TIGARD BLOSSOMS OUT WITH BANK

Chas. F. Tigard is Elected President of New Institution

IT HAS CAPITAL OF $15,000

Fritz Elaner, Vice President; W. M. Evans is the Cashier

Tigard, on the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific, Beaverton-Willburg cutoff, a few miles southeast of Beaverton, has organized a new bank, and C. F. Tigard, well known all over the county, having represented as in the legislature, is the new president of the concern, which is being opened in one of the coming sections of the county.

The new bank is capitalized at $15,000, and the officers are: C. F. Tigard, president; Fritz Elaner, vice president; W. M. Evans, cashier; T. H. Williams, H. W. Christensen, H. W. McDonald and Jas. MacNaughton, directors.

Mr. Evans, who organized the bank was formerly connected with the Bank of Sherwood. The new banking house opens this week in temporary quarters, and as soon as Contractor H. F. Bonesteel can erect a building, a two-story brick, a new home will be provided. It is expected that the brick will be completed by July 1.

The new president is one of the pioneers of Tigard, and is held in high esteem by a large circle of friends, both at home and throughout Washington County. The banking house comes to fill a necessity of the expanding growth of the section. Tigard has about a thousand population, and is in the center of a rich agricultural section, which now does its banking in Portland, Beaverton and Hillsboro, with a number of depositors also at Sherwood. This will give the people a local banking house that will be welcomed.

W. F. The wife lived with her mother while he was in training.

John Hughes, for several years a resident of below Newton, started East to Jennings County, Indiana, Monday afternoon. In looking over his old relics Sunday he ran across a deed or patent given his father, away back in 1833, when Andrew Jackson was President. The tract was in Jennings County, Ind., and was written on sheepskin. He is guarding that relic with much anxiety, and may turn it over to the Indiana State Historical Society. Mr. Hughes has not been back to old Indiana for many years, and he anticipates having a big time—but he will be back to old Oregon, the Argus predicts, before a year or so elapses.

PYTHIAN SISTER LODGE GIVES CHICKEN SUPPER

One Hundred and Sixty People Enjoy Evening Last Friday

FINE MUSICAL NUMBERS

Overseas Boys Respond to Calls by the Toastmaster

The Pythian Castle Hall, on Second Street, was last Friday evening the scene of one of the big social successes of the season when the Pythian Sisters and their families were entertained at a fine chicken dinner at 6:30, with a musical program later. It is estimated that over one hundred and sixty people were at table.

There were musical numbers which were thoroughly enjoyed, some talks by the overseas boys, and dancing and cards following the program.

The musical program—Vocal solo, Mrs. Glen Payne; vocal solo, Miss Marjorie Wells; vocal solo, Miss Florence Garrett; piano solo, Mrs. Fred Sewell; vocal solo, Russell Morgan; Mrs. J. Sewell and Vincent Engeldinger were piano accompanists.

Talks were made by the following overseas boys—Corporal Glen Epler, Sergeant Clifton Bagley, Archie Pitman, who was wounded in action, Haskell Carter, who was in the Chateau-Thierry fight and was gassed; and Henry Olanic, who was with the Marines in the fight on the St. Mihiel salient, and who wears his wounds. All but Olanic enlisted from Hillsboro High, and were members of Co. B, Infantry. Olanic returns soon to Quantico, Va., for discharge.

The light fantastic was tripped by the young folks—and by some of the Knights who were not so young. Mr. Campbell, who was with the Canadian Service, furnished the music for the merry makers.

VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

The success of the Victory Liberty Loan means that the people of the United States have not dropped the handles of the plow until the furrow is done.

The first four loans sent the boys to finish the job over there; the Victory Loan will bring the boys back to their job over here.

Security of principal, regularity of interest payment, and popularity as an investment are three recognized principles of bond investment. By this standard, does any investment in the world compare with the Victory Liberty Loan?

Our government does not have to float a Victory Liberty Loan. A government less decent would raise the money by taxation. The Kaiser, if he had been victorious, would be taxing you right now, and your receipts wouldn't be good for their face, five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years from now—not by a "Spurlos Versenkt." It is not to mention that little interest coupon coming to you every six months, either.

If you borrow money from a bank for ninety days, you do not expect the bank to present the note for payment in ten days. The Government borrowed from you for a definite time and you wanted your money back before the time was up. With so many of you not sticking to your end of the bargain, the marvelous way in which prices of Liberty bonds kept up, which were issued on a patriotic basis, leads many shrewd observers to believe that the new issue—the Victory Liberty Loan—made on an investment basis, will always maintain a market of par or better.

Jolly Jones, son of N. H. Jones formerly of beyond North Plains, was out the last of the week, greeting county friends. He is now enlisted with the U. S. Marines, and at present is stationed in the Portland Recruiting office.

Mahon, went down to meet him on his arrival in the Rose City. James has been on the sick list since he landed at Newport News, but is now mending rapidly.

Dennis, the little son of Mr. Purrell, of the Oregon Restaurant, fell about 20 feet, from an out-of-doors upstairs landing, in the rear of the building, the last of the week. The little chap fell into a pile of trash, which cushioned him from a severe shakeup. As it was he suffered a few minor bruises and a nasty shaking. Dr. E. H. Smith rendered first aid.

Mayme Sellards, of Gales Cr., has sued John W. Sellards, supposed to be in California, for divorce, alleging failure to provide for the wife and three minor children. They were married at Independence, Mo., in 1910, and the husband left her in California, and she came to Oregon, thinking she could better support herself and minor children up here. She asks for no alimony, and does not know where he is now located.

E. L. Mapes, of near Laurel, was a city caller Monday. He reports that Oscar Thayer, well known near Gaston, is just recovering from a runaway accident sustained some days ago. He had been to Portland and his daughter, Kathryn, met him at the station at Gaston, and on the return home one of the buggy wheels went into a rut and threw Miss Thayer out. The team started to run and Thayer, remaining in the buggy, had but one line. This was of but little use to him and he was soon thrown out, landing on his back, causing a painful injury.
