COFFEE CLUB STARTS MEMORIAL BLDG MOVE

Big Dinner in M. E. Church Basement Friday Night Well Attended

MANY PLEDGE THEM HELP

Committee Will Soon Announce Plans and Amount Funds Needed

The ladies of the Coffee Club entertained business men and their wives at dinner, in the basement of the M. E. Church, Friday evening, and over 100 plates were laid. It was a representative gathering and the banquet was the initial effort of the club to foster the matter of building a memorial building for the service men who fought for their country, and incidentally for those who lost their lives in the war just closed. There were over 100 plates laid, and Mayor Wall presided. He stated the object of the meeting, and said the effort of the Club, which has been a vital force in civic affairs for years, merited financial support of all good citizenship.

District Attorney E. B. Tongue, Attorneys W. G. Hare and R. F. Peters, Sam Weil, Rev. Deek, J. H. Garrett, W. Mahon, Chas. E. Wells, C. B. Buchanan, Geo. E. Allen, R. R. Easter and others expressed a willingness to contribute with funds and work to see that such a structure is built. It was suggested that the Ladies' Coffee Club formulate plans and suggest a specific amount so that the gentlemen would know just about what the needs would be, and stated that when this was done a rapid-fire campaign would start. There were not a few who stated they would contribute all the way from $500 to $1000 each, and all who expressed themselves pledged their earnest support.

There was some discussion, and the general consensus of opinion was that the structure should be one of utility as well as of a memorial nature. Plans will be submitted for an auditorium, equipped with a gymnasium, and as soon as a tangible draft is submitted there will be committees appointed to see what can be done in the way of a campaign. The Club dinner was a big success, and there will be another in the not distant future—as soon as things shape themselves so it is known what is desired.

BOY LOST

Relatives and friends of William Earl Hirsch, 18-year-old son of Louis Hirsch, police sergeant-at-arms at the city hall, have practically given up hope of ever finding him alive following his disappearance in the woods last Sunday, near Cochran, Ore., in Washington County.

Officer Hirsch has been absent from his post at the city hall ever since last Monday, aiding in the search for his boy. He telegraphed Mrs. Hirsch late Friday night that he had decided to abandon the search and return home. Mrs. Hirsch was nearly prostrated on receiving the news at the family home, 744 Vaughn Street.

Young Hirsch went to Cochran to work in the lumber camp of C. H. Wheeler, last Saturday, according to Mrs. Hirsch. Last Sunday he went in the woods to hunt and has not been seen since. —Journal, Nov. 3.

C. Demmin, of South Tualatin, was in town Monday.

Travelers by auto in and out of Portland are having quite a time getting their machines thro' the dirt road, mingled with corduroy, where the highway leading out of Beaverton going north, crosses the Walker road. The place is rolling, and there is plenty of mud, and more than one motorist has been stuck in the gumbo. While the rains are on this is the best route into the city, but it is bad enough, at that, and drivers will welcome the day when the highway opens east of Beaverton.

Ranch for Sale—Farm of full 20 acres, fine soil, all cleared but little over an acre; fine running water; good well; all kinds of fruit and berries; milk route, mail route; telephone; good six-room house, rock cellar; full equipment of barns and outbuildings, close to Portland rock road, on United Railway. Will sell farm implements, stock, etc., if wanted.—Inquire of D. Giger, Hillsboro, R. 1, Box 74. 37.

Ray Sigler, of Klipsan, Wash., where he is with the Life Saving Station, under U. S. direction, came up the first of the week to join Mrs. Sigler, who has been visiting home folks. They returned the middle of the week. Ray still has four months to serve and says he will then return to civil life.

Only monument dealers in Washington County. Drop us a card, and we will show you our samples. Write or call on us, at 1363 Main St., Hillsboro.—Oregon Monument Works, Hillsboro, Ore. 30-4f

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Monteith, well known here several years ago, were here from Fairfield, near Spokane, over Sunday, the guests of friends here and at Farmington. Monteith is in the newspaper and real estate game.

