

A little dose of Gravelly takes the Obnoxious Officer through many a hard case.

He Will Welcome a pouch of Real GRAVELLY Chewing Plug

Any gift from the folks back home means a lot to the boy. When you send him tobacco, let it be good tobacco—tobacco worth sending all that long way—the flat, compressed plug of Real Gravelly.

Give any man a chew of Real Gravelly Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best! Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravelly, because a small chew of it lasts a long while.

If you smoke a pipe, slice Gravelly with your knife, and add a little to your smoking tobacco. It will give flavor—improve your smoke.

SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELLY

Dealers all around here carry it in 10c pouches. A 3c stamp will get it into his hands in any Training Camp or Section of the U. S. A. Even "over there" a 3c stamp will take it to him.

The Patent Pouch keeps it Fresh and Clean and Good—It is not Real Gravelly without this Protection Seal. Established 1891

GOD BLESS OUR BOYS

God bless the boys who left their homes While in the bloom of health And crossed the seas to "No Man's Land," Were they in quest of wealth?

Ah, no! A nobler cause was theirs; It was a Nation's need That sent them out to take up arms Against the foemen's greed.

God bless the boys who are exempt Because of family cares, Remember, he's a soldier, though No soldier's garb he wears.

God bless the boys still on the farm, Doing the best they can For Uncle Sam, by raising wheat To help the other man.

God bless the boys in service now, In forests old and grand; They're getting out the spruce and fir, 'Tis now in great demand.

God bless the soldier boy today, In air, on land or sea, We think of them so many times, And oft on bended knee.

God help us all to do our part, And when the war shall cease, Then o'er this blood-stained earth of ours Shall fly the "Dove of Peace."

Judge Reasoner, while down in the east end of the county the first of the week, burned out his coil, and had to have some mechanical help on his auto before he could get back to the county seat.

Those who were sure the world would slip a cog last Saturday are now breathing more easily. The old planet, like the celebrated Ford, "rambled right along" without a hitch, and without even honking the moon to get out of the way.

A. C. Shute, of the Shute Savings, returned the first of the week for a trip to Bend, Eastern Oregon, where he attended the Bankers' Convention for Eastern Oregon. Bend is thriving on its sawmill and stock business, and getting to be quite a metropolitan place these days.

Nothing definite is yet stated as to whether or not the highway commission will start work on the hard surface this season.

Robert Thompson, of Cedar Mill, was in town Monday. He and his wife visited the State Grange at Salem last week, and Robert says the session was replete with interest. The Grange were extended the courtesy of the Hall of Representatives in which to hold their sessions, and Robert says that it made a fellow feel like a legislator. Mr. Thompson is an enthusiastic Granger and has devoted much time to the organization since it was established.

The railroads are now taking nothing less than 10 cents on a passenger fare, and it is a dime to Oak Park, a dime to Newton, and a dime from up town to East Sixth South, or to Tenth, and there will be many walkers from now on. The water brigade to Oak Park and other swimming points on the O. E. will hereafter, beginning with Monday of this week, have to put up 20 cents for their round trip. Something like taking a bath, warming up your own water and paying 20 cents to Neighbor Gilby.

ESCAPED AND CAUGHT

E. D. Johnson, of Tualatin, was adjudged insane last Friday, and created a little diversion when he arrived at the Oregon Electric depot in charge of Guard Harrington, of the asylum. The Guard went into the lavatory and Johnson made his escape. When Harrington came into the depot waiting room Johnson was not in sight, and search failed to locate him. It is supposed that he made his getaway by stopping some auto and asking for a ride. The guard went on to Salem the next morning, and Johnson was caught at Tualatin, Sunday. The crazy man had been stopping the past year with an elderly woman in Portland and she found the place for him in Tualatin, where she thought it would improve his health. Monday morning the old lady came out and demanded the revolver taken from Johnson by the officials. The old lady didn't get the gun as the court asked for absolute proof. Rather queer, they thought, to let a man mentally unbalanced have a shooter in his possession.

GOOD PRUNE CROP

Reports from nearly every section in the county hold out the promise of a fine prune crop this year. The trees are laden heavier than for many years, and the fruit is growing nicely. Some of the branches have more than they can easily hold when they develop a little heaviness, and in many places the boughs will have to be thinned or suffer breakdowns. Prunes will no doubt bear a good price this year owing to demand for them in the war.

Prune men are jubilant over the prospect and it looks like they are coming into their own.
