

MANY THOUSANDS HERE ON FOURTH

Record Crowd Comes to County Seat Independence Day

EFFORT WAS FINE SUCCESS

Manager Phelps to be Congratulated on Handling Big Event

Hillsboro had its record crowd for a Fourth of July celebration last Friday, and a conservative estimate perhaps is 15,000 visitors at the grounds. It is said that there were two thousand automobiles parked at or near the City Park, and Traveling Passenger Agent Jenkins, and Supt. Morris, of the S. P. Company, say their lines carried 1,500 people to this city, to say nothing of the Tillamook lines, and those coming in from the South on the red car trains. The day was ideal for the celebration and the huge crowd was good-natured from morning until the last good-night was said after the fireworks, which were considered the best pyrotechnic display the city ever witnessed. A great crowd witnessed the ball game between Farmington and Beaverton, and at that their disappearance from the grounds proper to the diamond fringes hardly made a dent in the big assemblage which was here to have a good time.

The parade, like all parades, was a little late getting started, but it made up in appearance for any delays. This parade, while not as large as expected, made up in attractiveness for lack of numbers, and the acclaim given it by several thousand watching it attested its popularity.

MRS. STELLA KENTRAT

Mrs. Stella Kentrat, of Orenco, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, July 2, 1919. She was aged 58 years, and was the widow of Edward Kentrat, who died at Orenco, October 9th, of last year. She leaves to mourn her loss several children, one of whom is Gus Kentrat, who went to France with the U. S. Army. The funeral took place from the Geo. J. Limber Undertaking Parlors, and the service was conducted by Rev. Wm. Graf of Bethany.

NOTICE

My wife having left my bed and board without just provocation, all persons are hereby notified that I will not be responsible for any claims contracted by her after this date.

Dated at Hillsboro, Ore., this 10th day of July, 1919.
E. J. Crabb.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carse, of Portland, were Hillsboro visitors the Fourth. Mrs. Carse was formerly Miss Anna Hall, and spent her girlhood days in this city.

The shipyards of Portland last Saturday gave their men a ten days' vacation, owing to shortage of orders. The men in some of the yards had talked of going on a strike and the vacation order came as sort of a surprise. The probability is that the strike question will not have so much clamor hereafter. Hillsboro shipyard workers have been steadily working for many months and the rest was not a bad thing to take.

HARVEST IS LATE OVER THE DISTRICT

Binders Will be Running in a Week or Ten Days on Fall Grain

THRESHING MEN READY

Cool Weather Gives Grain Good Chance to Fill Without Burning

Harvest is later this season than in 1918, as many last year started cutting within a few days after the Fourth. This season the cool weather did much to protect grain in the field, and the heads of nearly all fields are filled clear to the tip, so that there will be no such disappointment in yield as we had at the last harvest.

Threshermen everywhere picked the greatest crop of winter wheat ever cut in the district, and they are generally the closest of observers. All contend that the average of fall-sown wheat is a good 25 per cent heavier than in 1918, and with the improvement guarantee producers will be in clover.

Here and there is found a field of wheat now ready for the binders, but it will be at least a fortnight before the harvest is on in full swing.

A heavy shower visited many sections Sunday, as well as in the night Saturday, and this means that the Spring crop of wheat and oats are now out of the danger zone. Oats are looking especially fine everywhere, and a bumper crop will be the result.

There appears to be a shortage of separators this year, as the threshing game has not been as profitable as it might have been. The hay crop has been very heavy, and as the vegetable world is in fine shape the old county should turn in a fine balance this Fall on the credit side of the ledger.

George Brewington, formerly of the Hillsboro condenser, is now "process man" at the big condenser at Nampa, Idaho, and he has bought an 80-acre place up there and is raising alfalfa with wheat on the side. Another Hillsboro man, Kenneth Nielsen, is the chemist at the same condenser.

Arthur Olson, well known here as a boy, was out from Portland July 4, mixing with Hillsboro friends. Arthur but recently returned from overseas, and says that his brother, Vernon, one of the first to enlist from Hillsboro, who was wounded in France, is getting along nicely. Another Edward, was killed in Minnesota last month, being in the path of a tornado which swept that part of the Mississippi Valley recently. Ed. was well known in this city, and was married.

The preliminaries of the Jess Willard and Dempsey fight were pulled off in Hillsboro the night of July 3 in two or three pretty lively scrimmages down at the grounds. No one was seriously hurt and all were able to celebrate the Fourth, which was more than Willard did, Dempsey being declared winner at the beginning of the fourth round.

