County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

With paved roads thro the center of the county will come an insistent demand for better thoroughfares on lateral roads leading to the main artery—and after good roads are once established nothing will obstruct road building in the future. Good roads are the one best asset for Washington County, and other counties today are bonding to build roads to connect with the state highways. It will come in time here, and that time is not far distant.

Those who are putting in Loganberry acreage in this county are building wisely, for in a few years there will be nothing more profitable per dollar of investment than a bearing Loganberry tract. There will always be a market for the logan, and as this berry is a high-class product, both as a table berry and as a berry for fruit juices and beverages, the man who puts his faith in Loganberry culture is taking no chances.

President Wilson has been having a fine time talking over the peace situation with the European statesmen, and when it looked as tho the Easterners were about to disagree among themselves ordered the Geo. Washington across so as to have transportation ready in case he concluded he didn't want any more of the peace. This move rather alarmed them and it now appears as tho a peace program will be formulated pronto.

The silo has arrived to remain as an Oregon institution. Every dairyman who wants to be successful will find himself an ardent supporter of warehousing his green stuff for winter feed. It saves many a dollar in feed bills and as a matter of transferring green fodder to winter days has no equal. It solves a serious problem in the matter of keep, and the hundreds which have been built in the past are the best recommends for the future.

President Wilson has recovered from his illness of a few days and is again able to take up the peace proposition which appears now to be threshed out except a few details. The representative of Uncle Sam is showing the European boys that peace is worth striving for when peace is on if fighting is worth while when war obtains.

The State Game Warden is now putting out his brief in support of his office which has been attacked by the State Sportsmen's League. He will have hard sledding to make the average man think that he is the right man for the place—but he is going to hang on as long as the salary lasts.

Kerensky failed to save Russia to the new republic because he thought the people were sick of warfare. Since he was thrown out he has discovered that the "bear that walks like a man" is not satisfied without a dead man or two before breakfast—and several matinees during the day. Foolish Kerensky!

The court has issued an execution in favor of Elizabeth Smith against Carl Skow and wife and the defendant's land on the River Road will be sold by Sheriff Alexander unless the judgment is settled before date of the advertised sale. Miss Smith secured the judgment in a suit for physical damages because of an auto accident in which the Skows were involved, Miss Smith being injured.

Dr. Alzamon Lucas has brot suit against the Portland Telegram for $15,000 for alleged defamation of character. Dr. Lucas made several trips to Hillsboro to lecture on his wonderful psycho-analysis, but somehow his visits were not amply successful in a financial way. If the Dr. can get a verdict against the Telegram it will only be after the Wheelers have spent all their money—and they have quite a few.

J. W. Baker this morning sued out a restraining order, answerable April 15, estopping the county from doing work on opening the new road just east of Oreoco. The road in question is the new one which runs thro the Oregon Nursery Company's holdings. Judge Goodin called the workers by telephone and notified them that under court orders they must wait the decision of the court as to whether the restraining order will be made permanent or dissolved. The case for the county will be handled by District Attorney Tongue, W. Y. Masters appearing for the plaintiff. Baker resides in Portland.

WHOSE WAR WAS IT?

Was it Smith, the banker's war or Jones, the truckman's war? Was it Labor's war or was it Capital's war? Was it Autoocracy's war or was it Liberty's war? Whose war was it?

Figure it out. Then sacrifice everything and subscribe to the Victory Liberty Loan. For it was The People's War.

It isn't paid for. It must be paid for. The Victory Liberty Loan will pay for it. The people must buy because it was their war. The people are Smith and Jones. Labor and Capital.

If it wasn't the People's war, it wasn't anybody's war. So don't say "let the banks do it." It was not the bank's war. You might as well say it was Jones' war—let Jones buy the Victory Loan. He would have as much chance to subscribe five or six billion as Smith would.

The man who says "let the banks do it" is yellow. There are about 1,000,000 American lads over in Europe who are sticking it through. They are not saying let somebody else do it. It's the last loan. Play square.

"The scope of thrift is limitless."—Thomas A. Edison.

The war will not be over until the United States government has honorably met every commitment made in order to win the war.—Carter Glass, Secretary of the Treasury.

Mrs. H. D. Conover returned to her home in Waitsburg, Wash., Sunday evening, after an extended visit with relatives in this city.

George Walters, of West Union, was a city visitor Monday.
