

OREGON ELECTRIC CUTS EIGHT TRAINS DAILY

Latest Out of Portland Reaches Hillsboro at 7:13 P. M.

FIVE TRAINS EACH WAY

Last Train to Portland Leaves Here at 8:47 in Evening

As a result of the Oregon Electric Railway Hillsboro loses eight more trains daily—four to Portland and four from Portland. The late evening train out of the Rose City and the latest train into the metropolis are taken off, and the latest you can now go into town on that line is at 8:47, and your last chance in the evening to arrive at Hillsboro is at 7:13.

Agent Gilby gives out the following schedule, which took effect Tuesday morning:

To Portland—
Shipyard train, morning	6:25
Second local, A. M.	7:12
Last forenoon local	9:27
First afternoon local	3:17
Last train	8:47
From Portland—
First train, A. M.	8:48
Afternoon service	2:12
Shipyard train	5:03
Local	6:12
Last train	7:13

With the four each way taken off the Southern Pacific the City of Hillsboro has now lost sixteen trains, eight each way.

MISS GLADYS WANN

Miss Gladys Wann, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wann, of Wheeler, died at Wheeler, at the family home, Sunday morning, Sept. 29, 1918, at 5:20, after an illness of several weeks. She was born in Hillsboro, August 27, 1901, and spent her early childhood here. A few years ago the family moved to Wheeler, Mrs. Wann and the children returning here last winter, the daughter attending the 1917-1918 year of school. She leaves to mourn her loss her parents, a brother, Geo., and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wann, of this city, and grandmother, Mrs. Mullin, of Washington St., this city.

The funeral took place here Wednesday, and interment was in the local cemetery.

The parents have the sympathy of a large circle of Hillsboro friends.

Remains of Austin Buxton Laid Away at Forest Grove Sunday

ACQUAINTED OVER STATE

Served in Public Positions Many Years, State and Grange

Austin Todd Buxton, well known at Forest Grove, and all over Washington County, died at the farm of his father-in-law, Oliver Robbins, Mollala, Sept. 27, 1918.

He was born on the Henry Buxton Donation Land Claim, northwest of Forest Grove, March 21, 1872, and resided there until in 1917, when he moved with his family to a farm near Mollala. His health failed him and he went to the home of Mr. Robbins some weeks prior to his death.

Buxton was a graduate of Tualatin Academy and Oregon Agricultural College. He married Miss Orla Robbins, October 16, 1895. He is survived by Mrs. Buxton and two sons: H. Oliver Buxton, electrician third-class Radio operator, U. S. N., and Maurice W., a student in the Mollala High School. Of his immediate family he leaves five brothers and a sister—Edward, Corvallis; Henry T., James T., and Jacob S., of Forest Grove, and William T., of Walla Walla; and Mrs. Carrie Harrison, of Forest Grove.

Mr. Buxton was prominent in Oregon affairs, and served as Lecturer for the State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, four years, and toured the state, and was Master of the State Grange as well. He was for a term one of the Board of Regents of O. A. C., and also served on the Compensation Commission. He was made a member of the State Board of Forestry and was appointed to the Consolidation Commission by Governor Withycombe, resigning last Spring on account of his health.

He was widely read, a good practical talker, and was a past master of agricultural and livestock pursuits. He was a good friend, a splendid citizen, and had the esteem of a circle of friends state-wide.

The funeral services were held at the home of Jacob S. Buxton, Sept. 29, and interment was in the family plot in Mountain View Cemetery.

Adam Hergert, of Blooming, was in the city Saturday.

Fred Lisco, of south of the river, was in the city Friday.

L. I. Lawrence, of Witch Hazel, was a city visitor Friday.

Will C. Jackson, of North Plains, was a caller Saturday.

John Boge and wife, of Farmington, were city visitors Monday morning.

A. L. Holcomb and wife, of beyond Oreco, were city callers Saturday.

Dave LeBeau, of near Scholls, was up Saturday, accompanying Frank Rowell to the county seat.

John Dorland and John Kassebaum, of Shady Brook, were Friday visitors at the Salem State Fair.

Otis H. Marrs, formerly of Scholls, now of Portland, was out Monday, greeting his oldtime friends.

