Peter Loring is well known here in Hillsboro, where for years he worked at the carpenter trade. Fernsworth, who was inducted into the army from Berkeley, was formerly editor of the Banks Herald, and has had military training, both as a private at the Mexican border in 1916, and at the officers' training camp at San Francisco. Ralph Brown, the last man on the local list, came in and asked to be sent, as he said he was ready to go, and would relieve some man who would be valuable in the harvest or hay field for a few weeks. He was accommodated.

PYTHIAN RESOLUTIONS

Hillsboro, Oregon, July 8, 1918. Mr. O. B. Gates, Hillsboro, Oregon:

Knightly Sir and Brother: We hereby extend to you our sincere condolence and sympathy in the loss of your son on the battle front. Words fail to express our sorrow for the grief that has stricken you and your estimable wife, and we can only add that no nobler end could come to a young man who in the fullness of life offers himself as a sacrifice on the altar of desire to make this world a place of safety and peace.

We realize that lofty phrases seem empty and meaningless at this time, and that expressions of sorrow are but feeble compensation for the loss of a son, yet we feel that the noble purpose that impelled your son, C. Carroll Gates, to join the great police forces of those who love peace and order will in some measure alleviate the pain and suffering caused by the death of him who by the closest ties of blood was more than dear and beloved to you.

If there be anything that we can do to assist, or make your lot more easy, you have but to command us.

Again we remind you that our hearts are with you in this loss that can be appreciated only by a parent, and we ask you to convey to your estimable wife these heartfelt expressions of our deepest sympathy.

L. A. Long,
R. Frank Peters,
W. N. Harris,

Committee appointed July 1, 1918, by Phoenix Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Hillsboro, Oregon.

FAIR MANAGER

A recent meeting of the executive committee of the Washington County Fair Association, matters pertaining to the location of the fair this year were discussed and a selection of manager was made.

Letters from the majority of the directors of the Fair Association were read regarding the location of the fair this year, and all expressed their approval of the action of the executive committee in selecting Forest Grove as the place for holding the fair this year.

R. H. Jonas, of Beaverton, who has had previous experience managing fairs, was selected to manage the fair for this year.

Mr. Jonas successfully managed the Wallowa fair two years ago.

With the election of the manager, the fair association feels that the affairs are rounding into such shape as to make a successful fair this fall.

County Agent.

PATRIOTIC

During the past several days a number of business men have patriotically loaned the use of their automobiles for the transportation of berry pickers to the berry fields in the vicinity of Hillsboro.

The following business men are among the number who lent their assistance: L. T. McPheters, Wm. Harris, Well's Dept. Store, C. E. Wells, J. M. Wall, A. C. Shute, E. L. Donelson and W. O. Donelson.

This aid is very much appreciated by both the berry pickers and the farmers for whom the berries are being picked.

OREGON BAR ASS'N WOULD OUST HALL

East Portland Attorney, Geo. A. Hall, is Under Fire in Portland

IS CHARGED WITH FRAUD

Aged Woman Paid Hall and Associate $20,000--Wanted $50,000

The Oregon Bar Association has voted to disbar Geo. A. Hall, attorney, of East Portland, for alleged complicity in a badger game in which Hall is said to have realized $9,000 as his share of the profits of the unsavory game. Some months ago Wm. Tyler and a Mrs. Henderson were arrested for a misdemeanor at one of Portland's rooming houses. Henderson, the husband of the woman, hired Hall to see that the man, Tyler, was prosecuted. Hall and his associate went to Mrs. Pamela Tyler, aged 83, mother of Tyler, and told her she could settle the case for her son out of court if she paid $50,000. The old lady told the grievance committee that she advised Hall she could not pay this much and he told her, so she says, that Tyler would have to go to the pen. Mrs. Tyler said she finally raised $20,000 and paid the money over to Hall. Hall's associate received some of the money, according to the story, and the Henderson received some, and Hall retained the mealy little sum of $9,000 for his intercession.

The charges of crookedness will go to the Supreme Court, and Hall may be criminally prosecuted.

The case is of interest here because Hall lived in Hillsboro during the late nineties.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

In Memory of C. Carroll Gates

Next Sunday morning, July 14, at 11 o'clock, at Congregational Church, Main and Fifth Streets, the Memorial Service of C. Carroll Gates, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gates, will be held.

It is eminently fitting to honor the memory of this hero who gave his life on the battle field in France in order that this Republic might not perish and that its ideals might not perish from the earth.

Carroll Gates gave his life as a vicarious sacrifice upon the altar of duty, and to do honor to his memory this memorial will be held.

At this memorial service the people of this city are given an opportunity to pay loving tribute to the memory of one of their own number. One who will go down in history as the first Hillsboro soldier who gave himself unreservedly for his country. He carried out to the letter the eternal words: "Greater Love Hath no Man Than This That a Man Laid Down His Life for His Friends." Let Hillsboro honor his memory next Sunday morning.

SECOND MOLE POOL

Owing to the large number of pelts that the boy and girl trappers have accumulated during the past few weeks, another pool of mole pelts will be made during the week of July 15 to 20.

Mole pelts may be mailed or brought to the office of the County Agent, during that time, and the lot will then be sold to the firm offering the best prices.

In the last pool 1760 pelts were disposed of at a fraction of a cent less than 30 cents each, and it is expected that they may be disposed of to a better advantage at this time, as the pelts are in better condition and they are being handled better.

Care must be taken by the shipper to see that the pelts are strung together on a string and tagged with name and address.

From the last sale of pelts, checks are on hand for the following: S. Holbank, Chas. Farmer, Grant Boyd, Joe Gerber and O. Coe. These will be sent out if parties will advise as to their address.

County Agent.

SOLDIER INSURANCE

Secretary McAdoo has called upon all local draft boards to acquaint drafted men with the provisions of the soldier-insurance law and to urge every drafted man to take out this insurance. The boards have been furnished with literature to aid them in this educational work.

The law affording insurance to our fighting forces has well been called the most just and humane provision ever made by a nation for its soldiers and sailors. The Government and the American people recognize the justice of affording this protection to the men who risk their lives for their country, and to their families and dependents at home. It is only just to themselves and to their families and dependents that our fighting men avail themselves of this opportunity.

Every American enlisting should take out this insurance and carry with him into the danger the heartening knowledge that whatever happens, himself and his dependents are protected by his government.

OREGON BOYS FINE

Corporal Wm. Tyacke, known here as a boy, writes to his brother, from France, about the time the big drive was on its crest:

"The boys are in fine spirits and looking for orders to get into the big fight. We are in the heavy artillery now. We have the best equipment and are 'raring to go.' The past ten days some of our boys have been found horribly mutilated, and we have all declared vengeance. 'Komrad' don't go any more. They have been fighting so dirty that can't see why any prisoners are taken. There are lots of Oregon boys here and they are showing themselves as the best type of soldiers.

The French people appreciate our coming and are more than glad to call us comrades, and do all they can to make us feel at home. The winter was great here where we trained, and very little snow. Our stay in England was very short."

For Sale, very cheap—A gasoline tractor with woodsaw attached; will pull two plows; handle other farm implements; good for cutting ensilage and in good condition. Working in shipyard, and must sell.—L. D. Huffaker, Garden Home. 17-19