I pay highest market price for old papers and magazines—25 lbs. to bundle; also buy old rags, metal, scrap iron, old auto tires, sacks, everything.—Ben Segal; telephone 2641, and will call. Watch for the junk man, license 127. 34-37

Dwight Pomeroy and wife, of Leisville, were in the city the last of the week. The Argus will wager that they have more wild blackberries canned than any other young couple in the county.

J. C. Lamkin is now in his tin-shop on Second Street, East of the court house, where he will be pleased to meet his old friends. He is prepared to do all kinds of tinwork, repairing, etc. 34

A. P. Luther is home with his team, after a Summer's campaign with Guthrie & Co., on the State Highway between here and Beaverton. He says that the company will fix up the drainage and shoulders as soon as weather permits.

For Sale—Four cows; heavy work horse; wagon in fair shape; buggy, nearly new; hand grubbing machine; shovels, joes, farm tools, etc.; a few pieces of furniture.—Mrs. Fred Meyers, 1 1/2 miles west of Laurel. Phone, Scholls 325 Line 13. 34-37

J. F. Haynie and F. L. Beamis, of Forest Grove, called on the Argus, Monday, while down to the court opening. Haynie started his 27th year as an Argus reader.

August Tews and family have moved into their new home in South Hillsboro, and are now "up in town" proper.

Henry Kamna, of Blooming, was in the city Monday.

OREGON SAWMILLS CUTTING TO CAPACITY

Building Boom Expected to Continue Over 1920

ACTIVITY ALL OVER STATE

G. H. P. Lumber Co. Cutting for Nehalem Railway

Lumber mills of state are cutting to capacity with big rush of business expected during next few months. All elements of the industry are agreed that the building boom calling for such heavy supply of lumber this year will continue with increased vigor next year.

Portland port commission will fill 20-acre factory site for large Michigan company to manufacture ready-made houses on a large scale. These houses can be shipped to any part of the country and set up without employing contractors or building trades.

The G. H. P. Lumber Co., of Hillsboro, is cutting bridge timbers and ties for the Nehalem railway, now under construction, Banks via Buxton, to Beaver Creek and the Nehalem, and the entire cut is being taken by the railway company.

Hood River pears going to $4 a box. Noted—Timbermen here closed a contract with the Postal Telegraph company for the delivery of 1500 cedar poles on board the cars at Waldon, on the Coos Bay branch.

Eugene—Farmers composing valley mint growers' association holding out for $8 a pound for oil. Offered $7.15. (Dad Reardon, take notice.)

Roseburg—Automatic electric brake to be manufactured here. With bar silver in New York selling at $1.28, the highest price in 30 years, long abandoned silver mining districts of West are being revived.

Stayton wants a mattress factory. Have an abundance of water power, labor conditions excellent and woolen mill at Stayton from which wool waste could be obtained.

Dayton has opening for cheese factory. Banks wants a cannery and has sufficient fruit for operations next season.

Salem to have $250,000 house-building corporation planned to erect 100 new houses for workmen during the next 6 months.

Lakewood wants a flour mill and elevator. Flour mill that was in operation burned last year. That country is raising about 150,000 bushels of wheat this year and will probably double the yield in 1920.

Marshfield has recently completed a veneer plant and is desirous of securing a paper mill plant.

Purchase of a forest, erection of a sawmill and addition of a plat to Pendleton to provide means of alleviating the house shortage is advocated.

Stanfield—Flume building on Furnish ditch to carry 150 inches water, 1000 cars apple crop for Western Oregon is prospect next year.

Pendleton—Umatilla hard wheat brings record price of $2.45 a bushel.

Five year old loganberry patch near Salem returns $1600 to owner from acre and a half this year.

Hood River apple crop will reach 3,000,000 boxes and bring growers approximately $6,000,000.

Herman Salzwedel, of near Cornelius, was an Argus caller Monday afternoon.

