Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long.

An expert on psychology who has watched the gates at the Portland Livestock Show says that not a single I. W. W. attended the big affair. There's a reason.

The Senate adjourned without ratifying the treaty, and before passing out defeated the Lodge amendments—and there you are. As a consequence, all of President Wilson's enemies are gratified, regardless of the hereafter. And still the highway remains closed!

FRANK S. BRADLEY

Frank S. Bradley died at his Creswell home, Nov. 6, and was brought to Banks for interment Nov. 10. Mr. Bradley was well known in this county, having resided at Banks for many years, and but recently moving to Creswell. He leaves a widow and the following children: Chas. Bradley, of New York; Mrs. Rose Bradley, of Creswell, and Mrs. Wm. Thornburgh, of Banks.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to tender our sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness and assistance during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late husband and father, C. P. Wunderlich, and return special thanks for the floral tributes.
