Peace may be on the boards any hour. Turkey is practically out of the game. Austria is about to surrender, and this leaves us with lone Germany as a fighting opposition. Germany can not long stand the gall, and her appeal for an armistice is nothing else, and it cannot be construed as anything else, than a cry of distress, no matter what the war-lords may wish or demand. The entry of this country into the big war was a stroke that has brought disaster to German arms. And as Mr. Dooley, of Chicago, would say, "An' there you are." And, incidentally, as Dooley, of Banks, has said all the time, "There's but one ending."

Two million men in France; American supremacy of the air in their sector, thus relieving the allied airmen; carriage of food and munitions to the then defeated Allies—all inside of eighteen months of warfare—and several thousand miles removed—means a wonderful achievement for American arms and administration. It is no small wonder, is it, that President Wilson asks that a united Congress be placed behind him.

The fact that there is but one legislative ticket in the county speaks well. All of the candidates on the Republican ticket, if the truth be known, also received the democratic nominations, and legislation should not suffer at their hands. Messrs. Hare and Haines have had legislative experience and Mr. Graham has the poise to assist them in every possible way.

When a man tells you he is backing up the president in this war by trying to make the public believe that Wilson has blundered along all possible lines—just smile. Mr. Wilson will emerge from the great world-conflict with a reputation for statesmanship second to none.

Those printing measures on the ballot—The state penalizes the delinquent taxpayer away beyond any cost of publication, if the tax amounts to anything at all. All delinquents now receive written notices before publishing. Vote No on all the Jackson measures.

John Reichen, of near West Union, was a city caller Tuesday afternoon.

Wm. Roberts, of the Nehalem, was in town yesterday, en route to Portland.

J. White, of near the Cornelius Pass country, was in the city yesterday, getting out sale bills.

The China pheasant open season ends today—and that morning chicken is a thing of the past.

Lou Meyers, of Chehalis Mt., was a city caller the first of the week. He says the hill road is good traveling, anyway.

Wanted, a bargain—good used piano for cash.—G. A. Olsen, Baseline St., between Second and Third, south side of street.

Wm. H. Weincke, of the Minter Bridge, was in town Tuesday. Will know how to make a small place support a bank-book.

Notice H. H. S. M. T. C.—All members are requested to call at Boscow's Clothing Store at once to be measured for uniforms.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boeker spent the week end at Cedar Canyon, the guests of Mrs. Boeker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Strohmayer.

R. H. Kaitz, of Albany, will be here in a few days to tune pianos. Write your requests for tuning, seal them in envelope and address him care of Argus, and he will call.

Wm. Harms, of Mountaineer, sustained a fall of 15 feet the other day, while elevating some baled hay. His spine is badly injured. Dr. E. A. Bailey is treating the injury.

Neville Bagley, son of Judge Geo. R. Bagley and wife, fell through a haymow at the Gales Creek ranch last night, while feeding stock, and fractured both bones in the right forearm. Dr. F. A. Bailey reduced the breaks and the young man will take the balance of his school vacation in enforced rest.

"Of Vital Military Value" Says the... Commander-in-Chief

THE President has expressed what is in every American heart. As a nation we are united in the winning of this war. As a nation we stand behind our fighters eager and prepared to do for them whatever will hasten victory and make the fighter's task a little lighter.

As individuals there is little we can do. As a nation we can work wonders through the seven organizations authorized and recognized by the Government.

They come to you not as Catholics, nor as Jews nor as Protestants, not as the representatives of any creed or enterprise, but as Americans to ask that you join in this great united undertaking for God, and country and our fighters.

The President has voiced his belief that this spirit of unity will be "crowned with abundant success."

He believes it because he knows this campaign is "of vital military value" and he knows that you will leave nothing undone to win this war.

It rests with you. Think of this campaign as your sole responsibility. What you give will mean its success. You cannot leave this undertaking to others. It is YOUR campaign. In France, Americans are fighting this war as if the result depended on the way each individual fights. At home, this campaign rests with you. What will you give—decide to night—and make your share the biggest thing you ever did!

