

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor.

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

President Wilson's health has broken down and he has been forced to cancel his speaking engagements in behalf of ratification of the peace treaty and the League of Nations. The President has had many months of arduous work, and he has never been very strong. Partisan efforts to defeat his dream of a universal peace caused him to undertake a too great physical effort with the result that he is now under the care of a physician.

The State Highway is now open to St. Mary's, near Beaverton.

and the next opening will be to Beaverton, as the road is laid to the O. E. track, through Beaverton. The rainfall is retarding work everywhere, but we may yet have some decent weather, and that will mean connection with Portland.

BARNES COMING

Please announce that Mr. Julius H. Barnes, United States Wheat Director, and President of the Grain Corporation, will be in Portland on Thursday, October 9th, where he will address a meeting of representative business men and farmers, at the Chamber of Commerce, 5th and Oak Streets, at lunch, 12:15. Farmers are especially invited to hear Mr. Barnes, and all who are interested may make reservation for seats at this lunch, by addressing the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Seats will then be held for them.

Very truly yours,
United States Grain Corporation.
By M. H. Houser, Second Vice President.

HAMELMAN-BEHRMAN

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Behrman, of near Cornelius, when their daughter, Zena, was given in marriage to William Hamelman, at six o'clock, Thursday evening, Sept. 25, 1919. The bride wore her traveling suit and carried a bouquet of white rosebuds. Miss Marie Hamelman, who acted as bridesmaid, carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds, and the bride's brother, Herman, acted as best man. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. Korpenstein, with only immediate relatives present.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served. The bridal table was beautifully decorated with white asters and ferns.

After supper the happy couple departed amid a shower of congratulations and best wishes for a two weeks' honeymoon at Rockaway beach.

The home was beautifully decorated with white asters and autumn leaves for the occasion.

HOME FROM HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Overroeder have arrived at their home in Elmonica from a fortnight's honeymoon in Eastern Oregon. They were married by Rev. Father O'Neill, at Beaverton, Sept. 16. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Overroeder, well known at Elmonica and in Hillsboro, and the bride was formerly Miss Mary Welters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Welters, of Beaverton. She is a graduate nurse of St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland, and is deservedly popular. Mr. and Mrs. Overroeder will reside on the home place at Elmonica, while the groom's parents will move to Hillsboro and reside in their county seat home at Sixth and Oak. Frank is one of Elmonica's prosperous young farmers, and has a host of friends there and in the county seat.

WALTER MARTIN JACKSON

Walter M. Jackson, well known in Hillsboro, where he often visited his mother, Mrs. W. M. Jackson, and his sister, Mrs. R. C. Vaught, died at the Derr Sanitarium, Portland, Sept. 28, of Bright's disease.

Mr. Jackson, who was one of the leading business men of Portland and Pendleton, was at the time of his death, sales manager of the Pendleton Woolen Mills, with which firm he had been identified for the past twenty years.

He was born in Indiana Dec. 6, 1875. Funeral services were conducted at Elks' Chapel, Portland, Sept. 30, under the auspices of Portland Lodge, B. P. O. E., of which he was a member. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiating, and interment was in the Mt. Scott Cemetery.

Besides his mother and sister, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Effie Jackson, and one son, Paul.

J. C. Kurath, Hillsboro, Auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. McPheeters and R. S. Stockton, father of Mrs. McPheeters, who has been visiting here several weeks, departed this morning for a trip East. Mr. Stockton returns home to Hydro, Okla., and the McPheeters will visit there and then go up to Springfield and Bolivar, Mo., where Mc is to revisit boyhood scenes and spend a few weeks with relatives.

Thad Reynolds, J. L. Crow and W. O. Donelson departed the first of the week for Coos county where they are to hunt and fish and incidentally be the guests of Rev. J. D. Anderson, aboard his cruiser, where he is stationed as Baptist Evangelist in Southeastern Oregon. Each of the trio promised Brother Anderson that they would attend services every Sunday and prayer meeting on Thursday and if Anderson doesn't baptize them with all the expense of water at hand the Argus will miss its guess.

The Indiana Truck:

If you are in the Market for a Truck for general purposes, give the Indiana the "once over." This truck has been given severe trials on Washington County roads and has made good.

Every Farmer should have an Auto Truck. We have them from one ton up to five tons. The Indiana two-ton trucks sell for $3125—the best value for the money in Truck Service.

The Dort

The Dort Automobile has come to stay, and is out-selling all cars in this class. Mechanically perfect, with the finest lines, every Dort owner is an advertisement for the car. Let us demonstrate.

We carry the Fisk, U. S., and Pennsylvania Tires.

We also do all kinds of automobile repairing.

Wise Buyers Choose the

Oldsmobile Economy Truck

DURING a period of six weeks, the following twelve nationally known concerns each purchased from one to six Oldsmobiles Economy Trucks:

Standard Oil Company of Indiana
Coca-Cola Company of Georgia
Park & Tilford, New York City
Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company, Chicago
Fairbanks & Company, New York City
Bunte Brothers, Chicago

The Delco Company, Dayton
American Glycerine Company, Dallas
Dr. Brush Kumys Company, Cleveland
Thompson Lumber Company, Minneapolis
Board of Water Commissioners, Denver
Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron

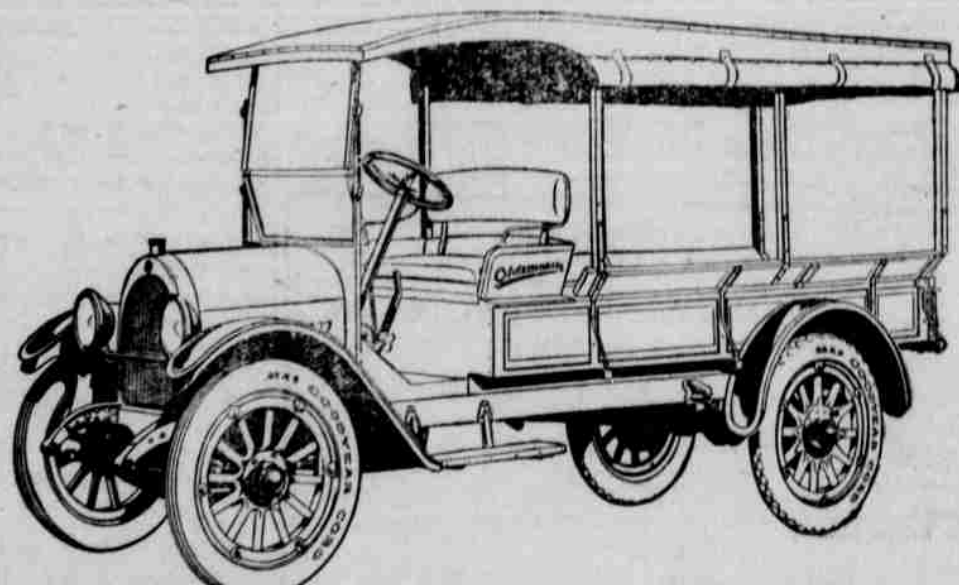

Large concerns such as these buy only on a basis of proven value. They purchase after making exhaustive tests of many makes of trucks.

Because of its proven value, more than 5000 Oldsmobile Economy Trucks have been placed in the hands of consumers in the past five months.

These features are responsible for the Oldsmobile Economy Truck's speed, dependability, and economy:

A powerful, 4-cylinder, valve-in-head truck motor, internal gear drive; complete electrical system; 35x5 pneumatic cord tires; extra long, flexible, semi-elliptic springs.

The purchase price of an Oldsmobile Economy Truck is an investment which will yield dividends to you in lowered haulage costs.
