

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

VOL. XXVI

HILLSBORO, OREGON, MARCH 20, 1919

NO. 2

HILLSBORO BOY NOW A LIEUT. COLONEL

Fred Llewellyn, Born in This City, Placed on Pershing's Staff

A SON OF COUNTY CLERK
Father was County Clerk Here From 1878 to 1882

Fred Llewellyn, former Major of the Washington National Guard, ranking as Major when the troops from the state were sent to France, has been made a Lieutenant-Colonel, and is now on the staff of General John Pershing, with the armies of occupation, in Germany. Lieut.-Colonel Llewellyn spent his boyhood in this city, and was born on the block now owned by DeWitt Smith, on Second, between Baseline and Washington. His mother's maiden name was Marion McLeod, and she has been a resident of Seattle for many years.

The Lieut.-Colonel was in command of the Washington troops at the Mexican border, and when war broke the Washington contingent was one of the first to get across to France.

The officer showed much merit and was constantly advanced. His recognition by the War Department is a matter of pride to his Hillsboro friends, many of whom remember him as a boy in school.

He was placed in command of the 161st Infantry upon reaching France. Both his father and his grandfather were county clerks of this county, his father succeeding his grandfather.

The late J. W. Morgan was deputy clerk for A. W. Llewellyn, father of the officer.

Mrs. Llewellyn, the mother, still resides in Seattle, and visited this city two years ago, in company with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spangler.

MRS. CHRISTIAN REIBEN

Mrs. Christian Reiben, of Roy, died at the family home Sunday, March 16, 1919. Her maiden name was Maria L. Tolke, and she was born in Germany, Jan. 30, 1850. She came to the United States in 1873, landing in New York. She was married to Mr. Reiben in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1877, and came to Oregon in 1880. She is survived by the husband and the following children:

Mrs. Marie Schilts, of Tillamook; Mrs. Elizabeth Tanner, of Riverside, Wash.; Christian Reiben Jr.; Mrs. Jans, Robb, of Roy; Geo. Reiben, Professor in the University of California; Edward and Otto Ernest, at home.

A brother, Wm. Tolke, resides above Banks.

The funeral took place Wednesday, from the home and interment was at the Banks cemetery.

SAVE MONEY

As my time is taken up with the sale of Moline Universal Tractors, I will sell my horse-drawn farm machinery at a sacrifice. This stock was bought before the raise and I will save you money—drills, harrows, disc harrows, manure spreaders, plows, etc. You can save real money by buying from me.

John Wunderlich,
Banks, Ore.

Mrs. Mary Trachsel, aged 73 years and 9 months, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Losh, at Beaverton, March 16. She was the mother of Rose, Margaret and Jacob Trachsel, of Portland; Mrs. Ulrich Zenger, of Lents; Mrs. Rudolph Stadeli and Mrs. Herman Utech, Silverton; Mrs. Fred Losh and Mrs. Jacob Losh, of Beaverton.

Thirty years ago today the only brick building in Hillsboro was the late Henry Webring's milk house; a team loaded with wheat from the Hawthorne ranch was stuck down in front of the Mrs. J. W. Sewell place, then owned by J. L. Barnard; "Pard" was running the engine for J. J. Morgan, down at the "old depot." The late Mike Moore was farming on Jackson Lake; Chas. Bloom and the Argus reporter were working for Joe Hare, over in South Tualatin, on the W. D. Hare ranch; Senator S. B. Huston, Thos. E. Handley and the late Kenyon Crandall had a seance in Bill Clow's shop; George Ledford shaved Nate Mead; Dr. F. A. Bailey predicted a little rain; W. D. Hare, running the Pittenger Store for the sureties, had a big day's trade. A chap by the name of Lynch talked at the court house, and wanted to put in a water and light plant; Ben Cornelius, Sheriff, went out to old Glencoe to serve papers. Judge Crandall remarked that the gigantic sequoia in front of the court house were growing "like sixty."

HUNDREDS OF VOTERS TO GET MAILING CARD

Must Reply or Registrar is to Cancelled Forthwith

STATUTE REQUIRES THIS
Clerk Kuratli Sending Out Between Five and Six Thousand

County Clerk Kuratli has a man's size job on his hands these days, as under the law he is required to send out five or six thousand notices to voters in the county whose names have not been checked as having voted at the last primary and general election. The clerk will send each voter a card and he must send back his signed statement or else his name is stricken from the registration books. In many cases the clerks failed to indicate that the voter had "voted," but this makes no difference under the law. So, should you receive this word from the county clerk, just sign the request to stay on the register of Electors. The card sent out reads:

"It appearing from the poll books that you have not voted in Precinct _____ at any election held throughout this county during the year _____ you are hereby notified that pursuant to law your registration will be cancelled unless this card is returned within 10 days from the date hereof.

Dated _____ 191_____
H. A. Kuratli,
County Clerk."

I hereby certify that I still reside in the above precinct and that my present postoffice address is as it appears above hereof, and request that my name remain on the Register of Electors.

Signature of Elector.
Note—If you have changed your address, it will be necessary to call at this office and re-register. Books are now open."

JUNE ELECTION

There may be ten or twelve referendum measures on the ballot at the special election in June as follows:

To create Malheur Lake and marshes a bird reserve, and stop using its waters for irrigation purposes.

To establish industrial and reconstruction hospital without requiring ratification vote by the people.

To authorize $2,500,000 bonds for construction of Roosevelt highway along the coast, with aid of federal government.

To bond state for $5,000,000 for reconstruction program, including settlement and reclamation projects.

To levy two-tenths of a mill tax for aiding soldiers and sailors to get an education, not to exceed $200 a year for four years per man.

To levy one mill state tax for county market roads, to be apportioned among such counties as are entitled to a share thereof.

For bond issue of $5,000,000 for hospitals, armories, educational and charitable buildings to be erected in different parts of the state.

State guaranty of interest for five years on irrigation and drainage districts, same to be returned to state from land improved.

To raise indebtedness limitation of counties from two per cent to six per cent of the assessed valuation.

To give Board of Control power to sell reconstruction and other bonds if voted.
