When the reckoning comes God help the man who set the world afire.

And now it is "constructive criticism" that the Roosevelt are making—and the Kaiser, of course, smiles.

Uncle Sam is having some time to get shipping on the seas in order to save the world from the domination of the Kaiser. For over fifty years we were so dog-gone busy "protecting" the millionaire that our solons let the merchant marine go to the devil.
 And yet there are those Weisenheimers who blame the administration for not having bottoms to get our men into action at the drop of the hat. Come, come, gentlemen, forget your party, by remembering the facts.

YOUR FLOUR

A large number of loyal people are inquiring as to the method of turning over flour on hand to the government for export.
 Washington County dealers have been provided with blank receipts and will take the flour turned in, paying for it in either other commodities or cash, the price paid for it.
 The food Administration is arranging for cargo space in one of the new Portland built ships and flour must be turned in during the next week to be in time.
 Dealers please advise County Administration on Tuesday the 11th amount on hand.

WAR SAVINGS NEWS

When an American citizen, instead of spending $10, $50 or $100 for something he wants, denies himself and lends his money to the Government, he performs a double service. First, he furnishes our government that much money to use in checking the devastations of the Hun; 2nd, he has relieved to that extent the drain on materials and labor, the essential things for winning the war.
 The time is critical. Every man and woman is called upon to show his or her loyalty not only by words, but by real sacrifices.
 June 28th is designated by the President of the United States as War Savings Pledge Day. Every school district in the United States will be assigned its quota of money to be set aside in War Savings before Dec. 31. This is not a gift to the government, but a loan and a promise to save even to the point of sacrifice.
 A meeting is called at every school house in the United States on June 28th to sign the pledges of War Savings for the balance of the year. The patriotic committees of the various school districts will have this in charge and every citizen should be ready to do his or her part to put Washington County over the top and make it easy for the committees.
 N. A. FROST,
 Chairman of War Savings, Washington County.
 Frank W. Connell, of Connell Station, on the United, was in the city yesterday. He is offering his herd of Holsteins for sale.

GUERNSEY PICNIC

The Guernsey Breeders of Washington County and other dairymen interested are invited by W.
 A. Goodin, of Cornelius, to meet at his farm for a basket picnic, June 15, at 10 a. m. John T.
 Whalley, president of Oregon Guernsey Breeders' Association, will be present, and also E. L.
 Westover, the dairy specialist of O. A. C. One of the purposes is to organize a Washington County Guernsey Breeders' Association and afford means for the breeders to become better acquainted. A boys' and girls' stock judging contest will be held and awards will be given to those making highest scores in this contest. Any boy or girl under the age of 16 years will be allowed to compete in the contest.
 N. C. JAMISON,
 County Agent.

SUN PHENOMENA

That much heralded eclipse will reach Oregon about 4 o'clock, Saturday, June 8. Get your glass smoked so you can watch the phenomena. Do not try to watch it with the naked eye. The moon will start across the face of the sun about 2:38, and totality will take place shortly after 4. Watch for it, as this may be the last total eclipse you will ever witness.
 This eclipse is not total here, but it will be so close that you will not note the difference.
 Watch the chickens go home to roost.

$1,000 EACH

The following are charter members of the War Savings Limit Club of Hillsboro, and they have each pledged to take $1,000 of W. S. S. before Dec. 31—J. W. Shute, Dr. F. A. Bailey,
 O. B. Gates, W. O. Donelson, E.
 I. Kuratli, Weils, Chas. E. Wells, Mary A. Donelson, W. H. Wehrrung. The club is now open for applications. Apply to M. P.
 Cady, Chairman, Hillsboro.

Van Meade, of Orenco, was up yesterday. Van already had one son, Richard, in the Navy, and another son, Wm., joined the radio corps last week.

Geo. Limber, the undertaker, broke one of the bones in his right wrist the other morning, while cranking an auto. Dr. Erwin attended the injury.

Little Alice Weisenback, of near Lincoln station, on the United, fell from a horse the other day and sustained a fractured shoulder. Dr. E. H. Smith attended the little sufferer.

