

Camel Cigarettes

They Win You On Quality!

Your enjoyment of Camels will be very great because their refreshing flavor and fragrance and mellowness is so enticingly different. You never tasted such a cigarette! Bite is eliminated and there is a cheerful absence of any unpleasant cigarette after-taste or any unpleasant cigarette odor.

Camels are made of an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos and are smooth and mild, but have that desirable full-body and certainly hand out satisfaction in generous measure. You will prefer this Camel blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

Give Camels the stiffest tryout, then compare them with any cigarette in the world at any price for quality, flavor, satisfaction. No matter how liberally you smoke Camels they will not tire your taste!

Tuesday was Armistice Day and was a Holiday all over the dominion of Uncle Sam. Hillsboro was a regular Sunday in appearance, as all banks and the court house closed in the morning and all business houses suspended operations in the afternoon. Hundreds of service men who a year ago were at the front or in the camps, are home, and only here and there is a man absent from his old home county. Portland had a big celebration and parade.

Manager Phelps, of the Liberty Theatre, entertained his audience with two numbers from the big pipe organ Monday evening, and all were very much pleased over the innovation. He will in a few weeks more have the instrument entirely installed, when it will be given a "regular" tryout. The big organ will have cost the Liberty several thousand dollars by the time it is entirely assembled.

W. A. Goodin, the breeder of registered Guernseys, of near James, west of the county seat, was in the city Tuesday. He will take a number of his registered herd to the Livestock Show, and enter them in competition with some of the best in the world. Here's hoping that he takes many prizes, and most likely he will.

U. at 6:30 p. m.; subject of morning sermon, "Preaching the Gospel," of evening sermon, "Followers of God;" prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. Everybody welcome.

Rheinhard Scherner, who last week was fined $500 on pleading guilty to violating the prohibition law, and was offered parole upon payment of $200 and costs, concluded to serve 250 days in the county bastille rather than pay. His brother Peter came up Monday and paid the $200 and Rheinhard was released.

Chas. McFadden, the cigar man, is working overtime to keep up with his orders for his well known brand of cigars.
