Louis Hamel and wife, of Quatama, were in town Monday.

Chas. Miller, of the Arcade District, was a city caller Saturday.

Born, Oct. 26, 1917, to Rev. A. H. Miller and wife, of Third St., a son.

J. H. Hanson, of the Withycombe Farm, south of Hillsboro, was in town Monday.

Dance at the Orenco Band Hall, Saturday evening, Nov. 3. Best orchestra. You are invited.

W. H. Forney, of Oak Park, was in town Saturday. He says that he is now ready to hole up for the winter.

A. W. Walker came in from South Tualatin, Friday, and went down to see his son en-train with the Third Oregon for the East.

Chester Bridges was over in the Nehalem last week, and brought over some fine horseflesh to put on the market in the future.

Cabbage for sale in any quantities.—Ed. Saxton, on J. C. Hare place, Jackson Bottom, between the two bridges south of condenser, east side of road. 35

Andrew Miller was thrown from the Lepachat auto, east of town, the last of the week, and sustained some minor and major bruises.

Money to loan on improved real estate, principally farms and choice city property.—Kerr Bros., Hillsboro, Odd Fellows Building, 191f.

The Ward Grocery was robbed Friday night, but the proprietor does not know how much of value was taken, it being rather hard to tell.

W. Mahon, of the Shute Savings, returned the first of the week from an Eastern trip. His son, Jas., with the Artillery at Ft. Stevens, was up to spend Sunday with home folks.

Harry Asbahr, of Corvallis, interested in dairy farming and horticulture, was down to Hillsboro the first of the week, a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Asbahr, Albert, a brother, of Portland, was also here for over Sunday.

Henry Kemper, of North Forest Grove, is now in Bakery 325, at Camp Lewis, American Lake cantonments. He writes Sheriff Applegate, asking him to thank the Honor Guard Girls for the housewife sent him, and states that Frydendall, of Banks, is with him in the bakery. He says, "at the camp all that we miss now is the Argus." The war board annotates on his letter—"Some boost for the Argus."

For the sake of home and children, take care of your eyes! You mothers, in performing the regular duties of the home, crowding your spare hours with sewing, reading, shopping or visiting, are placing a task upon your eyes which makes you irritable, tired, nervous and fagged out at the close of each day. If continued, the strain will result in much discomfort, even ruin to your health, and cloud the happiness of your home. Don't experiment with such a priceless gift as sight, and thru a false sense of economy, or prejudice against glasses deprive your eyes of the aid they need. No two person's eyes are the same. Each one requires a separate and individual examination. Consult Dr. Lowe at Hotel Washington, Saturday, Nov. 10, to 4 o'clock only. Forest Grove, Nov. 9. Scores of Washington County references. Remember the days and dates.

KARL KRUNTON TAKES A HORSE AND BUGGY

Lands in County Jail Last Week as Result of Appropriation

SHERIFF GETS AN ALLEGED SLACKER

Marriage License at Tillamook Tells of Chas. O'Brien's Age

Karl Krunton, a German who talks but little English, helped himself to a horse and buggy belonging to Hans Fosgue, near the Standard Box plant, at Scofield, last week, and started on a tour of the surrounding country. He was caught down at Manning, and it was found that he had also picked up a water pail as another "found" asset.

Krunton was lodged in jail here and when asked why he helped himself to the equine and vehicle, said he was looking for work. He is not overly bright, and may be a subject for the asylum. Any man with any sense of the law of averages would hardly steal a horse with the price of feed up to the top of Mt. Hood. He will be held to investigation by the grand jury.

Chas. O'Brien, of Tillamook, was picked up in the P. R. & N. yards here the last of the week and held as an alleged slacker. O'Brien took a marriage license at Tillamook a few days ago and swore he was 21 last May. He had not registered, and his license led the officials to look him up. He will be held until the law makes a full investigation.

PHARAILDE WANTED LOUIS.

