

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

Portland's telephone strike is ended and all are working again. Strikes are bad things, although sometimes they are quite necessary.

The Argus takes great pleasure in commending The Oregonian for its valiant fight on the League of Nations question. The Oregonian sees the light in a way that would be wisdom for some of our dissenting statesmen, and its attitude is a credit to the Northwest as well as to the Nation at large.

Forest Grove has the sympathy of Hillsboro, which senses the great loss to the beautiful little city by reason of last Sunday's fire. It is a severe blow to Forest Grove, but the Argus, knowing that city's indomitable courage and sterling citizenship, already sees its burned district risen, phoenix-like, from the ashes, and again doing business at the old stand. Here's our sympathy, anyway, but you need it not, altho you deserve it.

Thousands of acres of grain have been cut the past few days, and all winter grain is now practically ready for the binder.

Stolen—A new bicycle, from residence at 1435 Washington St. If person who stole same will return wheel to owner no arrests will be made and no questions asked.—W. E. McCourt.

Dr. J. P. Tamicis, of Portland, was out to the city yesterday looking over his Hillsboro interests. He thinks that the State Highway will mean more for Hillsboro than anything that has hit the town in a number of years.

FAMILY REUNION

The relatives of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. York and family recently held a family reunion at their residence in Aloha. A nice dinner and a good time was enjoyed. Those in attendance were Mrs. J. W. York, Reedville; Messrs. and Mesdames A. B. Flint, and family, Scholls; J. A. York and family, Reedville; Thomas Hughes, of Reedville; Fred Wilson and family, Gales Creek; Den Wilson and family, Gales Creek; Lon Wilson and family, Gales Creek; Walter Wilson and family, Schofield; W. H. Wilson, Forest Grove; C. W. Allen, Beaverton; R. Stanton, of Portland; J. E. Wilson, Portland; Syler, Portland; A. C. Allen, of Portland; Frank Allen, Newberg; Walter Eaton, Beaverton; William Jackson, Portland; Mrs. Arthur Allen, Beaverton; Mrs. Ella Casteel and daughters, Camas Prairie, Mont.; Grandma Stanton, Portland; Mrs. W. H. Baldrin and daughter, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Portland; W. H. French and family, Forest Grove; R. E. and F. B. Bowman, Aloha; Misses Clara and Ida Speake, Aloha; Earl Waldron, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Coffman and family, Portland; Mr. Kelly and Mr. Johnson, of Portland.

SMITH—IMBRIE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Imbrie will this evening at eight o'clock, be the scene of a pretty home wedding when their daughter, Letitia, will be united in marriage to Alfred T. Smith, of Portland. Rev. J. T. Anderson will officiate and only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends will be present. The bride is well known here, having been a resident of Hillsboro since her birth. She is deservedly popular and has a host of friends who tender congratulations. The groom is well known in Portland, and only recently returned from the service, being the wearer of four overseas service chevrons.

WHEN YOU ARE SICK

You go to a doctor. You don't experiment. It's a good plan when your battery or electrical equipment on your auto shows signs of sickness to take it to the Hillsboro Battery Service Station and have your trouble diagnosed and remedied.

A full line of ignition parts and U. S. L. storage batteries in stock. Hillsboro Battery Service Station, 1130 Second St., Hillsboro.

Married, Wm. E. Carty and Miss Mary E. Fitzpatrick, of Beaverton, were united in marriage at Beaverton, July 16, 1919, by Rev. O'Neill, officiating minister.

Chas. Brandaw, recently returned from France, is suffering from a broken ankle sustained while helping to load a piano at the city park pavilion.

Dr. Helms will close his office every Thursday afternoon during the summer season until further notice. 11-1f

Robt. Harbison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harbison, of Fair Acres, fell from his bicycle the other day and fractured an arm. His trousers caught in the wheel, precipitating a fall. Dr. Robb reduced the break.

Mrs. D. P. Patterson, of Dallas, accompanied by her daughters, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Boscow. While the family is spending a vacation here, D. P. is rusticiating at St. Martins' Springs, on the Columbia.

Lightning yesterday forenoon connected with an S. P. line car near the Moore Laundry, and an alarm was turned in. At first there were two reports, one that the Laundry was on fire, and the other that the condenser had been struck by lightning. The department had a run for its money for nothing, as no harm was done outside of burning out some of the apparatus on the car.

Corporal Elmer Batchelder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Batchelder, arrived home from France last Friday. He went over with Co. B, and last September was transferred to General Headquarters, at Chaumont. He is mighty glad to get back home, and says that he had opportunity to see a great deal of France and Southern Europe. Elmer, like ninety-nine percent of the boys, looks the picture of health, and is none the worse for his experience. His many friends are glad to see him home, and he is having a big time renewing old acquaintance with members of Co. B, with whom he left Hillsboro and crossed the waters.

Knew Value of Money.

"That young chap you are going around with is a regular pinhead!" stormed Bertha's father. "He doesn't even know the value of money!" "Oh, yes, he does," said Bertha. "He says that he wouldn't give a pinged nickel for your opinion on anything."—Puck.

The Lesser Evil.

"Lushman declared he would rather go to jail than pay his divorced wife alimony."

"Did she let him?"

"Yes; she said she'd much rather see him save his money behind bars than spend it over them."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

The Spirit of the Times.

It is an age of artificial devices. Rare, indeed, is the man and rarer still the woman in whose physical makeup there is not something false, either eyes or teeth or hair.—Atlantic.
