The first loss of American lives in the transport service took place yesterday. Over 200 were lost, as near as can be estimated, out of the 2100 aboard. It was a British ship, carrying U. S. soldiers, and conveyed by the British navy. No Oregon troops were aboard—but it is all one and the same. This appalling loss will more firmly cement the American people and cause additional determination in war work.

Postmaster Lamkin has registered 15 aliens since Feb. 4. The registration closes next Saturday night, and those who have not signed up should make it a point to get into the office. It is some task to register a man and requires all of an hour, and more, with some.

The Rock Creek Literary Society gave an interesting program last Friday evening. It consisted of recitations, dialogues, music, etc. The main feature of the evening was an instructive address on "War Saving Stamps," by Prof. A. P. Patten, of Hillsboro High School. A clever and amusing operatic "stunt" by several members of the society added to the enjoyment of the evening. A large and appreciative audience was present.

Jos. Kaufman, of below Reedville, was in the city the first of the week, coming over from Ostrander, Wn., where he has been logging.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES (By Arthur Reiling)

The new semester opened Monday morning with an increase in the size of the student body. Several new faces were noticed among the members of the upper classes, and a number of new Freshies were noted roaming aimlessly about the halls.

This is a busy week for the basketball teams. Wednesday evening the boys' team played a practice game with the Cornelius Scouts, on the local floor. Friday afternoon both the boys' and girls' teams will go to McMinnville to play the High School teams of that city a return game. The teams will return Saturday. After the games between McMinnville and Hillsboro last week which resulted in a score of 27 to 28 in favor of the McMinnville boys and 11 to 20 in favor of the McM. girls, the visitors were given a reception at the H. S. building. Everybody got acquainted with everybody else and enjoyed a good time.

The members of the Senate Club are sporting their new pins this week. Everybody will have to admit that "they sure are classy."

The Jolly Comrade Club are planning a party for next Wednesday evening. It sounds like cats.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, Feb. 18, 1918, the tax rolls for the year 1917 will be open for collection of taxes, and the first half of all taxes shall be paid on or before April 5 following, and the second half on or before October 5 following. Interest shall be charged and collected at the rate of one per cent per month or fraction of a month in case of delinquency, until paid. Interest at said rate applies to the first half if not paid by April 5, and to the second half if not paid by October 5. All taxes remaining unpaid on October 5 shall be delinquent, and on November 5, 1918, a penalty of 5 per cent, will be charged and collected thereon in addition to the interest herein provided.

Any day after the expiration of six months after the taxes charged against real property are delinquent, the sheriff shall have the right, and it shall be his duty upon demand to make out and issue certificates of delinquency against such property, such certificates to bear interest at the rate of 12 per cent. On, or as soon as practicable after, October 5, the tax collector shall levy upon sufficient goods and chattels of delinquent tax payers and sell same to satisfy said tax, or said sheriff shall charge said personal tax against real property and said tax shall become a lien upon said real property, and shall be enforced in the same manner as other real estate tax liens.

In making request for statement of taxes, town lots should be designated by address, and not by block number. Acreage should be designated by section, township and range. Whenever possible description should be copied from deed or contract. On paying second half of tax it will be necessary to return the original first half tax receipt.

J. C. Applegate,
Sheriff, and Ex-officio Tax Collector for Washington County, Oregon.
By Geo. Alexander, Deputy.
