SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 3.—The United States Civil Service Commission is perfecting arrangements whereby men who are about to be discharged from the Army or Navy may receive first-hand information concerning opportunities for employment in the Federal civil service. The Commission has received authority from the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy to appoint its representatives at all establishments where enlisted men are assembled in considerable numbers. These representatives are now being appointed. They will be prepared to inform the men fully concerning positions which are open, to supply them with application blanks, to assist them, if necessary, with the execution of their applications and to advise them relative to civil-service matters generally. It is the plan of the Civil Service Commission to entrust this work to educational directors of welfare organizations already operating at the camps, cantonments, etc. The representatives of the Commission who are appointed from the personnel of these welfare organizations will have the benefit of the advice and assistance of the Commission's local boards of examiners at nearby cities, in addition to the instructions received from the Commission.

EVANGELIST LINDEN

On the evening of Feb. 19 there is to be introduced to Hillsboro people, one of the most able Evangelists that is to be found anywhere in the United States, in the person of Rev. John M. Linden, who has been first assistant to Billy Sunday, and who has had a remarkable career as an Evangelist.

The Hillsboro Baptist Church is bringing him here that he might benefit the entire community, and there is extended to all the citizens of Hillsboro an urgent invitation to make this meeting theirs, and to profit by it.

Mr. Linden as an Evangelist is in a class by himself, and there is no question about him being the most widely known and most able Evangelist ever brought to this county, and the people are bound to benefit by his presence.

The Baptist Church feels that they are obligated to the community as a whole, and save obtained him to help not alone their church but all people. Come, therefore, and you will be welcome.

R. Pubols, of West Union, was transacting business in town the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peters, of above North Plains, were city visitors Saturday morning.

S. E. Graf, of Bethany, Alfred Guerber, of Helvetia, and Wm. Haase, of South Tualatin, were in the city Saturday, meeting for the Fire Ins. Association.

Hatching Eggs for Sale—S. C. R. I. Red; good ones; fine large birds; good color; none better; good layers. Come and see them. Per setting of 15, $2.00; $9 per 100.—D. A. Mitchell, Oreno, Ore.

DID HE SEE IT?

Did the groundhog see his shadow? Not so far as Hilltown is concerned, but in some parts of the county they say the sun shone early in the morning. Frank Imbrie, of Oreno, says he saw the sun at milking time and it will be a late Spring. The Argus doesn't doubt but what Frank thinks he saw old Sol, but it is possible that in going out in the early dawn he struck his head against the rear kitchen door and saw several stars, mistaking them for the sun. In Portland the weather man says "no shadder," and here in Hillsboro the groundhog might have wandered all day and he wouldn't have seen his shadow. So it will be a compromise with the weather bureau and Imbrie—the Spring will be neither early nor late, but "just right." Representative Hare, the traditional early riser, says no sun peaked out Sunday morning.

For Sale—Nice, four-room cottage; good condition, not far out; close to station on car line; $1200, price; small payment down, and will let buyer pay $15 monthly, with interest. Address sealed envelope, "Owner, Box 8, Argus. Don't phone." 47-9