The magazine section of the Portland Journal last Sunday carried a full-page story of the elopement and marriage of Miss Drexell to Wm. Barrett Jr., formerly of Hillsboro. It is now Captain Barrett, he having been advanced to that position on leaving the service in France. Capt. Barrett has not been in Hillsboro for some years, having been in the East. He went to France in the Signal Corps as a lieutenant.

Sheriff Alexander returned July 4 with Conley, charged with robbing the Beaverton Bank. The sheriff states that there is no question at all but the man is Chester Clark, formerly of Forest Grove. The prisoner came without requisition, although Sheriff Alexander provided himself with this protection before leaving for the South. Clark's wife came up by steamer, although she wished very much to come on the same train with the officer and prisoner. Sheriff Alexander informed her that he could not prevent her riding on the train, but told her she would not be allowed to travel in the same car with the husband, so he concluded she would come North by sea. Conley, or Clark, has nothing to say about the charge, but admits that he is out of the Oregon penitentiary on parole. He is confined in the county jail, but will not be allowed the run of the corridors.

MONDAY'S LUNCHEON WAS WELL ATTENDED

City Business Men Meet and Discuss Affairs Pertaining

WILL GO AFTER PUBLICITY

Move on to Induce Mill Men to Recognize Hillsboro as Site

Over thirty business men attended the Monday luncheon at the Hotel Washington this week, with Attorney R. F. Peters presiding. Elmer Johnson, of the Wilkes Abstract Co., will be the master of ceremonies at the next regular luncheon, to be held July 21—the anniversary of Bull Run.

Messrs. W. W. Boscow, L. T. McPheeters, C. E. Wells, W. G. Hare, Ed. Schulerich and J. H. Garrett were appointed as a committee to confer with the local granges in regard to a permanent county fair for Washington Co.

C. B. Buchanan, on the camping place committee agent the city park, said that no report was possible at this time, but promised one later. C. E. Wells offered a suggestion that in some way a pavilion be financed at the city park so as to provide funds for public celebrations, and Mr. Easter moved that a committee be appointed to draft a stock company for the promotion of the same. Mayor Wall, C. E. Wells and R. B. Easter were appointed and will report later.

Mr. Easter made a partial report on the housing problem, and said it would cost considerable to make a comprehensive survey of the situation.

M. H. Stevenson, C. B. Buchanan, L. T. McPheeters and L. M. Hoyt discussed the sign proposition, and Mr. Shute stated that the Shute Bank had purchased 15 signs showing that Hillsboro was on the road, and they would be maintained by the institution. W. H. Wehrung dwelt on the necessity of signs, and the committee will have further time.

C. B. Buchanan stated that the Standard Box Co. was going to rebuild their plants, and a committee consisting of Buchanan, J. M. Goar and Elmer Johnson was appointed to confer with the Standard people to see if a plant could not be established in this city.

It was a rousing good meeting, and the next one should be of much interest as there are several matters to be reported on at that time.

Rev. Verne Spieker is taking care of the Spieker Harness Shop while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spieker, are enjoying a vacation at Tillamook.

Wanted—A girl for general housework, on farm, for the summer.—Address Mrs. Austin Sims, Sherwood, R. 4, or inquire at the farm, a mile below Farmington. 16-1f

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tupper visited the last of the week with their son, Lloyd Tupper, and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sigler, at Klipsan, Wash., and while down river were visitors at Astoria, Ft. Canby and other coast points.

A. D. Cannon, who has been manager of the 20th Century Grocery the past ten months, has gone to Portland to work for the International Company at one of their Rose City stores. Mr. Cannon has made many friends during his stay in Hillsboro.

Frank L. Hay, Supt. of the Pullman service of the Great Northern Railway, was here the last of the week, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Frank Imbrie, of Orenco. F. L. said he wanted to get back to Hillsboro at an old time celebration—and he did. F. L. was raised below Newton, on the Hay ranch, and he still knows many of the old pioneers. Mr. Hay left for St. Paul Saturday.

The Forest Grove auto stage collided with Dr. Smith's big Cole Eight, on the fill between Oak Park and James last Saturday night, about 3 o'clock, when the Dr. was returning from a professional call. Dr. Smith lost a wheel and was fortunate that he was not killed. He says he had the right of way and was not at fault, and the driver of the stage went on his way in pretended ignorance of having struck the Smith car.