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

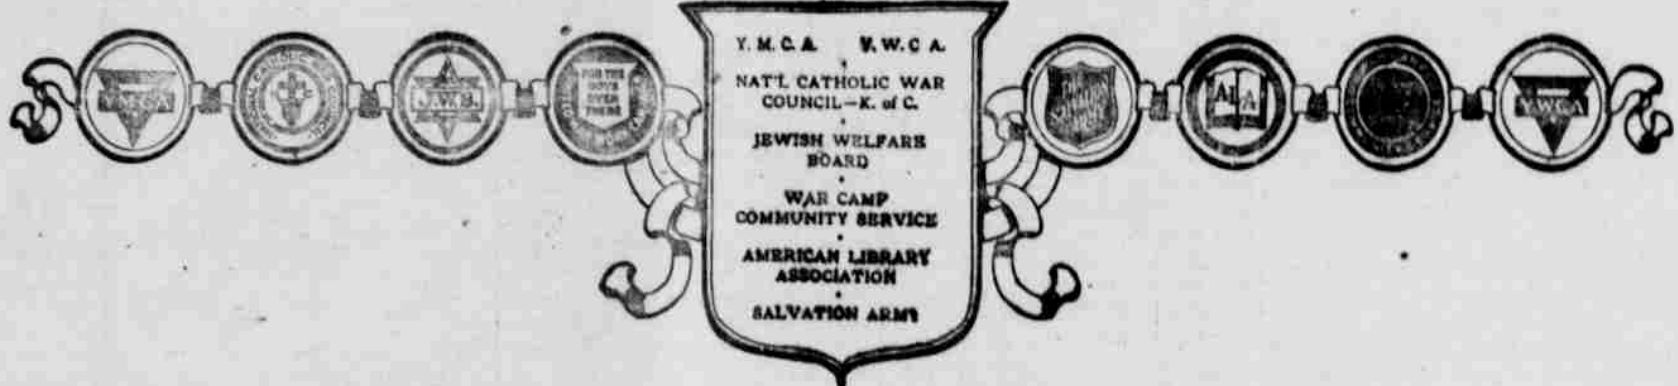

The need is for a sum 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $17,500,000. By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved. Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their

3600 Recreation Buildings
1000 Miles of Movie Film
100 Leading Stage Stars
2000 Athletic Directors

2500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
85 Hostess Houses
15,000 Big-brother "secretaries"
Millions of dollars of home comforts.

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul! You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs. Now give to maintain the morale that is winning the war!

CHARLES THOS. CONKLIN

Charles Thomas Conklin, aged about 58 years, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Portland, October 29, 1918. He was born north of Hillsboro, and spent his early life here. He was a carpenter by trade. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman Conklin, and one son, Clarence Conklin, well known here, now a fireman on the S. P. lines out of Roseburg. Two children died in infancy.

The funeral took place today. Undertaker Donelson in charge. The services were conducted by Rev. B. F. Clay at the Scotch Presbyterian Church, on Tualatin Plains, and interment was in the church cemetery plot.

CHAS. CRAVEN PERISHES

Charles A. Craven, of Sherwood, was aboard the ill-fated Steamer Princess Sophia, which foundered in a storm in the Alaska inside channel, last week. His name was not on the passenger list and at first his relatives hoped he had not shipped. The body, however, was recovered. Craven was working on a steamboat in Northern waters, and was coming to Oregon for the winter. This, so far as known, is the only Washington County passenger on the boat, but there are several from here who have been in Alaska all summer, and were due for a return, and there is anxiety over it.

RED CROSS NOTES

The cartons for the Christmas parcels have arrived and are at Red Cross headquarters. Every holder of a label from over seas should present it and receive a carton, which must be returned, when filled, for inspection. There will be instructions given with each carton, which you are asked to read carefully and follow, so that no mistakes may arise.

Beginning next Monday, the Red Cross rooms will be open for those holding labels—hours, 9 to 12 a. m., and 1 to 5 p. m. The committee in charge of these parcels is: Mesdames Rollins, Crandall, Moore, Vaughn, Payne, Erwin, Nelson, Mahon, Morgan; and Fred Holznaple, of the Post Office.

W. S. Tilton shipped 11-sacks of peach and plum pits for government use this week.

INSTITUTE POSTPONED

On account of the ban on public meetings, the Teachers' Institute has been indefinitely postponed. N. A. Frost, County Superintendent.

Mrs. Ed. Moore went to Albany this week, called there by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Montgomery.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks for the many acts of kindness and sympathy during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of our beloved son, Herman Pfahl, who died while in the service of our country, and we return especial thanks for the kindness of the Iowa Hill Band, of which he was a member during his life; for the courtesies of the Knights of Pythias of Cornelius, and the city officials of the city of Cornelius, and for the beautiful floral pieces, expressions of the esteem in which our soldier son was held; and for the many expressions of sympathy given us in our sad hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pfahl and Family.
Cornelius, Ore., Route 2.

COMPLIMENT DINNER

Miss Ruth Jones last evening gave a dinner complimenting Dr. E. T. Helms and wife, and Mrs. Helms' mother, Mrs. S. A. Hawkins, who is visiting here from Missouri. Mrs. Hawkins will spend the winter here. Miss Ware and Mrs. Minerva Brown were invited guests also, and the house was beautifully decorated with Halloween suggestions, and a splendid time was enjoyed by all.

FLU ANTI-TOXIN

Dr. Elmer H. Smith and Dr. R. M. Erwin have been quite busy the past week vaccinating for the Spanish Flu. The "shot-in-the-arm" develops quite a little fever in a day or so, and some of the arms get a trifle sore. The serum appears to be doing good work, however, wherever it is used, as the toxin patient rarely has any trouble from the malady.

Try the Argus, $1.50 per year.

Mrs. L. T. McPheeters returned yesterday from California, being called there last week by the death of a relative.

Owing to the quarantine on Flu, the Donelson Furniture sale, mention of which was made last week, has been postponed for the time being.

T. C. Bailey, of the U. S. Naval Reserve, came down from the upper country a few days ago. He is looking for his call and departure and day.

Tom Ireland, born and raised in this city, is home on leave from the U. S. Transport service, and recently came across the continent from New York. While in a French port he had dinner with Edmund Nichodemus, Glen Powers and Fred Deiner, the latter now being a gunner on a merchant ship. Tom also had Nichodemus and Powers aboard ship to dinner, and the Hillsboro trio had a real celebration. He remains here a week, visiting his brother Hallie and friends, and then goes again to the European waters.