Lody Tupper was out Decoration Day. He is working for the Geo. Lawrence Co., which has a big force of men at work on war contracts for saddles, harness and other leather goods.

Born, to Ernest Wohlschlegel and wife, Laurel, June 3, 1918, a son.

Insist on getting "Beaver Portland Cement." It's new, clean, fresh, Oregon-made cement.—

Miss Clara Derrick, who has been teaching at Ketchikan, Alaska, the past year, is visiting with her cousin, Herman Collier, and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montgomery came down from Albany the last of the week, and Mrs. Montgomery remained for a visit with her mother, Mrs. E. W. Moore, and other relatives.

John Peterson and son, John H., of below Phillips, were in the city yesterday. The young man registered. He already has a brother, Corporal Peterson, in the war, stationed at present at Baltimore.

H. Margugg, with his Ford, collided with Thos. Davis Jr., who was in his big Cole machine, last Wednesday evening. The Ford was not put entirely out of commission, but the Cole was badly damaged in the rear. Davis claims the right of way. The collision took place at the greenhouse corner, of Second.

After this week there will be no Saturday to Monday rates on travel as heretofore. It will be three cents per mile straight, everywhere, and the man who wants to travel East will be hit much harder than at present. If you are east-bound, get your ticket early, and before the 10th, if you want to save a little sponduliik.

Rich Hoyt returned this week from Newport News, after having rounded the canal. When he arrived there he ran against the new regulations that a man must be physically fit before he could enlist in the merchant marine for the duration of the war. The government gave him his transportation back to Portland. Rich says he would give a million for that good leg.

Last Thursday the Scholls-Farmington auxiliary of the Red Cross had a "Waste Paper Day," meeting at the rooms of the Farmington unit. A delicious dinner was served in the preparation of which no wheat flour was used. Through the kind offices of Mayor Wall, of Hillsboro, in the afternoon the people were afforded the privilege of listening to an address by Major Christy, who was introduced by a few well chosen words by the mayor. The address brought vividly before the people the scenes and suffering of the battlefield, and was followed by many additional contributions to the Red Cross Drive, although this district had already gone over the top. Mrs. Larsen had given a pair of beautiful hand-worked pillow slips, which were auctioned for $6.25, and Earl Anderson put up a fine Scotch Colly pup, which brought $5.
 The food remaining from dinner was also sold, the proceeds from the dinner and auction amounting to over $30. This, with the proceeds from the sale of the waste paper, of which two and one-half tons were collected, will go to the local Red Cross fund.

Donations for the Red Cross sale have been increased by a Planet Junior Seed Drill from R. E.
 Harbison; 6 handsome agates from Mr. Cota; an attractive cut-glass cream and sugar set from Mrs. Loxley Traylor, and a mahogany, bound in brass, writing box from the Misses Junor.
 This latter article has a very interesting history, having been taken thru Europe and India by former owners and it also contains a secret receptacle for jewels.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Collins have donated the first month's rent of headquarters, and Mrs. H.
 Bennett $1 for the local fund.

At the 7th district convention of Sunday Schools from Bethany district, the Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, Reformed and Cong. churches were all represented by a big attendance and from the offering of $60 a sixth $10 were brought in for the local fund.

HONOR GUARD

 will be furnished by the guard, and conservation candy will be on sale.
 All members, except ushers, please report at headquarters, Friday, at 7:15 p. m., in uniform.

HOME GUARD

Those wishing to join the Home Guard please attend the meeting at the Court House, this Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

Carroll Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Long, enlisted at Portland this week, and will answer his call to arms in a few days. This makes two sons Mr. and Mrs. Long now have in the service.

The normal wheat consumption of the United States is 120,- 000,000 bushels for the three months between now and harvest. The minimum which we must supply the army and Allies between now and harvest is 15, 000,000 bushels per month or a total of 45,000,000 bushels. The visible supply is less than 75,- 000,000 bushels. Taking the 45, 000,000 which must go leaves 30,000,000 bushels to supply a normal demand of 120,000,000 bushels. Our people should be able to figure for themselves what their duty is in this connection—eat no wheat flour.
