CHIEF OF POLICE NOTICE

Many complaints are coming to me of chickens running at large. Some people no doubt are under the impression that the city ordinance does not apply to chickens during the winter season, but this is not true. The law is effective at all times.

Therefore, this notice is to say that the ordinance regarding keeping up chickens will be rigidly enforced, regardless of person or circumstances. Too many complaints are coming in to allow the ordinance to be further violated.

REGISTRANT MUST REPORT ANY CHANGE

That Might Affect His Classification in Draft

FAILURE, HEAVY PENALTY

Any Shift of Employment or Conditions to be Told

Portland, Ore., Jan.—Neglect by any draft registrant who has been granted deferred classification to report to his local board within five days any fact that might change or affect his classification, will be a very serious matter, indeed, for that draft registrant.

The penalty for such forgetfulness is up to one year in jail. And Government appeal agents and the police have been instructed to watch very closely the status of all registrants in deferred classes.

As an example, suppose a draft registrant, who otherwise would be in Class 1, to have been granted deferred classification by reason of his employment in a shipyard.

His deferred classification holds good only for the time he is actually so employed.

If he quits work in that shipyard for any reason whatsoever, he must report the fact, within five days of his quitting, to the local board.

If he doesn't report it, the change in his status is certain to become known sooner or later.

He will be arrested, prosecuted, and probably sent to jail.

Making a false report is punishable as severely as neglecting to make any report.

The rule cited does not apply only to men employed in shipyards. It applies equally to any draft registrant in a deferred classification whose status has been changed.

Portland, Ore., Jan.—Now that the questionnaires are in with few exceptions, and the work of permanent and associate members of the various legal advisory boards is almost ended, Governor Withycombe has issued a statement thanking them in behalf of the state for their faithful and patriotic service.

"I desire to make forceful expression of my appreciation and gratitude, and of the gratitude of the people of Oregon," said the Governor, "to each member, both both permanent and associate, of every legal advisory board constituted and organized in the state, for their earnest and satisfying effort."

The Thrift Campaign in the schools is well under way. School children are investing freely in War Savings Certificates and Thrift Stamps. There is no better place to put small savings.

While we are saving and conserving let us not neglect to "give." It will be a grave mistake if we do not plan to let the children have a part in the great relief program which America is called upon to shoulder up. We are calling upon the schools to contribute to the Armenian Relief Fund an amount equal to 2c apiece for the number enrolled in the school. No pupil is asked to contribute more than 5c. This seems like a very modest contribution, but our idea is to respond to every legitimate call rather than give so much to one that we do not feel able to give to others.

IRRITABLE NERVOUS

Was Condition of Indiana Lady Before Beginning to Take Card-u-i, the Woman's Tonic.

Kokomo, Ind.—Mrs. H. Hankemeier of this town, says: "I look so well, and am so well, that it does not seem as if I ever needed Card-u-i. But I was not always this way. . . . I think I have taken a dozen bottles. . . . before my little girl came.

I was feeling dreadfully bad, had headache, backache, sick at my stomach, no energy. . . . I was very irritable, too, and nervous.

I began taking Card-u-i about 6 months before my baby came. As a result all those bad feelings left me, and I just felt grand, just as if nothing at all was the matter, and when the end came I was hardly sick at all.

Since that I have never taken Card-u-i at all. . . . It has done me good, and I know it will help others, if they will only try it."

Many women have written grateful letters like the above, telling of the good that Card-u-i has done them. Why should it not help you, too? If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, and feel the need of a safe, reliable, strengthening tonic, we urge you to begin today and give Card-u-i a fair trial. Your dealer sells Card-u-i. EB-10
