HILLSBORO, OREGON, DECEMBER 13, 1917

NO. 39

NEW ROAD STARTED BY BIG PETITION

Must Procure Rights of Way for New Pacific Highway

MEANS MUCH FOR SECTION

Private Subscription Will Take Care of Damages to Owners

A road petition for a new highway from Newton east to Beaver Creek is now being prepared for consideration of the county court so that all will be in readiness next Spring when the State Commission gets ready for the big drive on the Washington County sector of the State Highway.

Beaverton and Reedville-Albion-Huber people are financing the right-of-way and this will cost the county nothing.

There will be several miles of new grading, one fairly good sized bridge at Rock Creek, and a fill near St. Mary's, and a splendid grade all the way.

The Beaverton-Bertha end of the line is now practically ready for surface work of the commission.

The designation of the road means a great deal to the property owners along the line. Multnomah is running a new road from Bertha with less than a five per cent grade at its steepest point, and when completed the road will be a great benefit to those traveling by machines. The heavy wagon travel can go on the new Multnomah road, thus avoiding the heavy canyon road grade, and autos can either take this route or go in on the Terwilliger boulevard, which will be put in shape next year.

THE RIGHT STUFF

It isn't always the big fellow financially who is helping his government—sometimes the man in the common walks of life is there with bells. A fellow by the name of E. C. Wilson blew into town last week, dressed in the garb of a laborer. He had been up to the construction camp on Gales Creek, and didn't like the layout, so he quit and blew into the county seat. Many thought that he was just the ordinary type of rambler, but when he accidentally dropped his "weasel-skin" on the street and it was picked up by a pedestrian, it was found to contain a paid-up $50 liberty bond, a certified cashier's check for a neat little sum, and some gold. When it was returned to him Wilson offered to pay a decent reward, but "nothing doing." The fellow who returned the find told him he was glad to give him back his loss, as he appreciated his patriotic spirit. "Oh, the devil," said Wilson—"That's all any good American can do who can't persuade the officials to allow him to enlist. I'm too old they say, and I'm only 47 at that. But they won't let me join except in the trades capacity, and unfortunately I have no trade excepting that of meat cutter. So I'm going to work here and invest a little from time to time in the Red Cross and bonds, and if the worst comes to the worst, I'll cash it and go over to France, anyway, and work my way into some fighting company.

Wanted—A grade Holstein or Jersey bull—must be cheap.—E. H. Bowly, Cornelius, Ore., R. 2. Telephone H 515, Hillsboro central. 38-40

Bruce Schulmerich, of Scholls, was up town Saturday.

A. B. Schoonover, of Cornelius, was a city caller Friday.

Jos. Cawse, of North Tualatin Plains, was a city caller the last of the week.

Gerhard Goetze, of Blooming, was greeting friends in the county seat Saturday.

Wm. Meierjergen and J. C. Beehen, of West Union, were in town the last of the week.

Leonard Brown, F. J. Sewell and J. W. Connell went to the Columbia for a Sunday's duck hunt.

C. F. Hesse, of Scholls, was up Saturday. He says that Scholls is in the enthusiastic list for good roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montgomery, of Albany, were here the last of the week, visiting with relatives.

Jas. Jacobsen, of West Union, departed the last of the week for Goat Island, where he is now serving in training with the Marine Corps.

W. T. Kerr, of Oak Park, is planning to go into the turkey business, together with poultry raising, on the Leverich Lake ranch next season.

Ninety-eight men were sent to the navy yard at San Francisco, Friday, and on Saturday tickets for sixty-three enlistments were sent to the training stations.

The many friends of Chas. F. Barrett, formerly of Banks, will be interested to know that he is now located near Scio, Linn Co., Oregon, where he has bought a farm.

Conrad Dick, of West Union, was a city caller Friday. He says that farmers are rushing the Fall sowing these days, and a big acreage of winter wheat is being seeded.

J. H. Hutchinson, of Banks, R. 3, in the Vincelands district, was in the city the last of the week. He recently sold 35 acres to Mrs. C. A. Griffels, of Eastern Oregon. The new owner has taken possession.

G. F. C. Geishirt and his mother have sold the West Union ranch to Jacob Geisbuhler, and they have departed for Edgerton, Wis., where they will spend the winter. The move is made because of the ill health of the mother. They have made many friends during their stay in this county.

Sheriff Applegate brought up a flag from Sherwood, last week, and with the evidence that some sailor had tied about 100 knots in the emblem of the country. The banner had graced the public flag pole and the wind had blown it down, or it had been taken down by the rascal who tied the knots. The sheriff compared it with other flags here wind had tied knots—but the handiwork of man is altogether too plain for a mistake. Sherwood has a large committee of public safety which is trying to locate the culprit.

John Shori, an escapee from the Steilacoom, Wn., insane asylum, was taken in at Orenco by Sheriff Applegate, Friday. Shori has been absent three weeks, and was working for Jeibman, in the basket factory. The Steilacoom authorities, after his capture, refused to pay for conveying the man, but said they would meet him at Vancouver. He was taken to that point, because it was safer to not let him run at large, as he is violent at times, and it was cheaper to send him across the river than to board the unfortunate.

NEW RAILWAY LINE BUXTON TO NEHALEM

Southern Pacific Presumably in Field for a New Line

SURVEYORS NOW IN FIELD

Taps Rich Timber Section From Manning to Nehalem

Southern Pacific engineers are in the field on a survey of a logging railway from some point near Manning, on the P. R. & N., to the Nehalem. They have surveyed a preliminary from the crest of the mountain at the Beaver Creek divide and have surveyed this way, now being camped near the Tolke place. C. L. Brown says that one line runs through or by his property and Crawford's, and will probably connect somewhere near the Manning station. The projected line expects to run to the summit and then down Beaver Creek, where it will tap a fine body of timber. The road runs over near the J. R. Bailey place and then touches near Geizer's. It has been known for a long time that there would be another line into the Nehalem, the Tillamook line not reaching all the best timber.