Leonard VanLom and John Herdlein, of beyond Blooming, were in town the last of the week.

Wanted—Position as clerk, office attendant, or similar situation.—Address Miss Ivy Burk, Box 38, Dilley, Ore. 34-36

Gabe Essner, of above Mountaineer, was a city caller the first of the week.

Perkins now has his free air and water system installed—drive up and help yourself. You are welcome. 3-t f

John Kassebaum, who has lived at Cedar Mill and at Shady Brook for over 25 years, now a resident of Portland, was out Saturday, meeting his former county seat friends.

Want 20 to 40-acre farm, with stock and machinery, at $4000 to $6000; $3000 cash.—F. M. Phelps, P. O. Box No. 672, Portland, Ore. 34-37

Miles J. Haynes, of Sherwood, was up to the city Saturday.

John McFee, of Laurel, was in Monday. John still watches the baseball scores in season.

Jacob Schneider and Carl Meier, of near Leisville, were city visitors Saturday.

For Sale—Twenty-five head of Cotswold sheep.—John Caldwell, Manning, Ore. 33-35

H. M. Basford, of near Cedar Mill, was up Monday on legal business.

Gideon Hickey and family, of near Elmonica, have moved to Hillsboro to reside in the Northside Addition.

For sale: Three houses, street and sewer paid up, also vacant lot on highway. Inquire at 1032 Washington St. 32-5

Detectives McCarthy and Catura, of the S. P. Co., were out Monday, on special business for the line.

For Sale Cheap—Good, used bicycle; new tires and seat. Write or inquire at 1153 Edison Street, Hillsboro. 35-37

Dan Ennes, of Roy, who knows just where the finest trout hold; their meetings in Dairy, was in town the last of the week, greeting friends.

For Sale—Team horses, 5 years old, weight about 3000; gentle; true to pull; no blemishes.—Inquire of J. F. Garwood, 2 miles north of Mountaineer. 34-6

Michael Rasmussen, of near Elmonica, was transacting business in the county seat Monday. Mrs. Jennie McE. Galbreath, of Tualatin, was visiting friends in the city Monday.

Taken up—Black and white Holstein heifer, about 18 months old. Owner can have same by proving property, paying adv. and expense of keep.—Nick Kies, Hillsboro, R. 1. 35-37

W. T. Kerr, of Creswell, came up last week to look after his potato harvest at Gaston. He has about a thousand sacks of finest spuds, and is selling them in the Portland market.

B. L. Scheeha, of below Tigard, was an Argus caller Monday. A few days more and he will be able to come to Hillsboro nearly all the way on a hard surface road.

Wanted—Three to six thousand cords of first growth of fir stumpage, within a mile of railroad loading station. Also 400 to 1000 cords white fir stumpage.—Address Box 25, Oreco, Oregon. 35-36

Mrs. Earl Hollenbeck, of above Mountaineer, who has been at the Robb-Wiley Hospital for several weeks, following a severe operation, was taken to Portland for convalescence the last of the week.

Henry Mohr, of Oak Park, was in the city the last of the week, and brought in some fine exhibits of purple-top and cowhorn turnips. They are as fine as any seen yet this year from local production.

Strayed—Yearling Holstein heifer, mostly black, with white in forehead; had bell on. Last seen near John R. Bailey place, near Buxton.—Finder please notify C. C. Nelson, Eacona, Ore. 35-37

Three thousand pure-bred animals in the cattle, horse, sheep, swine and goat classes have been entered. Eleven states are represented in the exhibits. Coincident with the Exposition will be held the extensive exhibits and practical educational program of the Western Dairy Products Show. The annual convention of the Western Dairy Instructors' Association will also be held in conjunction.

