POKER TABLE PULPIT WEST TIMBER HOTEL

Real Touch of Western Life Depicted in Pastor's Report

REGRET STOPPING GAME

Boys Like Pastor's Pipe—A Saxophone—But Wanted Smoke

The "Timberbelt Circuit," a flyer issued by Presbyterians, under date of May 9, 1919, has the following excerpt which shows that the north of the county still knows a "poker table."

"About 7:30 last Monday night the pastor rambled into the West Timber Lumbering Camp for the purpose of holding a religious service. He hunted up Mrs. A. R. Baird, the faithful S. S. Supt., who had charge of the service, and borrowed a brush with which he removed some of the Washington County real estate from his hat, suit and shoes. The service was held in the lobby of the hotel—thanks to the kindness of the management. Mr. Edward Logan, who has charge of the hotel, arranged the chairs, light and pulpit (which consisted of a poker table) for us and we were ready to begin. The men who stay at the hotel, and whose living room we were using, acted as true hosts and not only remained for the service but gave us undivided attention. While it may seem out of place to interrupt the game with a religious service, yet our army experience proved that men are always willing to take an interest in religious things. Such was the case here."

The above recalls incidents told by the late Bret Harte, in his early California stories—lacking only the bottles on the "back bar."

Another paragraph in the report reads:

"Since there was no instrument in the lobby the pastor used his saxophone. About ten small Sunday School boys who attended agreed that the 'Pastor's Pipe' made enough noise, but not nearly enough smoke."

The Editor of the report from which the above is taken is Lloyd Carriek, Pastor, who has seen army service.

The Reeves cottage, in East Hillsboro, was sold at auction, last Saturday, and it is of interest to note that the buyer is an Argus subscriber. It pays to advertise—and particularly so when you use the columns of the Argus weekly.

For Sale or Trade—International Harvester Cream Separator, 450-lb. size, cost $65, same as new; sell reasonable or trade for young cow or heifer to freshen in near future, Holstein preferred. A. C. Sellers, Argus office.

A. C. Bracken, a Portland traveling man, while in the city Saturday, accidentally ran across C. C. Beers, whom he had not seen for eleven years. They were acquainted back in Nebraska, where Bracken worked for Beers' brother, who was in the hardware business. The twain had a big time talking over old incidents and people of their acquaintance.

LOOKS LIKE ROCK ROAD TO BALD PEAK

Newberg Citizens Take a Lively Interest on South Slope

SETTLERS BUSY A WEEK

Would Aid Big Settlement Besides Making Scenic Route

E. L. Mapes and Wm. Fizzle, assisted by their neighbors, have been making a valiant fight for better roads up to Bald Peak on the north slope, and while they will soon have a rock road up to the Mapes place—at least by Fall—and expect to see a rock road clear through to the Yamhill line in another season, they have not stopped at that. They recently went over to Newberg to visit the business men of that city. They were welcomed by the Commercial Club of that enterprising town, and it begins to look as though Newberg and Yamhill County will back their shoulders and lay a rock road up the south slope at a less than five per cent grade. Mr. Mapes, after his return, received the following letter from J. L. Colcord, Cashier of the U. S. National Bank of Newberg, the letter telling its own story:

"Mr. E. L. Mapes, Laurel, Oregon.
Dear Sir—A report was made last night to our Commercial Club as to your official visit here, and it is needless to say that the members of the Club were very much pleased, as we were at the time of your visit, to learn about your road improvements and plans to complete your work this season. The conditions of the roads on Chelem Mountain have been so very bad that our people do not travel over them and do not know how your people are situated over on that side, but as our work has been started by some live wires on the mountain and have interested all on this side as to the possibility of getting an easy grade as well as to open some of the best country in the state, and also to develop one of the attractive scenic routes, the work will now be backed up by our business men, and will be pushed along as fast as such improvements can be considering the heavy costs and shortage of labor.

Your road, if not much longer to Laurel and Hillsboro, has many advantages over any other road as now laid out, as it will give the easiest grade and makes the outlet for more roads from the north side of the mountain, and can be completed sooner than the other road or branch which we are planning for, running to the east and connecting with the Scholls road. The Club ordered the Road Committee to push the work as much as can be, to get a surveyor as soon as possible and also get the petition ready and presented to the Court for a short piece not yet laid out as a road.

