HILLSBORO, OREGON, AUGUST 2, 1917

HILLSBORO CANNERY WORKING OVERTIME

Largest Output Expected in History of Any Local Canning Concern

CHERRY-CANNING NOW UNDER WAY

Will Turn Out Big Output of Beans, Corn and Peas When in Market

The canning establishment at Tenth and Washington Streets is working over time these days, and the cherry canning season will soon be completed. Senator W. D. Wood and Joseph Connell have financed the company and Gilletts are doing the processing. Already seven and a half tons of Royal Ann cherries have been canned, and also a ton of Kentish.

The firm will can all the corn, peas, beans, etc., that they can buy in the market, and the institution is paying cash for everything bought, which is certainly encouraging to producers. The payroll of the cannery amounts to about $75 per week, and when the season for vegetables comes it will doubtless be larger. They are buying all the loganberries they can find, and they pay the market price. If the institution is made to pay at all, next year the firm will install a larger plant and Hillsboro will be on the map as a cannery town. This is something that has been needed here for many years. Both Mr. Connell and Senator Wood are practical men and if there is success in the venture they will develop it.

There is absolutely no question about the worth of the output, and it will rank with the best canned in the state.

A successful year will mean much more to Hillsboro and vicinity than the average man realizes. The Argus hopes that the effort of the firm will prove profitable.

Geo. H. Jack, of Farmington, was a city caller Saturday.

T. R. Davis, of Jolly Plains, was a city caller Tuesday morning.

Julius Foegen, of near Huber, was a Hillsboro caller the last of the week.

Miss Anna Pallett, of Portland, spent the week-end with Miss Opal Bretz.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Keehn, of Elmonica, were Hillsboro callers Saturdays.

Miss Bertha Hesse, of the post office corps, departed Friday for an extended stay at Newport.

Oscar Huber, of Portland, has the contract for surfacing the Rex-Tigard road for the Pacific Highway commission.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nelson, of Orleans, Neb., now touring the West, are guests of friends in Hillsboro and vicinity, and will be here several weeks.

John and George Zimmerman, of beyond North Plains, were greeting friends in the city Friday. Geo. bought a separator up at Lousignont Lake and is transporting it up to the Wallace section.

Chas. Trachsel, of Elmonica, is the champion mole and gopher catcher to date, so far as reported. He came up to the clerk's office the other day and got a check for $7.40, in payment of 67 moles and 7 gophers. Some trapper!

The case of A. T. Clark versus L. S. Pringle, in Justice Court, Saturday, resulted in a verdict for the defendant, Pringle. Some time ago Pringle sold Clark a bay horse, giving him a written guarantee. After a few days Clark took the horse home, and asked for his $50. Pringle refused, claiming the horse was all that he had insured. The defense was that the harness had broken, throwing the harness back over the rear of the animal, and that this had caused it to kick. The jury evidently believed the defense, for the verdict was that Clark could recover nothing and must pay the costs. The jury: E. I. Kuratli, Curtis Birdsell, John Miller, J. M. Gear, J. B. Vrooman and H. T. Koerber.

For Sale—Three-year-old black mare, weight about 1300; broke single and double; is sound and true.—Samuel Moon, Cornelius, Ore., Route 1. Call at place one mile from Sheelin station, near Centerville. 19-21

From the keystone arch of the upper window in the Grange building, over the Reynolds store, is a fine mullen stalk in full bloom. The seed evidently was blown there by the wind, or carried there by some bird, and how the stalk ever grew to full harvest without soil is more or less of a miracle. It is over 25 feet above the sidewalk. On the cement plastered front of the same building wild oats have shot out, and it looks as if old King Fertility is bound to attempt its share in war times.

For sale: Horse, 1000 lbs., harness, wagon, plow, cultivator and portable hay rack. Price for all, $75.—Inquire at Badger Lumber Co. office. 18tf

A spotted frost struck the county Saturday night, and at Aloha and Farmington it nipped beans, pumpkins, squashes and cucumbers. The visitation was not general, although there were bites in nearly all sections here and there. This is the latest damaging frost recorded in the county for many years. Around Hillsboro there was nothing damaged.

Geo. H. Kilmer, reputed to be the oldest Pythian in years of membership in the Northwest, is very ill at the Borwick home, Ore.

A. B. Flint, of Scholls, was a city caller Tuesday. A. B. says that there will be no hay for sale down his way this season. The acreage in the county is perhaps less than for years and there will be no more than is necessary for home consumption—in fact hay will be imported here this Winter.

