THE OLD FASHIONED GIRLS

SILVER JUBILEE
Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Grenbemer celebrated their Silver Jubilee, at their home in Hillsboro, with their family and friends, Sunday, Sept. 21, 1919. A sumptuous repast was served, much similar to that served twenty-five years ago. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lethine, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Ferson, Mr. and Mrs. Broiere, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Unger, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Delsman, Mr. Legler, Mr. White and Father Costelloe, of Hillsboro; Laurence Butch, Mrs. Unger, her son and daughter, Edward and Elizabeth, of Mt. Angel, and Miss Emma Delsman, of Portland.

CORPORAL MILLER HOME
Corporal Herbert Miller, son of Mrs. Geo. Tompkins, returned home last week on a furlough from Camp Pike. He has re-enlisted for a year, and but recently arrived from the A. E. F. Herbert was in the Third Division in the Army of Occupation, and with that organization in some of the hardest fighting in France. He has grown tall since he left the States, and like all the rest of the boys who have been in the service, is in splendid physical condition.

Flowers for funerals and other occasions.—Bergen Floral Co., Hillsboro. 32-4f

Walter Willers, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Willers, serving in the U. S. Navy, returned home Saturday, and is at the Oak Park home, being released from the service. Frank Willers, another son, was last heard from in a Norwegian port, and he, too, is expected home before many months.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barber and family, of Ukiah, Ore., arrived the last of the week for a visit with Mr. Barber's mother, Mrs. A. W. Barber. Chas. has been up in the bunchgrass region so long that he concluded he wanted to see the old Willamette Valley again and renew old Hillsboro acquaintances.

For Sale—Between 4000 and 5000 cords of fir wood; $1.25 per cord stumpage. Good roads for hauling.—Inquire of Claud Cook, Cornelius, Ore. 27-29

Myra E. Meeds sues H. Everett Meeds for divorce. They were married in Portland in 1908, and have two little sons, Robert and Irvin. She wants the custody of the children and $60 per month alimony, alleging that the husband can make from $150 to $200 per month. She says the husband deserted her in 1917. The wife also asks for $100 suit money.

Gilbert W. Allen, deputy State Fire Marshal, was in the city the first of the week, making a survey of the city to be in possession of facts as to municipal conditions relative to fire possibilities. The State Fire Marshal department is doing a mighty good work, and there is a chance for improvement of conditions in Hillsboro, and there is a probability of improvement with the right parties after it.

60 Choice Individuals 60
Wednesday, October 8th, at Seghers, Oregon

Complete dispersal, Cloveridge Farm herd and 9 choice young females from the herd of Thos. Carmichael.

Duke Homestead Aaggie's daughters are undoubtedly unexcelled by those of any other bull in the Northwest from the standpoint of conformation, color and breeding. His dam, Princess Rose Aaggie, made 30.7 lbs. of butter in 7 days, and her owner, W. S. Moscrip, one of the greatest breeders in America, says she is capable of making 40 lbs.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS, ATTENTION!

Mr. Carmichael and Mr. Newell have taken all the chance in building up these herds. The ability of the cattle to produce at the pail has been proved. Princess Lill Dekol, sold to O. A. C. by W. K. Newell as a heifer, made 24.13 lbs. of butter in 7 days. Her dam made over 19 lbs.; just dropped a calf and is milking over 70 lbs. today. She's in the sale besides 8 other high A. R. O. cows with their progeny, sired by Duke Homestead Aaggie.

You can wish for nothing better. Don't forget those 20 bred heifers. Every animal in this sale should stay in Washington County. In talking with a banker a few days ago, he said there is not a man in Washington County whose note is not good. Your note is good with us.

Do not fail to be on time and inspect the cattle thoroughly before the sale.
