REGISTRATION DAY SET BY PRESIDENT

All Males Between 18 and 45 45 Must Register for Military THURS., SEPT 12th, IS DATE Much Larger Task Than in June, 1917, is Scheduled

Portland, Ore., Sept. 3.—Every man in the United States and its possessions between the ages of 18 and 20, inclusive, and 31 and 45, inclusive, whether he is a citizen or an alien, must register on Sept. 12 under the new draft law lowering and raising the draft ages from 18 to 45.

The only exceptions are men already in the military and naval service. This includes officers and men of the regular army, navy and marine corps; of the drafted forces; of the National Guard while in the service of the United States; of the Officers' Reserve Corps and enlisted men in the Enlisted Reserve Corps while in the service of the United States; and officers and men in the Naval Reserve Force and the Marine Corps Reserve while in the service of the United States.

All others, without exceptions whatsoever, must register on the day set by the president for Registration Day. Even sickness will be no excuse for failure to register. Nor will absence from home, no matter how necessary, and ignorance of the date set for Registration Day will not be a valid excuse.

The burden of learning when and where to register, and of registering accordingly on Registration Day, is on the individual. Failure to register is punishable by imprisonment up to one year. Moreover, there is no alternative of paying a fine.

Though sickness and absence from home will not be accepted as excuses for failing to register, special arrangements have been made for registering sick persons and absentees by mail.

Any man who is unable to present himself for registration on Registration Day must send some competent person to apply to his local board for a copy of the registration card. The friend will be authorized by a representative of the board, if he considers the case bona fide, to take the card back to the sick person and make it out for him. The card must then be mailed or taken to the local board.

A man who must be absent from his home precinct on Registration Day should go at once to the local board nearest the place where he happens to be and have his registration card made out and certified to.

This registration card will then be given to the man registering, with instructions to mail it without delay to his home local board in time to reach the board by Registration Day. This is very important, for the burden is on the registrant of seeing that his home local board received the card by Registration Day.

He is not registered until his home local board does receive his card. When mailing the card, the registrant should enclose a self-addressed and stamped envelope for the return to him of a registration certificate.

It is important that every registrant have this registration certificate, and that he keep it always on his person. Otherwise, he may be put to very serious inconvenience, including a night in jail, for all police officers are authorized and instructed to arrest men of draft age who cannot produce their registration certificates.

However, failure on the part of any man subject to registration to learn his proper registration place will be no excuse for his failure to register.

Men who will be absent from home on Thursday, September 12, should consult the nearest local board at once for instructions.

Registration will take place between the hours of seven in the morning and nine in the evening. Polling places in the various precincts will be open with registration boards, Beaverton, Gaston, Cornelius, North Plains and Tigard will vote in one precinct polling place only, so that one board will handle these precincts instead of two boards. Hillsboro, Forest Grove, and other precincts will register exactly in the same polling places as in 1917.

J. R. Bailey, of above Tuxton, was down Monday and Tuesday. He says he will have a fine pruned and potato crop this year.

LANDS IN FRANCE

Warren Johnson, a former Washington County patron of the Argus, writes from B- , France, under date of Aug. 11:

"Dear Argus: Am writing to let you know I arrived in France all O. K., but had considerable excitement on the trip. Had a splendid time by meeting other O. A. C. boys aboard the ship that I never dreamed of being in the service. Also met L. A. Wooten, better known as 'Chubby Larry', who attained his fistic record in California and was introduced on the coast by Jim Flynn as the coming heavyweight champion. He weighs 210 and has defeated the best of them. Estimated by naval officers that 20,000 soldiers came across in the convoy I was on. We Oregonians did all we could to show the boys a fine time. Nothing interested the boys and Wooten more than to read an old Argus I happened to have with me. He is interested in helping to win the war so he can get back to his farming. This surrounding country looks favorable to me but can tell you more about it later. Hoping to hear from some of you soon, I remain, your old patron, Sgt. Warren Johnson, Co. E, 126 Remount Sta., A. E. F. via N. Y."

COUNTY FAIR

The Washington County Fair will be the center of the rally for the Fourth Liberty Loan. Not only will there be posters and flags and speakers who have been "over there," but there will be a military band from Vancouver Barracks, a company of Oregon's best trained soldiers and an airplane demonstration. The patriotic women of the county will hold a monster parade. The school children of the county will exhibit the best results of their Industrial Club projects. The food administration will show the concrete results of "Hooverism." Altogether, it will be one of the county's leading gatherings for the winning of the war.

At the same time it is well to remember that Washington is one of the foremost counties in the state in agriculture and dairying and exhibits along these lines will be worthy of the prizes offered and worth going miles to see.

MARTIN C. COLLIER HAS PASSED AWAY

Splendid Character Succumbs to Stroke While on Visit to G. A. R. WAS LIEUT. IN CIVIL WAR Washington County Resident for Forty-two Years

Martin Cass Collier died in this city August 30, 1918, after an illness of a week, the result of a stroke while he was attending the G. A. R. National Reunion in Portland. He was born in Mendon, Mass., Sept. 24, 1831, and went to Illinois when a young man. He crossed the Plains to California in 1851, and went back to Illinois in 1856, and was married to Miss Sarah G. Park, April 18, 1861.

To the union were born four children, Joseph, Jacksonville,

Ill., Elmer George, Decatur, Ill., Edward Walton, all of whom have passed, and John Herman, of this city, with whom Mr. Collier has resided since the death of Mrs. Collier in 1896.

Mr. Collier served three and a half years in the Civil War, in the 101st Volunteer Infantry, Co. D, Illinois. When he left the service he was a First Lieutenant.

Mr. Collier was a Royal Arch Mason, and was a member of Unity Lodge A. F. & A. M., and when he was aged 86 years of age joined the Loyal Legion, a patriotic order, at Portland.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the Methodist Church, Rev. Walton Skipworth conducting the services. The funeral was in charge of Undertaker Limber. Many members of the G. A. R. and Relief Corps were in attendance, he being a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Mr. Collier was a gentleman of the old school. He had no enemies after a period of 42 years at Scholls and in Hillsboro, and this is a fine record for citizenship. He was well informed, and kept abreast of the times. He had a remarkable memory and always kept in touch with National legislation and world affairs. He was an advocate of the recent draft law, passed the other day, a year back, and held that it would eventually be the draft law. Collier was quiet in demeanor, kindly in thought, just at heart, and while having decided opinions, and being free to express them, did so in a way that was never offensive to those opposing him.

Up to within the week he was stricken he had always been in fine health, and the sudden termination of his life was a matter of great regret to a large circle of friends, for in all his years here he had never wantonly injured the feelings of a fellow-being, and the tribute given him in prayer Sunday, by his life-long friend, Rev. C. E. Cline, of Portland, was one of the touching incidents of the obsequies.

Interment was in the Masonic Cemetery, and the Masons had charge of the services of the grave.
