RED CROSS DRIVE

Orton E. Goodwin wires the Argus that Sam Weil has been appointed chairman of the East Washington County Red Cross roll-call, Nov. 6 to Nov. 11. Dr. Chas. E. Hawke, of the Forest Grove American Legion, and Judge Hollis will handle the campaign in West Washington County.

PYTHIAN SISTERS

The Pythian Sisters will give a Halloween Party, at the K. P. Hall, Saturday evening, Nov. 1, for members and their families.

All members are cordially invited to attend and mix with the ghosts.

FRUIT AND NUT GROWERS

The Washington County fruit and nut growers are fast becoming affiliated with the Oregon Cooperative Growers' Association.

A large amount of the prune acreage has already come under the organization, and the apple and nut growers are also becoming interested.

The growers of the county believe that through a State organization they can market their produce to a much better advantage, and in so doing give better publicity to Oregon grown produce and they also believe that much of the speculation in the fruit markets will be eliminated.

Meetings have been held in the county by the fruit men and another will be held at Forest Grove October 31st, and it is planned that many other meetings will be held in different parts of the county.

The apple growers of the Eastern part of the county are particularly interested as the local markets this season are over supplied, while Eastern markets are under supplied, and very gratifying returns are being received by those shipping to the East in carload lots.

Packing plants will be erected where acreage is large enough to warrant and where they can be made to serve the largest number, where the fruit will be graded by disinterested parties and packed according to grade.

The belief has been expressed that this organization will do more than any thing that has happened in a number of years. It being particularly valuable in establishing a graded product of highest quality, and through their system of marketing the grower will be paid for his additional labor and expense in producing a quality article.

Washington County is represented on the board of directors of the State Organization by Ferd Groner, of Scholls, and Ernest Rueter, of Forest Grove. County Agent.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

The Washington County Teachers' Institute chose R. H. Jonas, of Beaverton, and Mrs. Paul Abraham, of Gaston, as delegates to the Oregon State Teachers' Association, which meets in Portland during the holidays.

About 90 per cent of the teachers in Washington County are members of the State Teachers' Association, and no doubt most of the others will join. This county is so conveniently located that quite a large number usually avail themselves of this opportunity to get new ideas and inspiration and thus become more valuable teachers. Incidentally there are quite a number who are short on hours attendance at the Institute who will make up the time by attending the State Meeting.

Miss Anna Grabhorn, who teaches the Purdin School, was taken ill during the institute and is not likely to be able to resume her work for several weeks. No one has been secured to substitute during her absence. No one has been engaged to teach the Gales Peak school. The board is considering sending the pupils to the Gales Creek school.

Improvements in school furnishings, buildings, etc., have been considerably neglected during the past two years, but the Superintendent, in his travels, has come upon some notable exceptions. Miss Pfeiffer, who teaches at No. 98, three miles north of Buxton, in the Bailey neighborhood, has just moved into a brand-new up-to-date building, lighted at the left and rear, and heated by a regular heating and ventilating plant. The board has ordered the new reading charts and plans to have everything required to make a "Standard School."

We found everything changed around at the Prickett school, northwest of Banks. The windows have been arranged to conform to the latest scientific plan, the interior painted and other improvements made. Mrs. Minni Conant, one of our experienced teachers, has the classes lined up in good shape and prospects are good for a successful year.

N. A. Frost.

RED CROSS DRIVE

Appointment of general committeemen in the third annual Red Cross roll call, or membership drive, is announced by H. E. Witham, of Portland, chapter roll call chairman, as follows:

Dr. Hugh Mount, Oregon City; W. B. Dennis, Carlton; Judge W. H. Hollis, Forest Grove; Sam Weil, Hillsboro; Fred Trow, Rainier; Dr. H. C. Fixott and Geo. F. Honey, Gresham; Mrs. E. C. Baird, Newberg, and Mrs. Jas. Ellison, St. Helens.

Plans are progressing for a short and snappy campaign for members, beginning November 6 and ending November 11.

The American Legion, both nationally and locally, is co-operating heartily with the Red Cross in this drive; the boys who served in the late war, realizing better than anyone else the value of this organization, desire to show their appreciation in some concrete form by aiding in this campaign.

The slogan of previous drives "All you need is a heart and a dollar" is being used by the Red Cross workers.

E. L. Perkins has bought the Wiley property, corner second and Washington St., and will remodel the structure, which is 17x100. Offices and an auto salesroom will be installed, and a basement floor laid. He expects to get busy next week at reconstruction. This is one of the best corners in the city. W. V. Wiley has been owner of the building for many years. Mr. Perkins will keep the Rytman building for a time.

Francis Linklater has arrived home after service in the U. S. Navy. He was in the Hospital Corps, and made several trips across the Atlantic. He saw Paris while across, and says the experience of the past few months was simply great. He will soon start to school at Reed College.

Circuit Court—The Grand Jury has submitted 36 indictments, and not true bills. Edward Blanchard was granted divorce from Julia Blanchard. Herbert Wiswell pleaded guilty to non-support and was given a year in the pen, paroled during good behavior and support of family.

Herman Reese's alto caught on fire from a flooded carburetor this morning, at Second and Jackson, and the department was called out. The damage to the car was considerable.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper, of Henderson, Ia., and Paul Hunter, of Shelton, Wa., are guests of the Homer and L. F. Emmotts.

Mrs. J. H. McKinney, telephone central at Scholls, fell Monday and broke her left wrist. Dr. Robb reduced the fracture.

Michael Mohr leaves next week to thresh his grain up in the Vegreville, Alberta, country.

J. C. Smith, for 25 years an Argus subscriber, was in town this morning. "Business is good," says John.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rhea, of Portland, are guests of the T. A. Rheas. J. P. is an oldtime stockman of the Heppner country.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gurske, Blooming, Oct. 26, 1919, a boy.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Hesse, of Scholls, Oct. 28, 1919, a girl.

Born, to Victor Hendricks and wife of Verboort, Oct. 26, 1919, a son.

Dr. Wiley has purchased the H. T. Koeber residence in East Hillsboro.

A. S. and Joseph Eischen, of near Blooming, were city callers today.

There's the truck for my business

MORE than 5000 farmers and business men have repeated these words—then acted—they purchased Oldsmobile Economy Trucks.

The Oldsmobile Economy Truck has been on the market but seven months; yet, in almost every line of business, it has proved a success. The reasons for this are plentiful: Power; speed; low upkeep; low operating expense; internal gear drive; sturdy, 4-cylinder, valve-in-head motor; deep channel frame; complete electrical system; 35 x 5 pneumatic cord tires; extra long, flexible, semi-elliptic springs and a 22 years' reputation behind it.
