Herman Cop, of near Greenville, was in the city Sunday.

B. R. Patton, of Olson Station, was a city visitor Tuesday, on business at the court house.

Carl Berggren, of North Plains, was over Saturday, attending the dairy meeting.

Jacob Wisner and two sons, J. J. and Carl, were up from Cedar Mill, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Luther came up from Medford, and spent Sunday with the A. P. Luthers and the Hartramps.

Attorney W. G. Hare went to Salem Tuesday, to appear before one of the state boards for a Southern Oregon clientele.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Wells, of Portland, were out Sunday, visiting home folks. Gail is still in the electric department in the shipbuilding work.

Basket Social—For benefit of Iowa Hill Band, at Firdale school house, March 2, at 8 p. m. The band will furnish the music and program. Everybody invited.

For Sale—Big Grade Jersey, fresh cow, 8 years old, makes 9 lbs butter weekly; also 3-yr-old, worked few times; gentle and kind.—S. M. Chapman, Cornelius, Ore. 47-9

Archie Brown, well known here in the restaurant business several years ago, and later at Forest Grove, in the livery business, is here from California for a short visit.

Z. M. LaRue, in business at Sheridan, was down to Hillsboro, Friday, greeting friends. Zibe says that Sheridan is still thriving even if the town has sent a great many young men to the war.

For Sale or Exchange—Nineroom house in nice residence district of Ashland, Oregon. Also business block consisting of three stores below with apartments above, all bringing in nice income. Will take city or farm property near Hillsboro.—Write Box 66, Hillsboro, Ore. 47-1

Mrs. Esther Leisy, of Portland, and her son, Douglas, with the Portland police force, were out over Sunday, guests of the Geo. Hathorns, of Laurel. Guy Hathorn, who is now in the Navy, was up the last of the week, on a leave of absence and the grandmother made a special trip out to see the sailor.

Mrs. J. J. Krebs, of Rockaway, is in the city. She has been visiting in Portland, and was accompanied to that city by her daughter, Mrs. Martin Woodward, of Juneau, Alaska, who returned to her Northern home, this week, after an extended visit at the parental home at Rockaway. Mrs. Krebs will visit relatives and friends here this week while J. J. plays solitaire at the beach home. She says that Rockaway has many men working in the government spruce division.

On a recent Sunday night a party of 16, mostly women, from the Oak Park and James section, went to church, making the trip on foot, rather than bother with the teams or machines. On their return home they put up their umbrellas, sixteen in number, and at the long bridge they met an auto. The headlight threw a glare and shimmer on the wet umbrellas, and the driver stopped, thinking perhaps it was a fleet of Zepps, or a procession from the war zone. When he saw what the parade was he offered to treat them to ice cream if they would walk back to the city—but his courteous offer was declined.

OREGON DAIRY LEAGUE MEMBERS MEET HERE

Over One Hundred Attend Session at Court House Saturday

TEN LOCALS IN COUNTY

President Alma D. Katz Present and Outlined Needs of Industry

Over one hundred attended the meeting called by the Oregon Dairymen's League in the court house last Saturday, and the eight Washington County Locals were represented by about sixty members, the other forty being dairymen who were interested in the developments of the business. Alma D. Katz, the president of the league, was in charge of the session, and he told of the vicissitudes of the men who furnished the milk for the country, and asked for members for the organization. Washington County has the following on the directors' list:

Chas. D. Bernards, R. B. Denny and Jacob Zwingli, Beaverton; Ulrich Tannler, A. Schallberger, M. Kehrl, T. E. Armstrong, Hillsdale; Thos. Carmichael, Gaston.

Washington County has eight locals, with secretaries as follows:

- No. 1, L. G. Selfridge, Banks; No. 2, E. M. Maxwell, Gaston, R. 2; No. 3, R. B. Denny, Beaverton, Ore.; No. 6, Chas. Bamford, Forest Grove; No. 8, F. W. Connell, Hillsboro, R. 1; No. 12, Lester E. Campbell, Scholls, Hillsboro, R. 2; No. 15, J. J. Wisner, Portland, R. 2; No. 16, Carl Berggren, Hillsboro, R. 3, at North Plains.

A number signed up with the Locals, and a number of others have the matter of an organization under consideration.

BIRTHDAY

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at Blooming, at the home of Mrs. Behrman, last Friday, in honor of her birthday. The afternoon was taken up with music and conversation, after which a delicious luncheon was served. The guests departed wishing her many more such birthdays.

ROBT. N. SHANE

Robert N. Shane, of Farmington, died in Portland, Feb. 16, 1918, after an illness of several months of pneumonia. He was born in Delaware Co., Iowa, March 16, 1862. He was married to Susan Samels in 1892. They came to the coast in 1908, and settled a mile east of Farmington. He leaves a widow and one son, Frank L. Shane. Of his immediate family he leaves three sisters residing in Portland—Nan C. Frances A. and Mary Z. A brother, John, died a few weeks ago.

The funeral was held Feb. 18, and interment was in Mt. Calvary Cemetery, near Portland. Mr. Shane was a kind and loving husband and father and a good neighbor.

James Thompson, a donkey engineer with the Tualatin Valley Lumber Co., had his left leg broken while running a donkey, last Saturday. The crank pin became loose and the crank struck him several times before he could get away. His knee cap was broken and the bone was fractured near the knee cap, extending into the joint. Dr. E. H. Smith attended the sufferer and says that the break is a bad one and will lay Thompson up for some weeks.

All goes very reasonable; one-half cash or I will sell the timber for cash in hand.—A. L. Grebe, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 2, Box 28. 48-9

Edy. Schulmerich fell in the basement at his Main St. home, early Sunday morning, and fractured one of his legs. He was lame enough to get upstairs, and Dr. Smith fixed him up so he is resting easy. Ed. smoked that old duceen of his all the way to the doctor's office and all the way back, and observed that he would get a little vacation all his own.

Wm. Huntemann, stationed at Camp Lewis, was home this week, visiting his wife and relatives. Wm. looks fine and says that they feed him finely over there. He has gained 30 pounds since he was sent to the Camp. He is stationed at the pumping plant, and says it seems like old times, when he pumped water for irrigation on the Huntemann ranch.

Sarah E. Krieger has sued Wm. Krieger, an attorney, for divorce, the case being brought here on change of venue from Columbia County. She alleges that marriage took place in 1906, in Portland. She says her husband says he is making about $4,500 annually in his law practice, and she asks for $100 monthly for the support of her two minor children and $100 monthly for herself.