Henry Reasoner and sister have been visiting with the Dr. Graffis family in Portland this week.

John W. Connell inspected his several hundred acres of beans Monday and found that not over a hundred hills or such a matter had been nipped by the frosts of Saturday night. Down around Scholls the frost was especially severe on the lowlands.

For Sale—Team of horses, weight 1000 a piece; good set of harness and delivery wagon.—S. H. Clark, Ore. 20-2

Wade Everest and family, Fred Everest, Mrs. Leo Schwander and son, Fred, returned last week from an extended trip to the Big Nestucca, in the Schwander Grant Six machine. They report a fine trip.

Attorney E. L. Perkins has sold his Hupmobile and is now driving a new Overland car.

OPPORTUNITY FOR DRAWING TALENT

One Hundred Dollars in Gold Will go to One Who Gets Award

WANT POSTERS FOR LAND SHOW

Hillsboro and Forest Grove Have Artists Who May Enter the Contest

Hillsboro and Forest Grove have artists who may enter the contest for a $100 award for a poster for the Manufacturers' & Land Products Show. The following article is sent out to the press, and Washington County may take a whirl at the prize:

The board of directors of the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show, wants an original and striking poster design to be used in advertising the big all-Oregon exhibition to be held at Portland, Nov. 3 to 24, 1917. In order that the best talent in the state may be employed at the task and that the product shall be the finest advertising poster ever shown on the Pacific Coast, a cash prize of $100 in gold will be given for the best and most effective design, in colors, the competition to close August 10, 1917. The terms of the competition are:

The finished poster must be representative of Oregon's manufacturing enterprises and farming possibilities, must be patriotic in tone, and suitable in coloring effect for advertising the big show on billboards and indoors as well.

Poster must be made in three colors, when printed, and design must be of suitable size to be enlarged or reduced to size 24x36 inches approximately.

The design accepted shall become the property of the Manufacturers and Land Products Show, with full rights to its use and copyright.

Design must be submitted not later than August 10, 1917, to David M. Dunne, president, or C. D. Minton, secretary, of the Manufacturers and Land Products Show, 704-5 Oregon Bldg., Portland, Oregon, in colors as desired in the finished poster.

All the designs submitted shall be passed upon by a representative committee, and designs failing to win the prize shall be returned to artists submitting them, without delay.

QUIET AT CAMPS

All was quiet last week at the logging camps on the Tillamook line. Sheriff Applegate went to Cochran, Thursday, and remained until Saturday afternoon. There was evidence of organization by the I. W. W., but no damage was attempted. The sheriff procured a lot of their literature. Their constitution asks for the obliteration of the employing classes in all lines of production and manufacture. While their propaganda calls for an 8-hour day with the loggers, their desire is as above stated. One of their songs tells gleefully of wrecking a threshing machine, and also tells of an I. W. W. leaving a burr off a wagon which he had greased, causing a fractured hip for the rancher. Control of all output of whatsoever nature is their ultimate idea. They justify sabotage as a means of causing a revolution. Their literature is of interest in showing just what is the crux of their propaganda.

HANS P. HOIER

Hans P. Hoier, of below Reedville, died last Sunday. He was aged 34 years, 1 month and 29 days. He was the son of Mrs. Anna Hoier. Besides the mother he leaves a brother and sister. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, and interment was in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery.

John Freudenthal, of below Newton, had 11 acres of corn nipped by the frost Saturday night. He says he thinks it will survive the scald, all right, but it was a close call.

For Sale or Trade for Beef Cattle—Some good Shropshire and Cotswold 2 year old ewes. Also some ewe lambs.—C. K. Rogers, Beaverton, Ore., near Hazeldeale. 13-tf

Gas mains are now being laid all over the city, and run as far northwest as the Northside addition. In a few days they will have the city networked with pipes.

Do you want a homestead? If so, can locate you on some fine ones in Central Oregon. In time these will be valuable. A few left of 160 acres each.—Wm. B. Delsman, Box 206, Hillsboro, Or. Phone, City 102. 13-tf

Elmer Whitmore, of Laurel, while working for Al Mulloy, inflicted a three inch wound on one of his feet, a part of the cut extending to his great toe. E. C. Mulloy brought him in to Dr. Smith, in the absence of whom Dr. Dinsmore sewed the wound.