Claude Irving Davis and Edna E. Logan were united in marriage Sept. 30, 1918, Judge D. B. Reardon officiating.

Perry Gardner, of Quatama, was in the city the last of the week, laying in a shell or two for the China birds.

Max Behling, who bought the Geo. R. Bagley farm a few months ago, was in from near Shefflin the last of the week.

Ford touring car for sale; 1915 model; in goodshape; new tires; full set of tools; chains; Also Estey organ. C. F. Koehler, Oreco, Ore. 31

L. S. McConnell, one of Sherwood's prominent business men for a generation or more, was a city caller Monday, on probate business.

E. I. Kuratli has his office in the Hillsboro National Bank Bldg. Real estate, loans, insurance of autos, etc. Conveyances. Notary public. 11

Wm. Schmidt and son, of near West Union, were in the city Friday. They have bought a Cleveland tractor to take care of their 200 acres of farming.

W. H. Smith, of the S. P. & S. Freight Offices, in Portland, was out Friday, on business connected with his Washington county property near Cedar Mill.

J. H. Dooley, of Banks, came down Monday, enroute to Forest Grove, J. H. and brothers have leased the old farm and will lay off the agricultural stunt for awhile.

Increase your production per man and save money thro less hiring by using the Moline Universal Tractor. See John Wunderlich, Hillsboro, one door south of Telephone Central, or at his Banks office. 25-1f

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Yungen (Mrs. Yungen was formerly Miss Emma Schmidt) motored down from Independence Saturday, and while here visited with the Yungens, of Helvetia, and also the Schmidts, of Laurel.

Owing to the big passenger traffic Saturday evenings the S. P. will continue its Train No. 105 out of Forest Grove on to McMinnville, leaving the Grove at 7:45, and leaving McMinnville on its return trip at 8:45.

Charles King, of near Cedar Mill, was up to the county seat Monday, and called on the Argus. Mr. King says this is the driest season he has seen for many a year and he has been in the Beaverton country for about 56 years.

H. M. Basford, of near Farmington, was a city caller Monday. H. M. evidently thinks that the climate down here has been mixed up with the Grant County brand, from the evidence of drought we have had this season.

For Sale—Having bought a tractor, we will sell four horses. Take your pick out of ten head; good work animals, 3 to 11 years old.—Wm. Schmidt, Hillsboro, R. 1, 2 miles north of Oreco, near West Union school house. Phone 30R6. 30-2

W. E. Shaver, of between Tualatin and Tualatin, was an Argus caller Friday afternoon. W. E. was born down in that section 60 years ago, and now lives within a mile and a half of his birthplace. He has seen that section emerge from a wilderness to a nest of suburban homes.

Dwight Pomeroy and wife were in from near Leisville, Saturday. Dwight says he has had more fires playing around him than a young purgatory for some weeks. In August a blaze started that ran over a lot of his timber, and the other day a blaze started in the Bailey tract, burning up a lot of wood and 120 rods of fence for him.

NEW ORDER MADE BY DEFENSE COUNCIL

Sunday is to be Closed Day With Exception of Drug Stores

COUNCIL DEFENSE RULES

Saturday Night is Sole Exception—Much Complaint Made

According to a ruling of the State Council of Defense, Oregon is to have her stores all closed after six o'clock on week days, and Sundays as well. This means the confection shops, ice cream parlors and cigar stands, as well, and many think the order is drastic in a state where the fuel situation is not at all depleted, and the coal situation is not on a par with Eastern sections.

Small business houses, such as ice cream parlors, cigar stands, tobacconists, etc., are complaining over the ruling, alleging that no necessity existed in this part of the world. The resolution by the State Council follows:

"Resolved, That on and after October 1, 1918, all sales of merchandise at any point within the State of Oregon, on the first day of the week, commonly known as Sunday, at any time after 9 P. M. on Saturday, and at any time after 6 P. M. on any other day of the week should be discontinued during the continuance of the war; provided, that such sales may be made at any drugstore until 8 P. M. of any day of the week except Sunday, and that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply in the case of drugstores in the filling of prescriptions, sale of medicines or sickroom necessities, any or all of which may be sold on any day at any hour; provided, further, that the selling of meals or articles of food in restaurants, hotels, etc., shall not be affected by this resolution."