For Sale—Place of 12 1/2 acres, all cleared and well improved; new 7-room house; good well; new barn; lot of berries and bearing fruit trees; silo; 2 miles south of Hillsboro, near rock road. Equipped with team, cows, farm tools. Will sell complete, or will trade for farming land; buildings not necessary.—J. E. West. 35-37

Chas. E. Koontz, city driver, and Cal. Jack Jr., Cashier of the Shute Savings, started for the Nehalem, Monday, with a camp outfit, a cargo of salt, and some barrels, their impedimenta being taken along to salt down a lot of jack-salmon. If the fish are running strong they expect to remain a week. Having heard that the weather on the coast side of the mountains was very warm, each took his bathing suit along.

Sam J. Galloway, of Leisville, was in the city Monday afternoon.

RED CROSS DRIVE ON FOR MEMBERSHIP

County is Now Well Organized and Battle is on

THIRD ANNUAL ROLL CALL

Leaders Expect to Eclipse Record of Last Year

The goal sought in the counties of Clackamas, Columbia, Washington, Yamhill and Multnomah is 150,000 new members during the Red Cross campaign lasting from Nov. 6 to 11. Each membership will be one dollar; the campaign being for members, not funds. With a membership as large as anticipated, the money received should insure the continuance during the coming year of the home service work of the Red Cross and the relief of returned soldiers and their dependents.

The distinction won by Oregon in 1918, by securing the highest percentage of membership in the Red Cross, on a basis of population, of any state in the union, by enrolling about 249,600 members, is one of which the state is proud. Leaders in the present campaign believe this record will be equalled, if not exceeded, during the third annual roll call.

Posts of the American Legion throughout Oregon have united with the Red Cross chapters and branches in their efforts to make the coming drive an unqualified success.

Sam Weil, of Hillsboro, who made a record last year for securing the largest percentage of members of any county in the state, is again in charge of the drive in eastern Washington County. C. G. Reiter is chairman of the committee of the American Legion Post at Hillsboro. J. H. Garrett has been named publicity manager, and Mrs. L. W. Hyde, assistant campaign manager. E. J. McAlear is Red Cross chairman for Hillsboro chapter. The 84 districts under the supervision of Mr. Weil have been lined up and are ready for the gun.

Mr. Weil has appointed the following on local work: Mrs. L. W. Hyde, assistant campaign manager; J. H. Garrett, publicity director; E. J. McAlear, chairman speakers; Captains, Mrs. O. B. Gates, Mrs. M. H. Stevenson, Mrs. C. R. Bagley, Mrs. M. N. Lewis; Mrs. O. J. Briggs, train captain; Mrs. E. T. Helms, Post Office captain.

Western Washington County will be handled by Judge W. H. Hollis, of Forest Grove, representing the Red Cross chapter, and Dr. Ralph Mills, chairman of the Forest Grove Post No. 2, of the American Legion. Judge Hollis and Dr. Mills report that their campaign plans are already made and everything is ready for the opening date.

W. B. Dennis, of Carlton, who has handled a number of war drives and several Liberty Loan campaigns, will be county chairman for Yamhill County during the Red Cross membership campaign. Major Leonard Hopfield, U. S. Reserve Corps and Chairman of McMinnville Post No. 21, has been appointed county campaign manager, and with Mr. Dennis is completing the organization of the county committees.

Frank Swart, chairman of the Newberg Post of the Legion, is cooperating with the Newberg auxiliaries and war work committees; Soren Sorncson, chairman the Amity Post of the American Legion, has taken charge of the organization of committees in that district.

HOUSE AND 2 LOTS

Seven-room house—furnished if desired. Real property alone, $1900. Payment down, say $800, and $15 per month on balance. At 1809 Baseline St. Electric lights, hot and cold water, bath. This is a snap. Come and see this as it will be taken soon. All kinds of fruit. On new highway, just completed.—Owner.

I have sold the Watkins' business to Frank L. Moore. He will continue selling at 850 Third St., and will visit your place three or four times a year. I will make a collection trip soon. Wait for the Watkins' man—he will save you money. 34-36

W. T. Curtis, of Oreco, wood contractor, was up to the city on Monday afternoon. He is in the market now for several thousand cords of good stumpage, close to a railway station.
