

AUTO DAMAGE CASE HEARD BY A JURY

Newman Gets Verdict for $462.04,
04, Repairs Auto and Self

NOTHING FOR HIS NERVES

Case of Interest Tried by Twelve Men in Circuit Court

Fred Newman, of Amity, was given a verdict for $462.04 against Fred Carpenter and Fred Kuehn, of Garden Home, in circuit court, this week, as the result of a long court trial for damages resultant of a collision on the Capitol Highway, May 24, 1919. Newman alleged in his complaint that he had the right of way on the Capitol Hill highway at the intersection of the Taylor Ferry road, when Kuehn came along with an auto truck, driving for Fred Carpenter, the Garden Home merchant. He alleged that Kuehn wantonly collided with him, threw the Newman machine off the road, slammed it up against an iron sign post, injured the machine $600 worth, badly damaged Newman's nose, and that his nerves were so shattered from the accident that he was damaged in the sum of $1,000, besides the cost of repairing the auto and the five dollars of a physician's bill. The jury religiously gave Newman every cent he that he paid the garage for repairing the machine and the $5 doctor's bill, but no more. Newman was in court, and the presumption was that the jurors held that he was not injured so far as his nerves were concerned—for that was their verdict.

The trial has established one thing that is a mighty good precedent, however, for a careless driver, or owner of a machine which is driven by a careless driver, must pay for damages sustained by any person into whose machine they ram an out-law car.

The jury: R. A. Barber, Martin Larsen, J. C. Bechen, F. L. Jensen, B. F. Purdy, A. M. Porter, G. O. Frost, Alfred Greenberg, John Ireland, J. A. Kirkwood, Geo. Buckingham and B. Lamont.

Jack Wilson, charged with non-support, will have until Nov. 24 to plead.

Ethel Williams, charged with unlawful cohabitation, will plead Nov. 22.

John Ockland, who smashed some windows up in the Cherry Grove section, pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $100 for his I. W. W. tendencies. On payment of $10 he stands paroled.

J. W. Hatfield was granted a decree of divorce from Olive Hatfield.

NOTICE

Having sold the grocery and feed business formerly conducted by me on First St., South Hillsboro, all persons owing me for purchases are requested to call and settle same immediately at the Hillsboro Commercial Bank.

F. W. Welch,
Hillsboro, Oregon, November 12, 1919. 36-8

John Dooley, of near Banks, was a caller Tuesday morning. John was one who knew how to "knock one over the fence" back in the good old days of local baseball.

Walter Keffer, of Portland, was in town Tuesday, greeting friends. This is his first trip to Hillsboro since he received an injury by and through the collapse of a defective elevator. He is still on crutches and will have to use them yet for several weeks. His father, J. M. Keffer, came in from West Union to meet him while he was in the city. Walter thinks it tough luck to be in the thick of it in the submarine zone throughout the war and then come home to get a fall in a measly elevator.

Ranch for Sale—Farm of full 20 acres, fine soil, all cleared but little over an acre; fine running water; good well; all kinds of fruit and berries; milk route, mail route; telephone; good six-room house, rock cellar; full equipment of barns and outbuildings, close to Portland rock road, on United Railway. Will sell farm implements, stock, etc. if wanted.—Inquire of D. Giger, Hillsboro, R. 1, Box 74. 27.

As a result of the Washington County Commanding Officers' examination of the U. S. Girls' Reserve Corps, which was held in Portland, Nov. 11, Miss Clara Hamer has been appointed to fill the vacancy left by the promotion of Miss Frances Ball from this office to the Oregon State General Staff. Miss Hamer has accomplished unusually fine work for a period of over nine months, during which time she served as a Captain on the Washington Co. General Staff. Miss Ball will make out her final report and turn the books over to Miss Hamer in the near future.
