

WOMEN OF WASHINGTON COUNTY

You know our method of doing business and the class of merchandise we handle.

We mark every garment at the lowest possible price, and have one price for everybody. We don't mark prices up one day, and down the next.

Our expenses are less than any other store in the county carrying women's wear, consequently we can afford to sell at a smaller margin of profit.

Every garment in our store is new and up-to-date.

We make a specialty of large sizes for stout women.

Come in and get our prices now whether you are ready to buy or not.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington.

Henry Becker, Plaintiff, vs. Sarah F. Becker, defendant.

To Sarah F. Becker, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear in the above entitled Court and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before Friday, October 26, 1917, said date being after the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons; and if you fail so to appear and answer said said complaint, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: that the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved upon the grounds of desertion.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Hillsboro Argus pursuant to order of the Hon. Geo. R. Bagley Judge of the above entitled Court, made, dated and entered on the 11th day of September, 1917, and the date of the first publication of this summons is September 13, 1917, and the date of the last publication of this summons is October 25, 1917.

F. W. Brown, whose marriage to Mrs. Elizabeth Graug was announced last week, is the eldest son of J. H. Brown and wife, of Portland, formerly of this city. The Hillsboro friends of the bride and groom wish them much happiness.

LORSUNG WILKES

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilkes, at Dille, Sept. 12, 1917, when their daughter, Fae, was united in marriage to John Lorsung. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Ann Anderson. The bride was beautiful in white satin, and carried an arm bouquet of Bride's roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Norma Hanning, a cousin of the bride. She was dressed in pink satin and carried pink rosebuds. Peter Lorsung, a brother of the groom, was the best man. The bridal party was preceded by little Frances Lorsung as ring bearer, and little Helen Rice as flower girl. At the close of the ceremony, read by Rev. Cornstock, of Dille, Lester Hughes sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was born and raised at Dille, and is accomplished and popular, and she will be missed by a large circle of friends. The groom is well known in Hillsboro, and is engaged in contracting. After a short wedding tour they will be at home to their friends in Hillsboro.
