

TWENTY-SIX OUT OF THIRTY VOTE

Special Road Taxes at Meetings Held in County Last Week

OVER $80,000 WAS VOTED

Nine Vote Ten Mills Levy, and Many Five and More

The special road district meetings held last week resulted in twenty-six voting special taxes for permanent road work, and four rejecting the levy. Those rejecting were District No. 14; District No. 16; District No. 22, and District No. 57.

The new levies will mean approximately raising $83,500, or as much as voted last season. The levy as passed last week, computed on the 1917 assessment would raise $77,176.79, but as the valuation is some higher this year, it will mean that the total for special work will go practically as high as in 1917, collected for expenditure in 1918.

The list of levies, districts and millage, follows:

HE LEFT HERE LAST JUNE

Was at Camps Lewis, Kearney and Mills, Before Crossing

The Argonne Forest in France, which has cost so many lives, added another Washington County boy to the death list when John Vanderzanden, of Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vanderzanden, was killed in action, October 10. Private Vanderzanden left Hillsboro, June 26, and enlisted for Camp Lewis. From Camp Lewis he was transferred to Camp Kearney, and from there he was sent to Camp Mills in August, arriving there Aug. 9. He went across a few days later, and was brigaded with the 159th Infantry when he met his death.

He was born in Verboort, or old Centerville, Aug. 12, 1895, and had spent his life in that section of the county. He was a member of the Catholic Foresters Court at Verboort, and the first death to that order from Washington County.

Besides his parents, he is survived by the following brothers and sisters—

Mary, Celia, George, Francis and Julius, all at home.

The fallen soldier had a large circle of friends in North Washington County, and all deeply sympathize with the family in their loss.

Mrs. Martha McGahey has sued Arthur McGahey for divorce, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. She alleges they were married at Vancouver, Wn., in February, 1915, and have a child 30 months old. She wants $100 to pay her attorney; $50 for support during the pendency of the suit; and asks for $50 monthly alimony after the decree is given her. She says that Arthur is making his $5.25 per day, and can well afford to pay the stipend. The McGaheys have had trouble for some time. The wife has children by a former husband. The husband is an industrious chap, and is always pegging away at his work.

SCHOOL NOTES

Most of the schools of Washington County have resumed their regular work, after from one to six weeks enforced vacation on account of influenza.

A large per cent of the schools have organized the Junior Red Cross, or will do so as soon as they are in regular session again. The Junior Red Cross offers an opportunity for children to have an active part in this greatest of all humanitarian organizations by paying a membership fee of 25c. The money is needed and some really valuable work can be done. The call for relief work will be greater during the next year than ever before, not so much perhaps for the soldiers, but far more for the civilians.

The Victory Boys and the Victory Girls have made a fine contribution to the United War Work. The total amount reported is $917.85. Several districts have not reported yet.

The first local teachers' institute of the year will be held at the High School Building in Hillsboro, Saturday, December 7. Teachers who attend this meeting throughout the entire session and one full day at the state Teachers' Association in Portland, December 27 or 28 will be given full credit for institute attendance, and their districts will be allowed the $5.00 allowed by law for institute attendance.

The following is the program for the December meeting:

The Library books have arrived and we hope to have them ready for delivery by Dec. 14.

RED CROSS

Every adult citizen in Oregon is to be asked to join the Red Cross or to renew his or her membership during the Christmas Roll Call, which will be held the week before Christmas, Dec. 16-23.

Membership in the Red Cross costs $1 a year.

There will be no receipts given this year, the proof of membership being the signing of the Red Cross Roll and the wearing of a 1919 button.

Red Cross leaders wish every wearer of a Red Cross 1919 button to ask every non-wearer—"Where's your button?"

There are over 248,000 Red Cross members in Oregon. Everyone, it is expected, will renew membership, while it is hoped to add 100,000 new members.

The committee will soon visit you. Take a membership.

Sam Weil is Hillsboro's chairman.

ROSSOW-HOYT

Miss Margaret Hoyt, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurel M. Hoyt, of this city, and Sergeant A. W. Rossow, of Vancouver Barracks, Wn., were united in marriage at Portland, Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28, 1918. Rev. Brinkman officiating. The bride is well known here where she has always been prominent in church work and the young people's organizations. The groom's home is at Port Huron, Michigan, and as soon as he receives his discharge from the Army will return to that place with his bride for residence.

SOME PRUNE YIELD

B. Leis, of Beaverton, proprietor of the Aetna Orchards, harvested 18,353 lbs. of dried prunes from his orchard of 2 1/2 acres, this year, and sold them the other day at the top of the market. It is doubtful if any one in this belt can beat this production on the same acreage. Mr. Leis brought up several fine apples, the result of careful horticulture, and Hood River never put anything out to beat them. They are on exhibition in the Argus window, and worth while taking a squint at.

AS WE GO TO PRESS

As we go to press Food Administrator Chas. E. Wells telephones that the government for the present has removed all restrictions on the purchase of sugar. This does away with the 4 lbs. per person provision.

A. CO., MILITIA, HAS INSPECTION

Capt. Hall, of Portland, Gives Company Much Credit

WIND-UP IS BIG SMOKER

Company Dance to Be Held This Saturday Evening—All Must Go

Company A, Oregon State Militia, of this city, held inspection last evening on the court house square, and Capt. A. A. Hall, of Portland, was the inspecting officer. The boys were in fine fettle and showed the result of weeks of careful drilling. After inspection the company repaired to the old Wiley hall, where Capt. Hall addressed them. He told the company they were to be congratulated upon their efficiency in drill, and that he was surprised to see the proficient manner in which the militiamen performed their maneuvers.

Capt. Hall's remarks were appreciated by the officers and men. After the address the boys converted the meeting into one of the successful smokers of the year. There were refreshments plenty. J. Peppard and R. Sutherland gave a fine exhibition in wrestling in the lightweights, the latter getting two out of the three falls. Marvin Robinson and Starkey, in the heavy class, gave the spectators their time's worth in some classy grappling; Jack Gottlieb and Sam Steinke, with six ounce gloves, held the boards for a good go, and Wm. Zeigler and Wes Schulmerich ended the evening with a bout that was full of "pop."

Two Alaskans gave the company a story of Alaska life, and the story was pulled off without Hal Taylor losing his beard.

Try the Argus, $1.50 per year.
