Turkey is reported to be about out of the fight, having broken with Germany. This is perhaps one of the little feelers sent out by the Kaiser to see how the world will take it.

The United States will be in the position of the first sea carrier of the world after the war is over, and this for the first time in its history.

So long as men are incarcerated for crime just so long we shall have prison and jail breaks, for the love of liberty is as strong in the animal breast as it is in the human heart.

It is, after all, surprising how many men there are in a single township of the millions of townships who are thoroughly satisfied they could do a better job than Woodrow, and only their modesty prevents them from slapping Wilson on the wrist and taking the work away from him.

With the telegraph going into the hands of Uncle Sam today, and with the railways under Federal control for the duration of the war, the "big fellows" are thinking that the whole darned country has gone to ruin.

Hops are being contracted at 20 cents in the Marion County fields.

Sarah McFarlan Kendall, aged 79, of Tigard, died July 30. She leaves a daughter, Pearl Kendall.

Bert Follett, with the Southern Pacific at Tillamook, in the yard, is here, taking treatment for an affected eye.

Marriage licenses have been granted Eugene Penland, Morrow county, and Beatrice E. Hill; John T. McConnell, Clackamas county, and Ilda M. May.

Gottlieb is possessed of a fine intellect, progressive, just, and as honest and fearless as a man can be. His early promotion is an earnest of his genuine worth.

GEO. HEMMY

George Hemmy, of between Helvetia and Phillips, died this morning. He was born in Canton Graubaden, Switzerland, July 18, 1838, and came to America in March, 1872.

BIG DANCE

To be given on Saturday night, August 10, 1918, by Miss Salmie S. Nichoff, an Eastern Dancing Instructor, and A. J. Palmore, a Portland Instructor.

There will be an exhibition of the latest aesthetic and fancy steps, as well as popular dancing given at 11 o'clock sharp.

There will also be a 10-lb box of candy awarded to the Lucky Number. If there are enough people who wish to take lessons, a dancing class will be started in this same hall—the Moose Hall—on Sept. 1st.

Admission, Gentlemen, $1.00; ladies free, at dance August 10. Portland orchestra.

MORE WAR STUDENTS

Ten selective draft men will start for the Benson Polytechnic School, Portland, for mechanical training, August 15. The number will be selected from the following in their order, they having offered their enlistments:

Walter Vandervelden, Wm. Sohier, Geo. G. Tewes, Wilbur Dillon, Martin J. Jensen, Wm. E. Durig, Emil Tipp, Harry Barnes, Jacob Vandamelson, George Anderson, Frank R. Boese, Edgar Paul Crawford and Fred Wolf.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I take this method of thanking the people of Hillsboro and vicinity for their patronage for the past two and a half years, and wish to state that I have sold my grocery business to Ross McClinton, of Portland, of the Pacific Sales Co. It pleases me to have sold to this company, for they will be able to give the people as square a deal as anyone, and, perhaps, even better prices than I was able to make, because of the immense quantities which he purchases to supply his seven stores.

Again thanking you, and asking all who have credit memorandums to present them for trade, I am, Yours Sincerely, Thad C. Reynolds.

ARGUS IN FRANCE

F. H. Brower, of Prairie, Idaho, writes the Argus: We are dandy. Crops are good here. Stock fine. Our son writes from France and he enjoys the Argus as much as ever. Hope this finds the Argus O. K."

J. D. Bergen and family, J. H. Garrett and family, and Mrs. L. Stockton and daughters are at Rockaway, this week, making the trip in machines.

Mayne B. Hogue, of Portland, sues E. M. Hogue in the local courts. She says they were married in the 90's and have two minor daughters. She avers she has been obliged to work and maintain the home because Hogue that his mission was to take the demon Employer of Labor and put him through a course of sprouts and consequently lost jobs, one after another. He was so pessimistic about reform that he became annoying, but was willing to live with her until a year ago when he left home and allowed the wife to support herself and the two girls. So she is tired of him and wants him freed from a woman who works.

Geo. Meacham, of Meacham Crossing, above Mountaineer, was a caller today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith, of Portland, were Sunday guests of Miss Angie Harrington.

Miss Genevieve Collette is still officiating as chief deputy in the office of County Clerk Kuratli.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rischel, of Portland, former residents of the Gaston section, were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Garthofner, Sunday, and spent the day at the Leveich Lake camp.

C. C. Clinton, of the Benson Hotel, Portland, and Areta Barrett, of Portland, were married July 31, 1918. Mr. Clinton is handling the Intertype machine in the Pacific Northwest.

Thad C. Reynolds has sold his Main St. Grocery to Ross McClinton, of Portland, who has seven stores in and about Portland. Reynolds has been in business in Hillsboro two and a half years, and has made many friends during his stay in the county seat.

Quite a number of Washington County people attended the meeting at the Portland Auditorium, Tuesday night, to hear the war correspondent Will MacRae talk on the Oregon boys at the French front. MacRae was sent to France by the Oregonian, and brought back a message from the boys on the firing line. MacRae is well known to many Hillsboro men who belong to the Portland Press Club, he having been a charter member of that institution.

The rains ended last Saturday, and the Tualatin Valley east of Forest Grove, as far as Beaver-ton, was given but little moisture. Around the fringe of mountains there was a heavy rainfall, and the precipitation did a world of good to late potatoes and vegetables. Here at Hillsboro there was not enough to do any good. The weather turned off mighty warm for Sunday, and has so continued, with rain threatening slightly as the Argus goes to press.

"I would rather have two gold stars in a service flag as a memorial to my two boys than have them branded as felons because of their foolish and unthinking conduct."

It was this appeal, made through blinding tears and with a voice that broke, which won for Mrs. G. Cox, of Gaston, the liberty of her youthful sons, George and Robert, who are under three grand jury indictments for burglary and assault.

The mother appeared yesterday before Chief Deputy District Attorney Collier and made an earnest appeal in their behalf.

The boys are ungainly country youths who essayed the role of highwaymen here recently with poor success. They were arrested their first night out and made a complete confession yesterday to Mr. Collier.

The prosecutor yesterday ordered the boys released on their own recognizance on condition they would enlist.

The younger boy, Robert, was rejected at the Navy recruiting bureau, because of minor foot ailments, but will endeavor to get by the Army examiners this morning. If they succeed in enlisting Mr. Collier will have the indictments against them dismissed.—Oregonian, July 31.