The Meltebeke family again broke into the limelight the last of the week. Some weeks ago Frank Meltebeke sued Pharaide, his wife, for divorce, alleging that his brother Louis had first place in the wife's affections. A few days after the suit was filed, the brother, Louis, was brought to the county seat and charged with insanity. Upon examination he was ordered committed. A few days later the divorce case went to trial, and Mrs. M. fought the cause, asking for a decree and the property.

The Court decided that Frank was entitled to the divorce and to half of the property.

After the divorce decree Mrs. Meltebeke visited the asylum to see her brother-in-law, and was told that he had sufficiently recovered if any one in authority could stand sponsor for him. She returned home and on last Thursday she and her son went where the ex-husband was staying—at a married daughter's home—and forcibly abducted Frank, taking him to the old Meltebeke home. On Friday morning Mrs. Meltebeke sent her son to Salem in company with the ex-husband, to get the brother and co-respondent out of the asylum. The sheriff's office was notified, but not in time to head off the machine. The ex-husband says that the wife and son captured him in his shirt sleeves, and he was taken away coatless and hatless. The asylum authorities were notified of the situation.

MRS. GEORGE BANKS, SR.

Mrs. Mary Bantz, wife of Geo. Bantz, Sr., of North Plains, died at the family home, Thursday evening, October 25, 1917, after an extended illness. She was born in Ohio in 1845, and came to Oregon in 1880, via California. The family settled near North Plains in 1890. The husband and following children survive—Oscar Bantz, Portland; Mrs. F. J. Suing, Fordyce, Nebraska; George Bantz, Jr., and Edwin Bantz, of North Plains. The funeral took place Saturday at the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian Church, at one in the afternoon, and interment was in the Scotch cemetery. Mrs. Bantz was a kind and indulgent mother and loving wife.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to all who so kindly tendered aid and sympathy during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late wife and mother, Mrs. Mary Bantz. Geo. Bantz, Sr., husband, Oscar Bantz, Jr., son, Edwin Bantz. North Plains, October 27, 1917.

Dan Shaw, of Huber, was in town Monday.

J. H. Kennedy, North Plains, was in town Monday.

J. H. Simpson, of South Tualatin, was in town Friday.

John Herdlein and son, of Blooming, were Hillsboro visitors the last of the week.

Sam Moon and wife are staying in the city for a few days, and may remain here all winter.

Dance at the Orenco Band Hall, Saturday evening, Nov. 3. Best orchestra. You are invited.

L. P. Adams went down the Columbia Sunday, on a duck hunt at the Barlow-Shute preserves. They got the limit.

Peter Almqvist, of Reedyville, was in the city Friday. Peter thinks that there is no place like the farm, after trying Portland for a year.

Fritz Rufener and family were down from Helvetia Monday. Fritz is still carrying his arm in a sling, and will be laid up for several weeks.

Mrs. F. M. Crabtree and daughter, DeLaurice, were in the city Monday. Miss DeLaurice had just returned from a visit with Portland friends.

William Johnson, of near Der-sham, was a city caller Friday, and visited the Argus while in town. He says that his potato crop was rather light this year.

Wanted: Beef, pork, mutton, veal, etc., and pay the highest market price for same. Will call any place.—T. A. Miller, Beaverton, Route 4; Tel. Beaverton, 3 on line 3. 37 tf

J. W. Connell went over to the Nehalem last week and bought 1800 sacks of fine potatoes. Pete Berpersson sold him 1200 sacks—and he grows the finest of the fine.

W. A. Tupper and wife, of Portland, were out last week, visiting Wm. Tupper and family. W. A. is now working in a bank at Wasco, and he and his wife have moved there for residence.

Rev. A. H. Miller, pastor of the Evangelical Church, supplies the Wichita pulpit, east of Portland, on the Estacada line, from now until April, and will then take charge permanently. He will remain here with his family and travel to and from his charge.

