

VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

A High-Class Business Investment

Of the $4,500,000,000 comprising this LOAN, The Hillsboro Commercial Bank, The Hillsboro National Bank and the Shute Savings Bank have subscribed $188,200.00, being the apportionment for this District.

The Campaign opened on April 21, 1919, and owing to the short time before the opening in which to organize committees for the purpose of soliciting subscriptions, the banks thought best to underwrite the entire quota, and will sell bonds in any amount to all persons who wish to purchase them.

It is desired that prospective purchasers subscribe for bonds at the bank where they do business.

DATE OF NOTES: May 20, 1919.

MATURITY OF NOTES: May 20, 1923.

RATES OF INTEREST AND TAX EXEMPTIONS: $4\frac{1}{4}\%$ —Exempt from all State and local taxes, except Estate and Inheritance taxes and Normal Federal Income taxes.

$3\frac{3}{4}\%$ —Exempt from all Federal, State and local taxes, except Estate and Inheritance taxes.

INTEREST PAYMENTS:

Interest on the Notes will be payable December 15, 1919, and thereafter on June 15 and December 15, and at maturity.

DENOMINATIONS OF NOTES:

$50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

You will readily see that this is a VERY ATTRACTIVE LOAN. In view of this, and from the fact that it is YOUR PATRIOTIC DUTY TO SEE THE JOB FINISHED, we urge that you subscribe with your bank at once.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Ernest E. Merges, Plaintiff, vs. Betty Merges, Defendant.

To Betty Merges, the above named Defendant:—

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the 31st day of May, 1919, said date being after the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons upon you, the date of the first publication thereof being the 17th day of April, 1919, and the date of the last publication thereof being the 29th day of May, 1919; and if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint, for want thereof, the Plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: For a decree dissolving the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between you and the Plaintiff upon the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, and for such other relief as to the court may seem proper.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Hillsboro Argus, pursuant to order of the Honorable Geo. R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled court, made, rendered and dated upon the 16th day of April, 1919.

The rural carriers, at least three of them—Olsen, Ennes and Miltenberger—have been making their routes the past week with their automobiles, and this gives them a quick return to town, getting in early in the afternoons. The roads are not at all bad excepting here and there a bad mudhole.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goodin, of Salem, were here Friday night, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Hare. They returned Saturday, after visiting Portland, where Mr. Goodin had business for the state. Dick is secretary for the State Board of Control, and has the business end of that organization down pat.

G. W. Thacker, of Seaford, above Buxton, was down to the city Monday. Mr. Thacker is congratulating himself on his recovery from the removal of gall stones, in this city, a few weeks ago. The operating surgeon first reported 193 of them, but a close count after he became convalescent shows that there were 203, and he has them all in a bottle to sustain his mathematics. Mr. Thacker has a son with the A. E. F., and he is now enroute home with the troops of the command.

A Dairymen's Local was formed at the Jackson School House last Friday night. Fred McNelly was elected president; Chick Shannon, vice, and Ben Sahnaw, secretary. By-laws and a constitution were adopted, and County Agent Jamison was present. Mr. Jamison is to get prices on a registered bull to be taken over by an association of farmers, and his report will be taken up at the Local's next meeting.

Mary Dailey Bowser has sued T. Bowser for divorce, alleging cruel treatment and failure to provide necessary clothing. She states in her complaint that the husband is quarrelsome and has made life so unpleasant for her that she wants her freedom. She Court has ordered the husband to show cause why $100 shall not be paid within ten days from April 26, and her prayer also asks $25 monthly alimony.

NOTICE

My wife, Mary Bowser, having left my bed and board without just cause or provocation, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her in my name, and all persons are hereby notified to extend no credit to her on my account.
