guide Our Native Land—America"

The Social Circle of the Cong. Church will hold a food sale in the window of Patterson's Furniture Store, Tuesday, July 3. The purpose of this sale is to raise our pledge for the Red Cross. The ladies will begin the sale at 10 a. m. Come and buy something for your Fourth of July lunch.

A heavy gale visited this section of the Northwest Saturday night, and its velocity is said to have reached 40 miles an hour inland, and 60 miles out on the coast line. Here in the county it whipped off a great deal of fruit, but as much of it needed thinning no great harm was done. Following the heavy wind, there was a "near-frost" Sunday night, resulting in little or no damage.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Davis, of Beaverton, were in the city Monday. S. H. was on the Red Cross committee down that way, and Beaverton did very nicely. Mr. Davis says the German element down that way responded finely to the subscription list.

STEINKE—REHSE

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Rehse, of Hillsboro, June 24, 1917, when their youngest daughter, Verna Louise, was united in marriage to Henry W. Steinke, Rev. E. W. Luecke officiating, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. E. I. Donelson.

At two o'clock the bridal party took their places under a canopy of evergreens and roses.

The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of cream satin with an overdrape of spangled net, wearing a veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and fern.

Miss Bertha Rehse, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and wore a gown of white embroidered voile, and carried a shower bouquet of lavender sweet peas and fern.

The groom was attended by Herman Rehse, a brother of the bride. Estella Rehse and Florence Carzes, nieces of the bride, were the flower girls, and little Margaret Carzes was ring bearer, all being daintily attired in white frocks.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with Oregon grape and cedar, the dining-room color scheme being carried out in pink and white, with a large centerpiece of roses and ferns.

After congratulations, an elaborate dinner was served.

They were the recipients of many beautiful presents.

After a short honeymoon they will be at home to their friends after July 1.

STOMACH TORN UP

Indiana Lady Describes Condition, Which She Says Was Due To Constipation and Tells of Relief Obtained From Black-Draught.

Scottsburg, Ind.—Mrs. Annie Johnson, of this place, writes: "I well remember I suffered for a long time with constipation, which would get me down. I took doctors' medicines and any number of purgatives. They would leave me in a worse condition than I was before taking, and my stomach so upset... I know once I suffered... from constipation, I was so ill we had to have the doctor, just so nervous and feverish. The doctor said I would have to quit medicines, my stomach was so bad..."

My husband was reading and found something about Theford's Black-Draught and brought me a package to try. I used it regularly at first until I began to feel better, then I used just a dose occasionally. I was cured of this constipation and am sure the Black-Draught did it."

If your stomach is out of order, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result. Theford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, helping to regulate the liver and to cleanse the bowels of impurities. Try Black-Draught. EB-15