There are many fine farms up in the section above Buxton which will be made valuable by the advent of a railway, and next Spring the company will more than likely start construction.

Geo. Engeldinger, at Camp Mills, says he was surprised to see Chas. Ritchey looking into his tent the other day. There was a little Hillsboro reunion right there.

The funeral of the late Zina Wood was largely attended last Friday afternoon, many notable pioneers being in attendance. Rev. E. A. Smith conducted the services in the Baptist Church.

George Armentrout, of Forest Grove, who will see his 85th birthday in January, was in the city Saturday. Geo. hasn't been out to kill a buck since he was 80 years old.

Lost: Two black and white Holstein heifers. Strayed from pasture near Scotch church. Reward. Notify Fred McNelly, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 1, tel. North Plains 2F4. 37-9

Fred Engeldinger took the examination as pharmacist for the hospital corps on the new army, at Portland, this week, and expects to enlist in that department. He has worked for several years at the Delta Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Schmidlin, of above Buxton, were in the city the last of the week, enroute home from a Portland trip. Their son, Charles, who went into army service a few weeks ago, is now in New York, at Camp Mills, and is about ready to be sent across.

Geo. Zimmerman, of above North Plains, was in town Saturday, on county court business, looking over the possibility of precinct changes that will be of benefit to people of his neighborhood. Geo. was accustomed to walk in the 16 miles to the county seat in the old days, and could do it in 3 1/2 hours. Today he says that it would take him a good 5 1/2 and then some.

Jas. Churchill, of Gales Creek, was a county seat visitor the last of the week.

A letter from Verne McKinney, who is at Camp Mills, says that Uncle Sam gave the boys at camp a splendid dinner Thanksgiving, and that Dillon, of this city, is now first cook for Co. B. He tells of receiving a letter from Clifford Long, in the navy. He says Cliff saw the Army and Marines in their football game, and Long won on the result, an army victory. McKinney says there are rumors that they will be sent back to Vancouver Barracks, and also that they will be sent over to France at any time.

A BIG ACREAGE OF WINTER GRAIN SOWN

Reports From Farm Districts Are Cheering for Bread Users

FALL FAVORABLE TO ALL

Still Seeding and Input is Twenty Five Per Cent Larger

Washington County will have a much larger acreage of winter sown grain next season than it did in 1917. The Fall of 1916 was a poor one for the Fall sown grain, and as this is the best producer it was a matter of regret to the farmers. This Fall started in bad, but the farmers pushed the work rapidly when plowing was in season and it is now said that there will be fully twenty-five per cent more acreage for harvest of this kind next year.

Fall-sown grain is always much better in yield than the Spring crop, and this will mean more money to producers. The winter wheat has been yielding all the way from 30 to 45 bushels per acre, and the favorable Fall now means a big wheat yield with conditions anywhere near right next Summer.

Tractors have been used in a number of instances, and when a farmer has had this machine in use he has taken a big advantage of moist conditions.

Frank Rowell, of Scholls, was in the city Monday.

John Trachsel, of Helvetia, held his sale Saturday, and started for San Francisco to assume his duties in the United States Navy, having enlisted as a fireman.

A Hillsboro boy, who is somewhat of a pacifist, has a sweetheart who is very loyal. The young man incidentally called her "Hon" the other day and there were fireworks right off the bat.

Herman Collier is resting these days, having sold his interest in the commission business to Leonard Brown, who is now a partner with J. W. Connell. Mr. Collier and wife will soon leave for California for the winter.

Postage on letters in the city and on the rural routes will cost but two cents postage. Many three-cent stamps have been attached to such letters the past few days, and this is a sheer waste of a penny.

Mask dance at Helvetia Hall, Saturday evening, Dec. 22, and Sneed's orchestra will furnish the music. Prizes given. Tickets $1; spectators, 25 cents. Everybody invited.—Victor and Oscar Feuerstein, Managers.

Hugh Rogers, the scaler for the S. P. Company, says that the camps in the mountains will operate every day as long as there is any decent weather. Mill men have but a short supply of logs ahead, and there is a big demand for lumber everywhere.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a Bazaar in the basement of the church, Wednesday afternoon and evening, December 19th. Several young ladies of P. U. will furnish the program, and refreshments will be served cafeteria style. Watch for full announcements next week.

Frank O'Connor, the Witch Hazel boy who shot himself a few weeks ago, was again in the hospital the past week. He was brought up for an appendicitis operation, and Dr. Smith used the knife successfully on the young man. He is still a little weak, but is getting along nicely.

John Nyberg and Chas. Geiberger, of Tualatin, were in the city Monday morning, on business with the county court. Mr. Nyberg's son, Claude, is on the San Diego, and has just returned from a trip to France. He expects to be home in a few days for a two weeks visit with home folks.

The government has evolved a way wherein the poorer man can help finance the Nation in its war for democracy. If one wants to he can buy a War Savings stamp from the post offices or any bank, and this will cost him, during his period of purchase, the sum of between $4.12 and $4.23, and on Jan. 1, 1923, the government will pay $5 for its cancellation. The local postmaster, Mr. Lamkin, reports quite a few sales. Anyone can purchase up to $1,000 worth and many all over the country are signing up for $100 worth.
