MR. AND MRS. FRED WALTERS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walters.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at eleven o'clock, Jan. 1, 1918, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dick, when Miss Amelia Dick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dick, of West Union, became the bride of Fred Walters. The service was read by Elder W. H. Cottrell, of the Central Adventist Church of Portland.

The bride was charming in a beautiful and girlish gown of white crepe de meteor and shadow lace, her veil being caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was an elaborate shower of white roses, orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Bessie Nelson, the bridesmaid, wore yellow crepe de chine trimmed with rosebuds, and carried a shower of Ophelia roses and violets. Little Karne Swenson was the flower girl, and carried a basket of sweet peas. Henry Walters officiated as best man.

The wedding march from Lohengrin was executed by Miss Martha Schuren. Miss Elizabeth Walters sang "Because."

The wedding party embraced the relatives of bride and groom, and consisted of 125 guests. After the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served in the spacious dining room, at which John Shupert, of Goble, was master of ceremonies and toastmaster.

The house color scheme was red and green, and huge bouquets of poinsettias and snailx were neatly arranged about the rooms, while potted palms formed the altar.

Miss Elizabeth Walters, Miss

Miss Bessie Nelson, Bridesmaid.

Yaeger and Mrs. Harry Blake sang vocal numbers, with Miss Martha Schuren as accompanist. A recital by Ernest Hoefler was a feature.

Mrs. F. Litherland and Mrs. T. P. Swennes assisted in receiving. Bride and groom are popular in the West Union and East Hillsboro sections. Mr. Walters is a prosperous young farmer, and both have a host of friends who wish them much happiness.

STOMACH TORN UP

Indiana Lady Describes Condition, Which She Says Was Due To Constipation and Tells of Relief Obtained From Black-Draught.

Scottsburg, Ind.—Mrs. Annie Johnson, of this place, writes: "I well remember I suffered for a long time with constipation, which would get me down. I took doctors' medicines and any number of purgatives. They would leave me in a worse condition than I was before taking, and my stomach so upset... I know once I suffered... from constipation, I was so nervous and feverish. The doctor said I would have to quit medicines, my stomach was so bad..."

My husband was reading and found something about 'Theodor's Black-Draught' and brought me a package to try. I used it regularly at first until I began to feel better, then I used just a dose occasionally. I was cured of this constipation and am sure the Black-Draught did it.

If your stomach is out of order, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, helping to regulate the liver and to cleanse the bowels of impurities.
