SERVICE FLAG, H. H. S.

It is desirous of placing a service flag in the High School Building, and a star will be used for each man in the army or navy. The stars will cost 45 cents each, and the families are requested to purchase the stars for their boys, where it is possible, and may leave their money with Mrs. C. W. Rollins, Fifth & Washington Sts.; Mrs. McKinney, Argus office, or L. M. Hoyt, Second St. Anyone knowing of any boys who have attended Hillsboro High, and whose names are not on the following list will please notify either of the above:

Odell Brandaw Carl Theriault
Zenas Olsen Vernon Olsen
Onas Olsen Carol Gates
Verne McKinney Millard Gates
Charles Deichman Otto Olsen
Frank Rollins Arthur Rollins
Will Nelson Charles Walker
Donald Long Glen Taylor
Clifford Long Will Taylor

The flag will be large enough to permit additions. Please report any corrections to this list as soon as possible.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Arthur Reiling)

The Boys' and girls' basketball teams play the two Beaverton teams on the home floor Saturday evening, at 7:30. This is the opening game of the season. Admission, 25c.

The Seniors have elected Prof. Olson for their play coach for the year.

The students are planning to give the operetta, "Silvia," about the last of February, under the direction of Prof. Olson. Rehearsals commence next semester.

The regular meeting of the Senate Club was held Tuesday evening. Dan Emrick applied for membership, and will be accepted upon passing the necessary examination.

The "B" held a very interesting mock trial at the meeting Wednesday.

By request of an H. S. student Tuesday evening, January 11, a meeting was held at the Rock Creek school house, the object being to start a Literary Society on a new basis. The following officers were elected: President, Herbert Scheidt; vice pres., Charles Tunstall; secretary and treasurer, Tilda Grossen; sergeant-at-arms, John Berger. Everyone is invited to attend these meetings, which are held every three weeks. A number of the members of this Club are H. S. graduates.

The Senior girls' team defeated the Sophomore girls last evening, at basketball, 13 to 10, winning the Gates Inter-class cup.

W. S. Tilton says it would be a mighty good idea for farmers to raise vetch, barley and buckwheat for chicken feed for this fall, as there is likely to be a shortage of wheat.

MERIT WORD

Postmaster Lamkin and other postmasters in the county have received the following:

To the Officers and Employees of the Postal Service:

The accomplishments of the postal service during the year just closed prompt me to express my gratification at your universal loyalty to your official duties and the Government. By your zealous efforts, untiring zeal and loyal devotion to the service you have successfully met and solved the many difficult problems with which the service has been confronted, and rendered efficient postal service under the most trying conditions. Information received by me through many sources shows that the service is now conducted at the highest standard of efficiency in its history, notwithstanding the fact that many of the employees have been called for military duty. You have also done much valuable work for other Departments which required time, patience and skill, and which was entirely foreign to the postal service. During the holiday season just past you have handled in a more successful and expeditious manner than in any previous year the largest volume of Christmas mail ever entrusted to the postal service. The instance in which the mail was not so handled was due to causes beyond the control of the postal service and for which you are in no wise responsible. The magnificent achievements of the past year have been obtained by your efforts and you are entitled to the credit for them. It is desired that all the employees be informed of my sincere appreciation of their untiring, faithful and efficient service.

I also desire to take this opportunity to wish every person connected with the service a happy and prosperous New Year.

A. S. Burleson,
Postmaster General.

A. Sipp, of above Mountaindale, was in town Monday.

Adam Beil, of Boring, accompanied by Mr. Mullenhoof, was over Monday attending the fire insurance meeting.

Dr. C. R. Bloyd has returned from Southern Oregon. He visited his son, C. Vinter Bloyd, at Mare Island, where he is an instructing machinist for Uncle Sam. He reported excellent treatment, and is getting along fine.

Ida Belle Yenkel, wife of N. Yenkel, of North Plains, died of carcinoma, Jan. 13, 1918. She was aged 45 years, and had been ill for some time. Interment was in the North Tualatin Plains cemetery.

L. H. Peters and family were in the city from above North Plains, Monday. L. H. has two fine brood sows, and inside of 11 months they brought him an increase of 60 youngsters—which is some interest on the money invested.

The Home Social Club, consisting of married folks, organized recently, is having fortnightly dances, the net proceeds being devoted to the Red Cross fund. Their next dance will be Saturday night.

John Booker Sr. departs tomorrow for San Francisco, Cal., to remain several months. John says that it has done nothing but rain since he came back to Oregon, and he wants to get into a "dry" climate where it is also a little "wet."

Creigh Long, who belongs to the aviation corps, arrived home from Texas, the last of the week, and was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Long, Sunday. Creigh has been transferred back to Vancouver, and is expected to be with the Spruce division in the Northwest.

The Central Church of Christ, corner Third and Baseline Sts., Rev. B. F. Clay, Minister.—Bible School at 10 A. M.; preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.; subject of morning sermon, "Shall Oregon be the First to Adopt the National Prohibitory Amendment to the Constitution of the U. S.?" In the evening, "Jacob, Prince of God." This church will begin a series of Evangelistic meetings, Tuesday, Feb. 5, 1918. Dr. R. L. Dunn, of Vancouver, Wn., who comes highly commended, will do the preaching. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

First Congregational Church, Main and Fifth Streets, Rev. A. D. Shaw, Ph. D., Pastor.—Sunday School at 10 A. M.; classes for all ages from beginners to adults. Professor B. W. Barnes, Supt. Morning worship at 11; sermon subject will be "The Sublimity of the Grace of Silence." Christian Endeavor at 6:30 P. M. Evening service at 7:30; a series of colored stereopticon pictures of Glacier National Park will illustrate the evening subject—"God in Nature." Every picture a work of art. All seats free and everybody welcome to the services of this church.

SURPRISE PARTY

A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heckman, Saturday evening, January 5, 1918, it being Marie Leisman's 16th birthday. The evening was spent in playing games, and music. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Those present were—Harold and Esther Baybrooks, Otto and Erwin Fuller, Herman and Annie Ediger, Ernest and Matilda Stoffer, Gertrude and Freda Heckman, Fred and Hulda Kehrli, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dysle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. May, Verne, Freddie and Walter Dysle, Louise, Lydia and Marie Trachsel, Amelia Lechner, Emma and Bertha Dysle, Albert and Marie Meier, Estella Nelson, John, Marie, Bessie and Henry Leisman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heckman. They all departed wishing her many happy birthdays.

The Woodmen of the World will give a dance at their hall, 114 1/2 miles West of Cedar Mill, on Saturday night, Jan. 19. Tickets $1, including supper. Everybody invited.