E. I. Kuratli has his office in the Hillsboro National Bank Bldg. Loans your money, insures your buildings, rents your houses, buys and sells your property, makes collections. Notary Public.—Also speaks German and Swiss. 42tf

Pete Welty, the Groveland old-time carpenter and builder, was in town Saturday. Pete has built more structures in the Northeast of the county than any individual builder. Some years ago he and Fred Bishop built the St. Matthews Church spire in this city—a real work of art.

Neal C. Jamison, County Agricultural Agent for Washington County, will assume his duties at the court house, at once, and will receive his pay from Federal funds until Jan. 1, at which time his incumbency will be decided by the budget meeting. If the budget votes employment for him the county will pay $1,600 of the expense and the Federal government $1,000.

Three divorce cases were filed with Kuratli Friday—Margaret Nost, married to Ambrosius Nost in 1906, asks separation on the grounds of desertion six months after marriage; Harriet Williamson, wedded to W. P. Williamson at Salem in 1913 wants her freedom on the grounds of cruel treatment and a threat to kill. She asks for $40 monthly alimony. Minnie Harlow asks separation from F. E. Harlow on grounds of failure to provide and because he upbraided her in the presence of her dancing class pupils.

The patrons of Banks Route 3 are trying hard to get a mail service out of Portland that will carry the morning daily out on the route on the day of publication. As the matter now stands the S. P. gets into Banks, en-route for Tillamook at 10:30 when it is not late. This makes the morning paper reach them—many of them—the next afternoon after publication, and they naturally want a mail service better than this. The S. P., it is said, wishes to make connections with a California train, hence the late start out of Portland. Postmaster Vandervelden says the carriers on the routes can't make their trips and get back before nine and ten in the evening if they await the arrival of the Tillamook train for the mails.

THIRTY-TWO TONS OF CANNED "PUNKIN"

Hillsboro Cannery Started Last Week on Big Pumpkin Pie Run

LITTLE YELLOW BOYS MAKE PILE

Ready Sale for Every Can of Fruit of the Corn Field is Announced

The Hillsboro cannery started work the last of the week on a run of canning 32 tons of Oregon pumpkin—Hillsboro and vicinity pumpkin—and it is a safe bet that never in the history of the town have that many, or much, pumpkins been canned for expert use, or any other use.

Dr. W. D. Wood, who is managing the cannery, says that he has ready sale for the entire output, and he could use more if he could get them.

The output of the cannery, aside from the corn-field fruit, lines up about as follows—

- Beans, 1700 gallon cans; 70,000 No. 2 cans.
 - Loganberries, 3350 gallon cans; 1900 No. 2 cans.
 - Blackberries, 2200 gallon cans; 2600 No. 2 cans.
 - Prunes, 3300 gallon cans.
 - Royal Ann cherries, 1550 gallon cans; 6,000 No. 2 1/2 cans.
 - Tomatoes, 6,000 No. 2 1/2 cans.
 - Corn, 3400 No. 2 cans.
- Besides there are some peas, some blackcap raspberries and some red raspberries.
- The pumpkin output is estimated at from 18,000 to 20,000 cans.

CO. AGRICULTURAL COUNCIL

The organization of a County Agricultural Council is the first work to be taken up in connection with the office of the County Agriculturist. This council will be composed of representatives named by each of the farmers' organizations in the county and are called to meet at the county court house in Hillsboro at 10 o'clock, Saturday, Nov. 3.

The purpose of the Council is to cooperate with the Agricultural College and the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in outlining and maintaining the work of the County Agriculturist and in general to promote the Agricultural interests of the County.

The Granges are naming their representatives for the council and a large attendance on Saturday is expected.

After the organization of the Council meetings will be held throughout the county for the purpose of explaining the work of the agriculturist.

An office has been opened in the Hillsboro Commercial Club rooms and office days will be Saturdays, and at other times, by appointment. The Agriculturist will also be glad to make farm visits on request and where specific problems are presented.
