

JUNIOR CROSS

The following county schools have worked with the senior Red Cross Auxiliaries in the east part of the county, and as those belong to Portland Chapter, the work and funds have been turned in through those organizations:

Durham, Phil E. Lewis, 47 wash cloths and 27 abdominal bandages.

East Butte, Mrs. Cordelia Stiles, 2 sets dominoes, checker board and checkers, 10,000 gun wipers, 50 stove holders. Gave Tigard Aux. $25 and have balance $21.53.

Whitford, Stella M. Hinman, quilt, 29 property bags, 2800 gun wipers, 2 puzzles, 2 handkerchiefs, child's petticoat, pillow and shawl.

Cipole, Lottie Cole, bedspread, 4 ambulance pillows, 4 bags, 23 wash cloths, tray cloth, 4 petticoats, 3 dresses, jacket, 4 bonnets, 8 bibs, night gown, boy's suit, pair shoes and 2200 gun wipers.

Laurel Ridge, Mrs. H. P. Strickler, 4 smile books, 2000 gun wipers, 16 property bags, 12 hot water bag covers, 6 checker boards, quilt, 3 napkins, 5 hdkfs., 7 wash cloths. A social given at the residence of H. P. Strickler, Saturday evening, June 15, netted $7.19 for the Junior fund. During vacation the pupils will meet twice a month and will be assisted by the ladies of the Senior Red Cross Auxiliary.

Schoolfield School, Elizabeth Hannom turned in work and money to Schoolfield Aux. and as that belongs to Portland there is no way of giving the school credit in Washington County, unless the teacher sends in a complete report of work done.

These schools are organized, but have not sent in reports of their work and money on hand:

Mountainside, Miss E. Bechen; Kinton, J. W. Stretcher; Groner, E. M. Guerber; Chapman, V. V. Schiffer; Sherwood, S. W. Babcock; Jacktown, M. L. Beckett; Garden Home, H. T. Evans; Pleasantview, Helen Lewis; Aloha-Huber, C. E. Barker; Metzger, J. R. Chapman; Reedville, Mrs. E. Keen; Raleigh, Mrs. E. M. Christensen; Forest Dale, Hilda Lorenzen; St. Cecilia, Stella R. Hiltz; Tualatin, R. W. Reineman.

TRENCHES TAKEN

Iowa Hill School, District No. 52, not only went over the top last Friday night in the war stamp drive but it went clear into the first line enemy trenches and made a capture of a $1,075 over and above the assigned quota. The quota was fixed at $2,900, and the net subscriptions, according to Jim Loudon, who was in Saturday and turned in the pledges to Supt. Frost, was amounted to $3,975. Here is some loyalty, "indeed!" Judge A. H. Tanner, who hasn't lost any of his old fires of youth went to the school house Friday night and made one of the real patriotic speeches of the campaign—and when the Judge starts right he always finishes with the proper spirit. Those who heard the speech declare that it was one long to be remembered.

MRS. JULIA M. WHEELER

The husband of Mrs. Wheeler died at Forest Grove several years ago. She belonged to the Hillsboro Congregational Church and to Gen. Ransom Relief Corps. She was a native of Michigan. NAVY BOY HOME

Robert Imbrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Imbrie, arrived home Friday night for a ten days vacation. He is looking the finest of the fine, and has a tan that would make a Cherokee blush. He says there are few things better than hospital training at the navy, and he is glad that he is "there."

He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Imbrie, and a cousin of James Imbrie, now at the Naval Training school in the hospital department at San Francisco—he, too, being an only son—of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbrie, of Orenco.

JEFFERSON W. VEDDER

Jefferson W. Vedder, of this city, died Sunday, June 30, 1918, after an extended illness. He was born in Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 7, 1839, and was married to Mary Frances White, at Lancaster, Grant Co., Wisconsin, April 27, 1860. The widow and the following children survive—C. W. Vedder, of Portland; Lee J. Vedder, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Dell Cannon, of Hillsboro, who has made her home with the family.

Mr. Vedder enlisted in 1862 with the 1st Engineers, Missouri, and was in the Army of the West. He was with Sherman on his celebrated march to the sea, and was in both the siege and battle of Corinth, as well as at Vicksburg. He ranked as Fife Major.

He was a member of Gen. Ransom Post, G. A. R., of Hillsboro. Mr. Vedder and wife came to Hillsboro in 1914, and have made this their home since that date.

The funeral took place Tuesday from the Advent Church, on Baseline, and interment was in the local cemetery, Undertaker Limber having charge of the funeral.

NINE MORE GO

Nine Washington County men were entrained here Sunday for limited or special service, their destination being Vancouver Barracks. The contingent was—Geo. Alfred Isaacs, Tualatin; Ernest Franklin Thompson, formerly of Timber; Rant E. Dunsmoor, Orenco; Rey Cecil Jackson, Forest Grove; Walter Gray, Hillsboro; Oscar Ramsey, Cherry Grove; Wm. Edwin Peters, Sherwood; Claude Enoch Barber, Buxton, and Wm. Diedrichs, Laurel Route 1.

Toge Johnson, registered with a Chicago Board, had his transfer for routing out of Hillsboro. He had orders to go out of here June 26, but the notice did not reach him. He happened to read of his call in the Argus, while he was working at Helvetia, and he immediately came here for entrapment, reaching here Sunday. He did not see the publication until last Saturday, hence the delay. Toge is a Swede alien, but he waived that on his questionnaire, and was ready to go, and like King Charles, the Twelfth, who died fighting, was willing to take his chances. He left out Monday morning for Camp Lewis

Wm. VanDyke and son, Julius, of Verboort, were county seat callers Friday.

H. R. Ediger, now working in Portland, was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. R. H. Walker and daughter, Mrs. Olds, were in Hillsboro, Friday morning.

Sol Weckert and son, Granville and P. H. Schmidt and son, Adolph, of near Sherwood, were county seat visitors Friday afternoon.

Chas. Meacham, of the North Plains road, was in town Saturday. He says that the roads have cut up considerably during the prolonged drought.

Jas. Gibson, of Reedville, was in town Saturday. Jas. says that Reedville has all peace and quiet down that way, and that they are patiently awaiting the coming of the state highway.

Ervin Burkhalter, of South Tualatin, was in town Saturday, having just finished haying. He had a freak crop this season—clover and wild oats mixed, and the yield went about 3 tons per acre. He says the combination makes Class One fodder.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Henton, of Shaniko, arrived here last of the week to attend the bedside of Dwight Pomeroy, father of Mrs. Henton. Mr. Henton returned this week, while Mrs. Henton will remain until her father is safely convalescent. Ed. has 1200 acres of wheat land leased to farmers up in the Bako Oven country, and runs a garage at Shaniko. He says that the wheat prospects are spotted up there, being good in some places while very thin in others.

MAYOR'S NOTICE

To The Merchants of the City of Hillsboro:—

I have received a communication from the State Fire Marshal in which it appears he asks the co-operation of the mayors of the cities of the state urging merchants to refrain from selling fireworks during the period of the war.

Therefore, I feel it is incumbent on me to ask the merchants of this city to refuse to sell to anyone during the period of the war any fireworks of any kind or character; I am sure this is in accord with the government desire as well as of the state government.

I realize that the mayor has no legal authority to prohibit the sale of these fireworks, but I know I am within my rights when I call attention to the present condition, and ask the merchants to co-operate with me in this regard.