Wishing you success in your good work and that you may be able in a few months to feel that you have access to the big world in which you live and to be able to mingle with and enjoy your neighbors as you have not been permitted to do in the past.

Very truly yours,
J. C. Colcord."

AMERICAN LEGION

American Soldiers, Sailors or Marines, or enlisted men in any branch of service in the war might be interested to know that the American Legion is now being formed, to which any of the above men are eligible. Lt. Col. Theodore Roosevelt is the temporary chairman; Lt. Col. Bennett Clark, of Missouri, is vice-chairman, and the Oregon temporary secretary is Dow V. Walker. Care Multnomah Club, Portland. The idea is to form a "post" or "dugout" in every town. The purpose of the organization is non-partisan and non-political, and it will be a genuine "service men's" body. Any service man who wants to start an organization here, or at any town in the county, can get information from Mr. Dow, by writing him a letter, or calling him on the telephone. It makes no difference whether or not a man served abroad—he is eligible, just the same. The Legion is to stand for law and order, decent living and thinking, and true Americanism.

Mayor Wall has been asked to give this matter publicity, and here it is.

START MADE ON NEW WEIL STORE BUILDING

Completion Will Mean a Brick Row, 400 Feet

BASEMENT IS UNDER WAY

Industrial Activity Over State is Pronounced

Within a few months Hillsboro will have a solid brick front on a 400 foot block, on the north side of Main Street. Excavation of the basement on the old Tualatin Hotel site started the last of the week for the Nathan Weil brick, which is to be completed by September 1, for the stocks of the Weil Department Store.

Portland—The Nicolai Door Co. is increasing its door manufacturing plant by forty-five thousand square feet floor space, and will employ 125 men. The firm has an order from the East which will require the enlarged plant until October to fill.

The Roosevelt highway would open up 350 miles of coast country and put Oregon on the map with one of the most scenic roads in the world. It would mean the expenditure of $5,000,000 to be paid by the government, and Oregon's motor license system, not by the taxpayers. The people cannot afford to vote it down.—Oregon Manufacturer.

Roseburg—New school house to be hurried to completion. Stayton may get mattress manufacturing concern.

Reedsport—Bone Island sold to Western Development company for $20,000.

The L. Moore Dry Kiln Mfg. Co., which is completing its plant here has an order for six dry kilns from the Weyerhaeuser Milling Co., of Everett, Wash.

Gresham—Much building activity going on around here.

Roseburg—Owner of 40-acre prune ranch near here sells this year's yield at price "above" 14½ cents a pound.

Eugene—Contracts awarded for road work in Lane county total $176,026.

Construction soon to begin on McKenzie Pass Highway, a distance of 68.0 miles for which $187,750 has been appropriated.

Senator B. C. White, of Buffalo, one of the pioneer wool men of Montana, says: "The whole tone of the wool market, both foreign and domestic, com'd from the Commercial Bulletin of April 27, indicates that the market is strong and advancing, especially so on fine staple wools."

Lebanon—Work on new cannery building practically completed.

Mt. Angel—New water system to be installed here.

Jordan Valley highway to be improved.

Portland—Bids for high way projects totalling more than $1,500,000 and covering more than 90 miles opened recently by State Highway Commission.

Astoria—Entire waterfront holdings of Flavel estate purchased by Messrs. Sanborn for $150,000.

Astoria—Local Milling Co. to supply 79,000 lbs. flour, at its share of $30,000,000 order, largest ever placed in Northwest.

Scio condensery equipment being increased to five times its present capacity.

WANT DIVORCES

Three new divorce cases were filed in circuit court this week. Irene Moore, who was married to E. M. Moore, at The Dalles, in 1914, asks for separation on the grounds of failure to support her. Last February he left her without means, and afterward wrote her he was going to Canada. She wants her freedom, as she says she has worked to support herself the greater portion of the time since E. M. was supposed to look after her.

Jas. K. Boyd, who was with the big National Army, and has recently returned, asks for a divorce from his wife, Grace Boyd, whom he married at Santa Rosa, Cal., in 1909. He alleges that the spouse was unfaithful to him while he was fighting for liberty, and names one Louis Wynhard as co-respondent, the offense alleged to have been located at Forest Grove. The plaintiff also asks for the custody of two small children.

Ruth McCullough asks for divorce from F. D. McCullough Jr., and says that ever since their marriage at Vancouver, Wn., in 1907, the husband has treated her inconsiderately.
