It is desired that prospective purchasers subscribe for bonds at the bank where they do business.

CORP. MILLER AN M. P.

Corporal Herbert L. Miller, son of Mrs. Geo. Tompkins, of Sewell, east of the city, writes that he is now in the Military Police. He was up in Coblenz, Germany, with the first occupation of Yank sen the other day and a bunch of boys from old B. Company.

Miller attended school for the M. P. several weeks after he was separated from his old command. He has no idea when he will get back to the States, but is waiting patiently for orders to start back to good old Oregon.

G. B. McGlasson, of Wood River, Neb., who has been visiting this Spring with his niece, Mrs. Geo. Tompkins and North Plains and Forest Grove relatives, is again home in the prairie state. He is a veteran of the Civil War, and served as a snare drummer. He is the last of five brothers, and served in the Rebellion by the side of his brother, who was the father of Mrs. Tompkins.

For Sale—A fine farm team, 6 years old; 3000 lbs.; strong harness and Studebaker wagon; also high-bred buggy mare; harness and buggy. Also farm for sale or rent, suitable for 25 to 30 head of cattle. Everything modern and up-to-date on farm; one-half mile northwest of Kinton High School.—F. Strohl, Beaverton, Ore., R. 3.

Sam Paisley, of above Buxton, was in the city the first of the week. Sam says he has no fears of a droughty Summer, as he irrigates all his bottom lands and gets results without expense or worry. A half day's work gets his irrigation project ready to pour his aqua on his crops and a few minutes per day does the business.

Homer Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, was here the last of the week, visiting with the A. W. Walkers and other South Tualatin friends. He recently arrived in from France. His brother James was over at the front, and two other brothers, Frank and Ernest, were in the service, but did not get across.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore VanDyke, of Verboort, were city callers Monday. Mr. VanDyke says the prospects for Winter grain are the best he ever witnessed in Oregon. In his section there is no evidence of harm from the pests.

A Portuguese went into the Allen Hardware Store the other day, and laid down a parcel of paint he had received from an Eastern mail order house, saying "he no stick. Me trade him to you for some that will." He failed to get a trade.