D. W. Bath, of Tacoma, Wn., was over the first of the week, on business. He reports that his son, Irvine, is still at Goldendale, in the publishing business. His paper is the Goldendale Sentinel. D. W. is running the Orting Oracle, where the Soldiers' Home is located.

A. J. Larkin and Jas. H. Jack recently conveyed one truck load of wool to Portland, the cargo bringing $2650—the most valuable load of product ever transported out of the Scholls section. The wool lined the pockets of Hesse Bros. C. Algesheimer, B. E. Crosby, Frank Foulkes, J. J. Vankleek and Ed. Rood.

The defendants in the case of Harriet B. Killen versus Hemp-hill and others, six defendants, have protested the decision of the three referees in dividing up the property to which plaintiffs and defendants are heirs. They claim they lose several thousand dollars in values by reason of unfair division. The three referees are perhaps as fair men as could have been selected by the court, and it will be up to the defendants to show that their protest is at all worthy.

Two burglars entered the Challacombe store at Cornelius, Tuesday morning, about 3:00 o'clock. They loaded three gunny sacks with shoes, underwear, groceries, etc., and were about to leave, when one of the brothers, who sleeps in an adjacent building, heard a noise. He went to investigate and found the two in possession of the building. One of them told him to get out of the store, and fired two shots into the ceiling, above his head. Challacombe then went to arouse his brother, and when they returned the two burglars had decamped, leaving their sacks of goods behind them. One went one way and one the other. Deputy Sheriff Alexander reached the store at 3:30, but could find no trace of the outlaws.

CONTRACTOR STARTS SOON ON REX-TIGARD

State Highway Lets Contract for $500,000 Worth of Road Work

LABOR TROUBLES FLY IN OINTMENT

Industrial Interest Big Everywhere With Many Orders Under Way

The State Highway Commission has let contracts for $500,000 worth of state highway improvement, and among the lot is the Rex-Tigard road, on which construction will start very soon.

The lumber and ship building industries are running full blast all over the state, and the only fly in the ointment is the labor troubles cropping out here and there.

A review of important industrial activities follows:

Milton-Valley Fruit Co. is building packing house 50x100. Roseburg—Sawmill to cut 15,000 feet a day going in at Curry ranch.

Cottage Grove—Row river sawmill sold and will be operated full capacity.

Helix will soon have $40,000 flouring mill in operation.

Corvallis has a furniture factory working eight men. Wants 100.

North Bend—Buehner Co. begins construction planing mills and dry kilns.

Hermiston to have biggest cider factory in the state.

New Mosier sawmill will have payroll of $2000 a month.

Toledo is happy over sawmill cutting 65,000 feet a day. Mill employs 45 men, logging as many more. Payroll, $10,000 a month.

Canyon City—$45,000 to be spent on John Day highway.

East Portland to get a $45,000 apartment house.

Salem loganberry industry yields carload of by-products each week.

North Bend—Contracts for six government boats to be built by Kruse & Banks. In addition government has contracted with Smith mills, of Marshfield, for fir material for 30 more boats.

Twenty government steamers, having a value of $10,000,000, will be built at Portland and Aberdeen by the Grant Smith Porter-Guthrie Co.

Thos. W. Sain, of Seoggin Valley, passed through the city the last of the week, enroute to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Larkin, of near Scholls, were in town Saturday. They will soon move to Portland.

Mrs. O. G. Bretz has been entertaining friends from Lansing, Michigan. Mrs. C. E. Bemis and daughter, Neta.

Jos. Wolfersperger, formerly in the bakery business here, passed through the city Saturday morning, enroute to coast points.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young went over to Barview, Saturday, to spend a few days with Mr. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young.

Conductor Renfro, who for several years ran a train on the Tillamook line, is now on the Portland and McMinnville run, freight, through this city.

Arthur Bacon, well known in the old homesteading days in North Washington County, came out from Portland Saturday, and went on out to Buxton.

An entire regiment of Hebrews has been enlisted in London and nearby cities. Since the days of Rome there have been many Ben Hurs and in all likelihood there will be many more.

Peterson Bros. have taken possession of the Corl & Harms Garage, and when the contractors have finished the improvements it will be absolutely the finest equipped of any in Washington County.

Walter Heineck, who is just completing the upkeep for the Rockolite Co., will report for service at Vancouver, soon, and will be in the Engineers' Corps. The boys expect a strenuous time in drill.

Twelve thousand dollars will be apportioned to the Siletz Indians in the immediate future. This will give each one in the neighborhood of $30, and Willamina and Sheridan will have good business for a few days from this alone.
