

CHEVROLET MOTOR CAR FACTORY, OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA

Where the Chevrolet 490 Models are manufactured from materials pressed into form from the raw state. Also the Chevrolet One-Ton Worm Drive Truck is manufactured at this institution. Plans have been drawn for building additional factory space for assembling the G. M. C. Trucks. This is the largest automobile factory on the Pacific Coast. Why not patronize home industry?

The vast Chevrolet factories consist of many buildings and millions of dollars in machinery and equipment. And they have more millions invested in material. They possess and use everything necessary for production of a quality car at a popular price.

The "Baby Grand" Touring Car is an achievement made possible by these unlimited facilities. It sets a new standard in mechanical efficiency and body beauty.

It represents a value that only such facilities can make possible. Let us demonstrate this car for you.

And still Oregon was an inch short on rainfall Tuesday morning. Oregonians have a hunch that the basin watched by the weather man at Portland "sloped over" during some of the night storms.
Hugh Farnham, Co. B, 318th Engineers, cables his mother, Mrs. C. D. Farnham, that he sailed from Marseilles, France, on March 9. Hugh has been in the hospital at Nevers, France, since Nov. 11. He was in the Alsace drive for 45 days prior to the armistice. He sailed on the Transport Yencian.
The recent legislature raised the salary of R. B. Goodin, secretary of the Board of Control, from $2400 to $3000 per year. R. B. is a faithful officer and is well worth the money. He first started his clerical work in this county, having kept books for the late Col. T. Cornelius, when he kept a store at Cornelius, and was engaged in merchandising, farming and sawmilling. Mr. Goodin also served two terms as county clerk.
A Washington County resident, taking an assumed name, recently went to I. W. W. headquarters in Portland just to get a line on what the chaps were doing. He got it, but was taken before County Judge Tazwell on an insanity charge. When he told the court what he was doing the intruder was committed on the grounds that a man who would take such chances should go up to the state hospital for a vacation—and he got the vacation. The W. C. man says when he visits an I. W. W. bunch again he won't. The joke is the more apparent because the man was an ardent I. L. L. man and is sore at the Wobblies.

Louis Sagert, of Tualatin, was up to the county seat Monday, paying taxes and greeting his friends.
A. E. Dickason and family have moved to Hillsboro from beyond North Plains, and are residing on Maple St.

Snow whitened the hills north of the Grove and along Gales Creek Saturday morning, and a little fell here, but the flakes made no color down in the valley.
A Clackamas man has seen a white robin. That's nothing—a Washington County man saw a white bluebird once. But that was before the state went prohibition.
Wm. Reidt, of Portland, the god-father of the Third Oregon, was out to the city Tuesday, greeting his oldtime Hillsboro friends. Billy is recovering from a severe illness.
Lou and Homer Emmott recently purchased a Bandon meat market and sold it to W. R. Culver, who has worked for them here. Mr. Culver left Wednesday to open the shop in the city on the coast.

Treasurer E. B. Sappington is publishing a notice calling attention to the fact that School District No. 7, Hillsboro City and vicinity, is paying $3,000 of bonded debt from a sinking fund provided by special levies. These bonds must be presented by May 1 or interest will cease after that date.
Preston G. Skeels, who was married to Pearl Skeels, at Scholls, Jan. 31, 1898, has sued for divorce. He alleges that he still lives in this county, but that the wife deserted him in June, 1917, and lives in Portland. Prior to separation, he states she went to dances but objected to him accompanying her, saying she did not have a good time when he went along. There is a daughter, aged 6 years, and she is now with the mother in Portland. He says that the wife is not a proper person to have the custody of the child.
