

GOTTLIEB WILL FILED

The will of the late Peter Gottlieb, who was buried Sunday, has been filed in probate, and a son, John Gottlieb, has been named as executor without bonds. The estate amounts to about $28,000, and the realty is estimated at about $25,000, and of annual rental value of about a thousand dollars. The will was signed in April, 1918, and Attorney Wm. G. Hare and E. L. Shogren were the witnesses. The estate stays in title to Mrs. Gottlieb, widow, during her natural life, and then reverts to the children, share and share alike. The widow gets the income of the personal property, also. The will made Wm. Gottlieb, the eldest son, a joint heir, but his death reduces the heirship to four—John, the executor, Mrs. Emma Ferland and Mrs. Elma Radditz, of Portland, and Otto, at home.

HENRY E. FOWLER

Henry E. Fowler passed away suddenly in Portland, May 11, 1919, from an attack of heart trouble. He was born in Ontario, Canada, in 1862, and has been a citizen of this country 35 years. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. C. A. Hanley, of Hillsboro, wife of former county commissioner, with whom he frequently made his home. The funeral was held Wednesday at the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian Church, Rev. Andrew Carrick conducting the service. Interment was in the church yard.

Ed. Henton, of Shaniko, came down the last of the week making the trip overland. He is staying a few days at the Dwight Pomeroy's. He says that the trip these days is negotiated with but little trouble.

BEAUTIFUL WILLAMETTE

BY SAM L. SIMPSON

From the Cascade's frozen gorges,
Leaping like a child at play,
Winding, widening through the valley
Bright Willamette glides away.
Onward ever,
Lovely river,
Softly calling to the sea;
Time, that scars us,
Maims and mars us,
Leaves no track or trench on thee!

Spring's green witchery is weaving
Braid and border for thy side;
Grace forever haunts thy journey,
Beauty dimples on thy tide;
Through the purple gates of morning
Now thy rosette ripples dance,
Golden, then, when day, departing,
On thy waters trails his lance.
Wafting, flashing,
Tinkling, splashing,
Limpid, volatile and free—
Always hurried
To be buried
In the bitter, moon-mad sea.

In thy crystal depths, inverted,
Swings a picture of the sky,
Like those wavering hopes of Aedenn
Dimly in our dreams that lie;
Clouded often, drowned in turmoil,
Faint and lovely, far away—
Wreathing sunshine on the morrow,
Breathing fragrance 'round today.
Love would wander
Here and ponder—
Hither poetry would dream;
Life's old questions—
Sad suggestions—
"Whence and whither?" through thy stream.

On the roaring wastes of ocean,
Seen thy scattered waves shall toss
'Mid the surges' rhythmic thunder,
Shall thy silver tongues be lost.
Oh! thy glimmering rush of gladness
Mocks this turbid life of mine—
Racing to the wild forever,
Down the sloping paths of Time.
Onward ever,
Lovely river—
Softly calling to the sea;
Time, that scars us,
Maims and mars us,
Leaves no track or trench on thee!

GRANGE MEETING

Saturday was regular meeting for the Hillsboro Grange, and the attendance was fine. It being Mothers' Day, each member wore a white flower. The business and floor work were rushed through, and after the noon hour there was an open meeting for program and a round-table talk. Committees were appointed for the coming Grange Convention to convene here May 20, when a big crowd is expected here for a four days' session. As there are about 500 Grangers in the county, and many will be here from all over the state, a big crowd is expected. Hillsboro Grange is anxious to show the visiting delegation that Hillsboro and Washington County have prosperous and big-hearted people. An auto trip is planned for Wednesday afternoon, when the visitors will be taken to the big Granger walnut orchards and other points to be determined later. A few side trips here and there will be arranged, but the four days will be busy ones in the matters of Grange legislation.

Members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church complimented Mrs. Josephine Johnson with a surprise Friday afternoon, at her home on Eighth and Baseline. About twenty-five ladies formed the party, and dainty refreshments were served. The afternoon was pleasant with conversation and reminiscences. Mrs. Johnson is leaving the city to make her home at Sewell.

SPANISH VETERANS

The Spanish War Veterans the other evening endorsed the proposition of condemnation of making Memorial Day a "sport day." The Camp feels that Memorial Day should be altogether too sacred to scar with sports of any kind. Inasmuch as the day was recognized as a tribute to the soldier dead of the Civil War for the preservation of the union and our liberties, the day should not be desecrated. Added to the Civil War heroes who lost their lives is the roster of the dead of the Spanish War, and following this is the mortality of the present war, numbering over fifty thousand.

Isabel Worell Ball, writing for the National Tribune, says: "And in spite of all these millions of dead, whose names the people of the country will honor in their hearts on Memorial Day, the miserable, short-sighted, unpatriotic, sport-drunk men and women will 'open the sport season' on Memorial Day."

I remember one President of the United States who declined to visit Arlington on Memorial Day, and who went fishing instead. His name was held up to scorn and obliquity. The country never forgot or forgave.

Yet, it is openly advertised that golf and tennis and baseball and a work horse parade will open on May 30.

And two million and a half of Union Veterans, many thousand Spanish War Veterans, and 900,000 men of all countries, hardly cold in their graves, "Lie dead for me and you" this May 30. Isn't there enough real honest-to-goodness patriotism in this country to call off these dogs of sport and permit the country to get back to the spirit of the elder days?"
